House Bill No. 978.

Senator Small received unanimous consent to suspend the regular order and take up H. B. No. 978.

The Chair laid before the Senate on its second reading the following bill:

H. B. No. 978, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing the creation and incorporation of wind erosion conservation districts co-extensive with the area of any county in this State; prescribing the methods for the creation of same, and designating the powers and duties of such districts; prescribing that the county judge and commissioners court shall constitute the governing body and that the county treasurer and county clerk shall be the treasurer and clerk of such districts, etc., and declaring an emergency."

Senator Small sent up the following amendment:

Amend H. B. No. 978 by adding a new section 13 to read as follows (and renumber remaining sections):

Sec. 12. The fact that unprecedented damage has resulted to the soil of the counties hereinafter named by reason of soil erosion caused by wind, which has been so serious as to drive people from their homes and to render vast areas of valuable land untenable; and the further fact that vast clouds of dust have been carried by winds for hundreds of miles and have caused practically every section of the State to suffer therefrom, and the further fact that such condition has seriously jeopardized the health of a great many people has resulted in a public calamity to the counties hereinafter named; therefore, to aid and facili-

Please accept my sincere gratitude to you and the entire Senate for the wonderful honor paid my departed husband: I shall ayways cherish
the beautiful words of respect you paid him and how pleased he would have been.

Thanking you again.

Cordially yours,

MRS. WARD TEMPLEMAN.

By Alsop. H. J. R. No. 23.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution authorizing the Legislature to provide for Workmen's Compensation Insurance for employees of the State, and authorizing the Legislature to provide for the payment of premiums on such policies of insurance; providing the State shall never be required to purchase insurance for any employee; providing for the necessary publication and election; making an appropriation to pay for same.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article 3 of the Constitution be amended

Section to read as follows:

"Sec. 5. The State shall have power to make and enforce such laws as may be necessary to secure to men's Constitutional rights such State shall have power to provide for the payment of costs, charges and policies of insurance. The State shall have power to purchase insurance for any employee; providing for the necessary publication and election; making an appropriation to pay for same."

Sec. 2. The State shall have power to make and enforce such laws as may be necessary to secure to men's Constitutional rights such State shall have power to provide for the payment of costs, charges and policies of insurance. The State shall have power to purchase insurance for any employee; providing for the necessary publication and election; making an appropriation to pay for same."

"For the purpose of the Legislature to provide for the payment of costs, charges and policies of insurance. The State shall have power to purchase insurance for any employee; providing for the necessary publication and election; making an appropriation to pay for same."

And all other laws to the same effect words:

"Again, the State shall have power to make and enforce such laws as may be necessary to secure to men's Constitutional rights such State shall have power to provide for the payment of costs, charges and policies of insurance. The State shall have power to purchase insurance for any employee; providing for the necessary publication and election; making an appropriation to pay for same."

Sec. 3. Conference

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. The several sums of money hereinafter indicated, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are hereby appropriated out of the General Revenue Fund for the purpose of paying taxes due by the State to the several respective independent school districts named herein, as follows:

Name of School District	Years for which taxes are due	Amount
Sugarland Independent School District	1918 to 1927, inclusive	$ 6,148.80
Richmond Independent School District	1921 to 1929, inclusive	4,420.75
Maydelle Independent School District	1934	150.00
Rusk Independent School District	1925 to 1930, inclusive	2,665.00
Total		$ 13,383.75

Section 2. The fact that all of these taxes under existing Statutes of the State are now long past due and that no appropriation for the payment has been made heretofore by the Legislature, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended and said rule is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.
