

for the offense. Sam says the crab is getting as well, and I am glad, that it is so.

He says Cousin Martin has been invited to make a speech at Independence on the 21st Inst. It might be well to do so. Sam tells me of Charley's wedding.

I reckon Sam feels a little more kindish, towards Charley than he has done heretofore. Love to all

My Dear,

This morning, I had the pleasure to receive a letter from our son Sam, and was gratified to hear that your health was very good, and "all well." He has been from Tulsa, & I suppose he is happy. I must write to him, soon.

Last night I was to a Party, at Spraker Bank, and 11

saw Uncle James Cahoon alias Madam Beecher Stow. She certainly is a handsome subject to look at.

I was at the Party and have eat an ice cream. I left.
It is the first, and only Party I have been at this season, and think it will be the last. I can even tell you a secret. I bought for Miss Hanson a pretty little Locket, had a post-
-ly good Miniature type Letter of you, and with 11

my hair placed in it. It is rather early. Of course I wear it in my bosom, suspended by a Blue & white Ribbon. Whether or not you wished me to thus arrange it I want say, but as I have a fancy to have you in my bosom, I concluded to act upon my whims without advise ment with you. If you should blame me, I shall soon to have an opportunity of making a suitable apol-
