where we never shall weep"

And in the "Home of the Soul"
rests from all labor and sorrow.

In the fall of 1862 Comrade Sellers enlisted in Company "D" 45th th Habana Reg't

der the "Stars and Bars" in the

read from Annals

Poem by Lincolnton

Army of Tennessee to the close of the war.

He was for many years a Methodist Minister and served R E Lee Camp for quite a time as its Chaplain.

A good Citizen, an upright man, a Comrade who wore the gray, has gone to his reward.

One by one our Comrades
fall and "the thin gray line" grows thinner still.

"Out bravely we will face the foe
While here on earth we stay Until the Trump of God shall ^{sound}
That great "Reunion Day".

Respectfully submitted
