

COMMISSIONERS.
L. J. STOREY,
CHAIRMAN.
ALLISON MAYFIELD,
O. B. COLQUITT,
E. R. McLEAN, SECRETARY.

Railroad Commission of Texas.

Austin. 26th January, 1906.

To the Confederate Veterans and

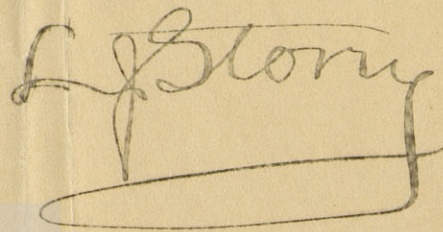

other good citizens of Fort Worth, Texas:

This will introduce my old Confederate comrade, Leonidas Rogan, Esq., for many years a citizen of Lockhart, Caldwell County, Texas. Mr. Rogan is an educated gentleman, well read, in the law practice for many years at Lockhart, was county judge of that county, and held other places of trust in that county. He is a good school teacher, bank clerk, and competent to hold other places of trust.

He came from Tennessee while a mere boy, enlisted in Company B, 26th Regiment of Cavalry, Sept. 18, 1861, and served with me as a member of that company during the war.

He made a brave and faithful soldier and has ever proved himself a perfect gentleman, and I bespeak for him your kind consideration.

Very respectfully,

ljs-jes

Rollins Commission

Rollins Commission
Rollins Commission
Rollins Commission

Rollins Commission
Rollins Commission
Rollins Commission

To the Confederate Veterans and
other good citizens of Fort Worth, Texas:
This will interest you as Confederate veterans, and for many years a citizen of Fort Worth, Texas. Mr. Hogan is an educated gentleman, well known in the law practice Fort Worth at Fort Worth, was county judge of that county and held other offices of trust in that county. He is a good school teacher, bank officer, and competent to hold other places of trust.

He came from Tennessee while a man's boy, enlisted in Company B, 23rd Regiment of Cavalry, Feb. 12, 1862, and served with us as a member of that company during the war.
He made a brave and faithful soldier and has ever proved himself a good fact gentleman, and I hope for his good conduct.
Very respectfully,
J. B. Hogan

Rollins