Competing houses may sometimes, for an object, cut under our prices, but in the long run we have found that where our customers bought at less than our figures they found a difference in quantity or quality, which explained the difference in price. Our motto is: "LOWEST PRICES CONSISTENT WITH GOOD QUALITY AND HONEST QUAN-TITY."

Mr. L. De Bona,
Eagle Pass, Texas.

Dear Sir:

Yours of the 5th inst. duly to hand and noted. In reply would say that I regret very much to learn of your illness, but trust ere this you are around again and enjoying good health.

I note your remarks in relation to referring to your letter of July 26th, and have same before me. Have credited your account with the overcharge on the Cunningham & De Furiar goods, and enclose credit voucher. As to the Cunningham & De Furiar potted goods, which you refer to as being unable to sell, would ask that you hold same a little while as our Mr. Wefing will be in your section shortly, and will advise you more fully on this subject.

Yours truly
