

My Darling Klara Leaville
Your letter (18th) Nov 26th 1883 reached me this morning, and just one week ago today I was writing you, so the letter you looked for on Sunday did not reach you until the last of the week. Another week, and no word from Frank. I begin to feel so anxious to get started I thought surely to be home for Thanksgiving and it is getting so near Xmas I will be so hurried, even with my small remembrances, and then the stores get so crowded, I know too you must need me. Frank is in all probability trying to get the presses, and I hope he will succeed, but still feel he does not realize how the time is passing. How would it do for you to see him, and urge the matter, on the plea of needing me. I do hope this week will bring some word, if only I was to start this morning. Mr. was in town twice last week, on Friday said he had written you, & that I in town one day also. Mr. I expect again to day. Yesterday Ed drove to the ranch & Ella and I were going, but a cold driving snow storm prevented. We now expect to go on Wednesday, just for a few hours, it is a fine drive. Mr. is well, and so good and kind to me.

if only I did not have to leave him behind, I am enjoying so much my stay with Ed & Ella, they are so kind, make me feel so welcome, but I now begin to feel that I am imposing on their kindness, you can understand me. Three weeks tomorrow since my arrival, and had no idea it would

surely to have now been home and all settled. To you and I are to be roommates, what have you done with Father? will we not quarrel that is sure - pop. My pupil went unexpectedly to Denver, so only took four lessons (4) it seemed unfortunate that I am here, I would not
"fork" in more money. I am so glad all goes on so nicely at home, and Mary is contented that is all important. Tell her I have some boss true stories to tell her. Give Arthur my love, and tell him

"Auntie Anna" is good for matinees and wants so much to see him. Am glad Willie H. will spend Thanksgiving with you, also I hope his Christmas holidays. Have you decided upon a girl as yet? Mary was. is a few give her much love. Business at "The Bakery" is brisk, three bakers going all the time.

Ed does all the outside work, and says he cannot fill the orders, has to refuse many, one contract he has of 8400 loaves of bread daily, he has entire charge of the ponies, so manages that between
