#15

WELCOME!

Wont you come in and visit with us for awhile?

AT HOME 1945
January 26 - March 24
And in the receiving line
we have —

Spring, 1945

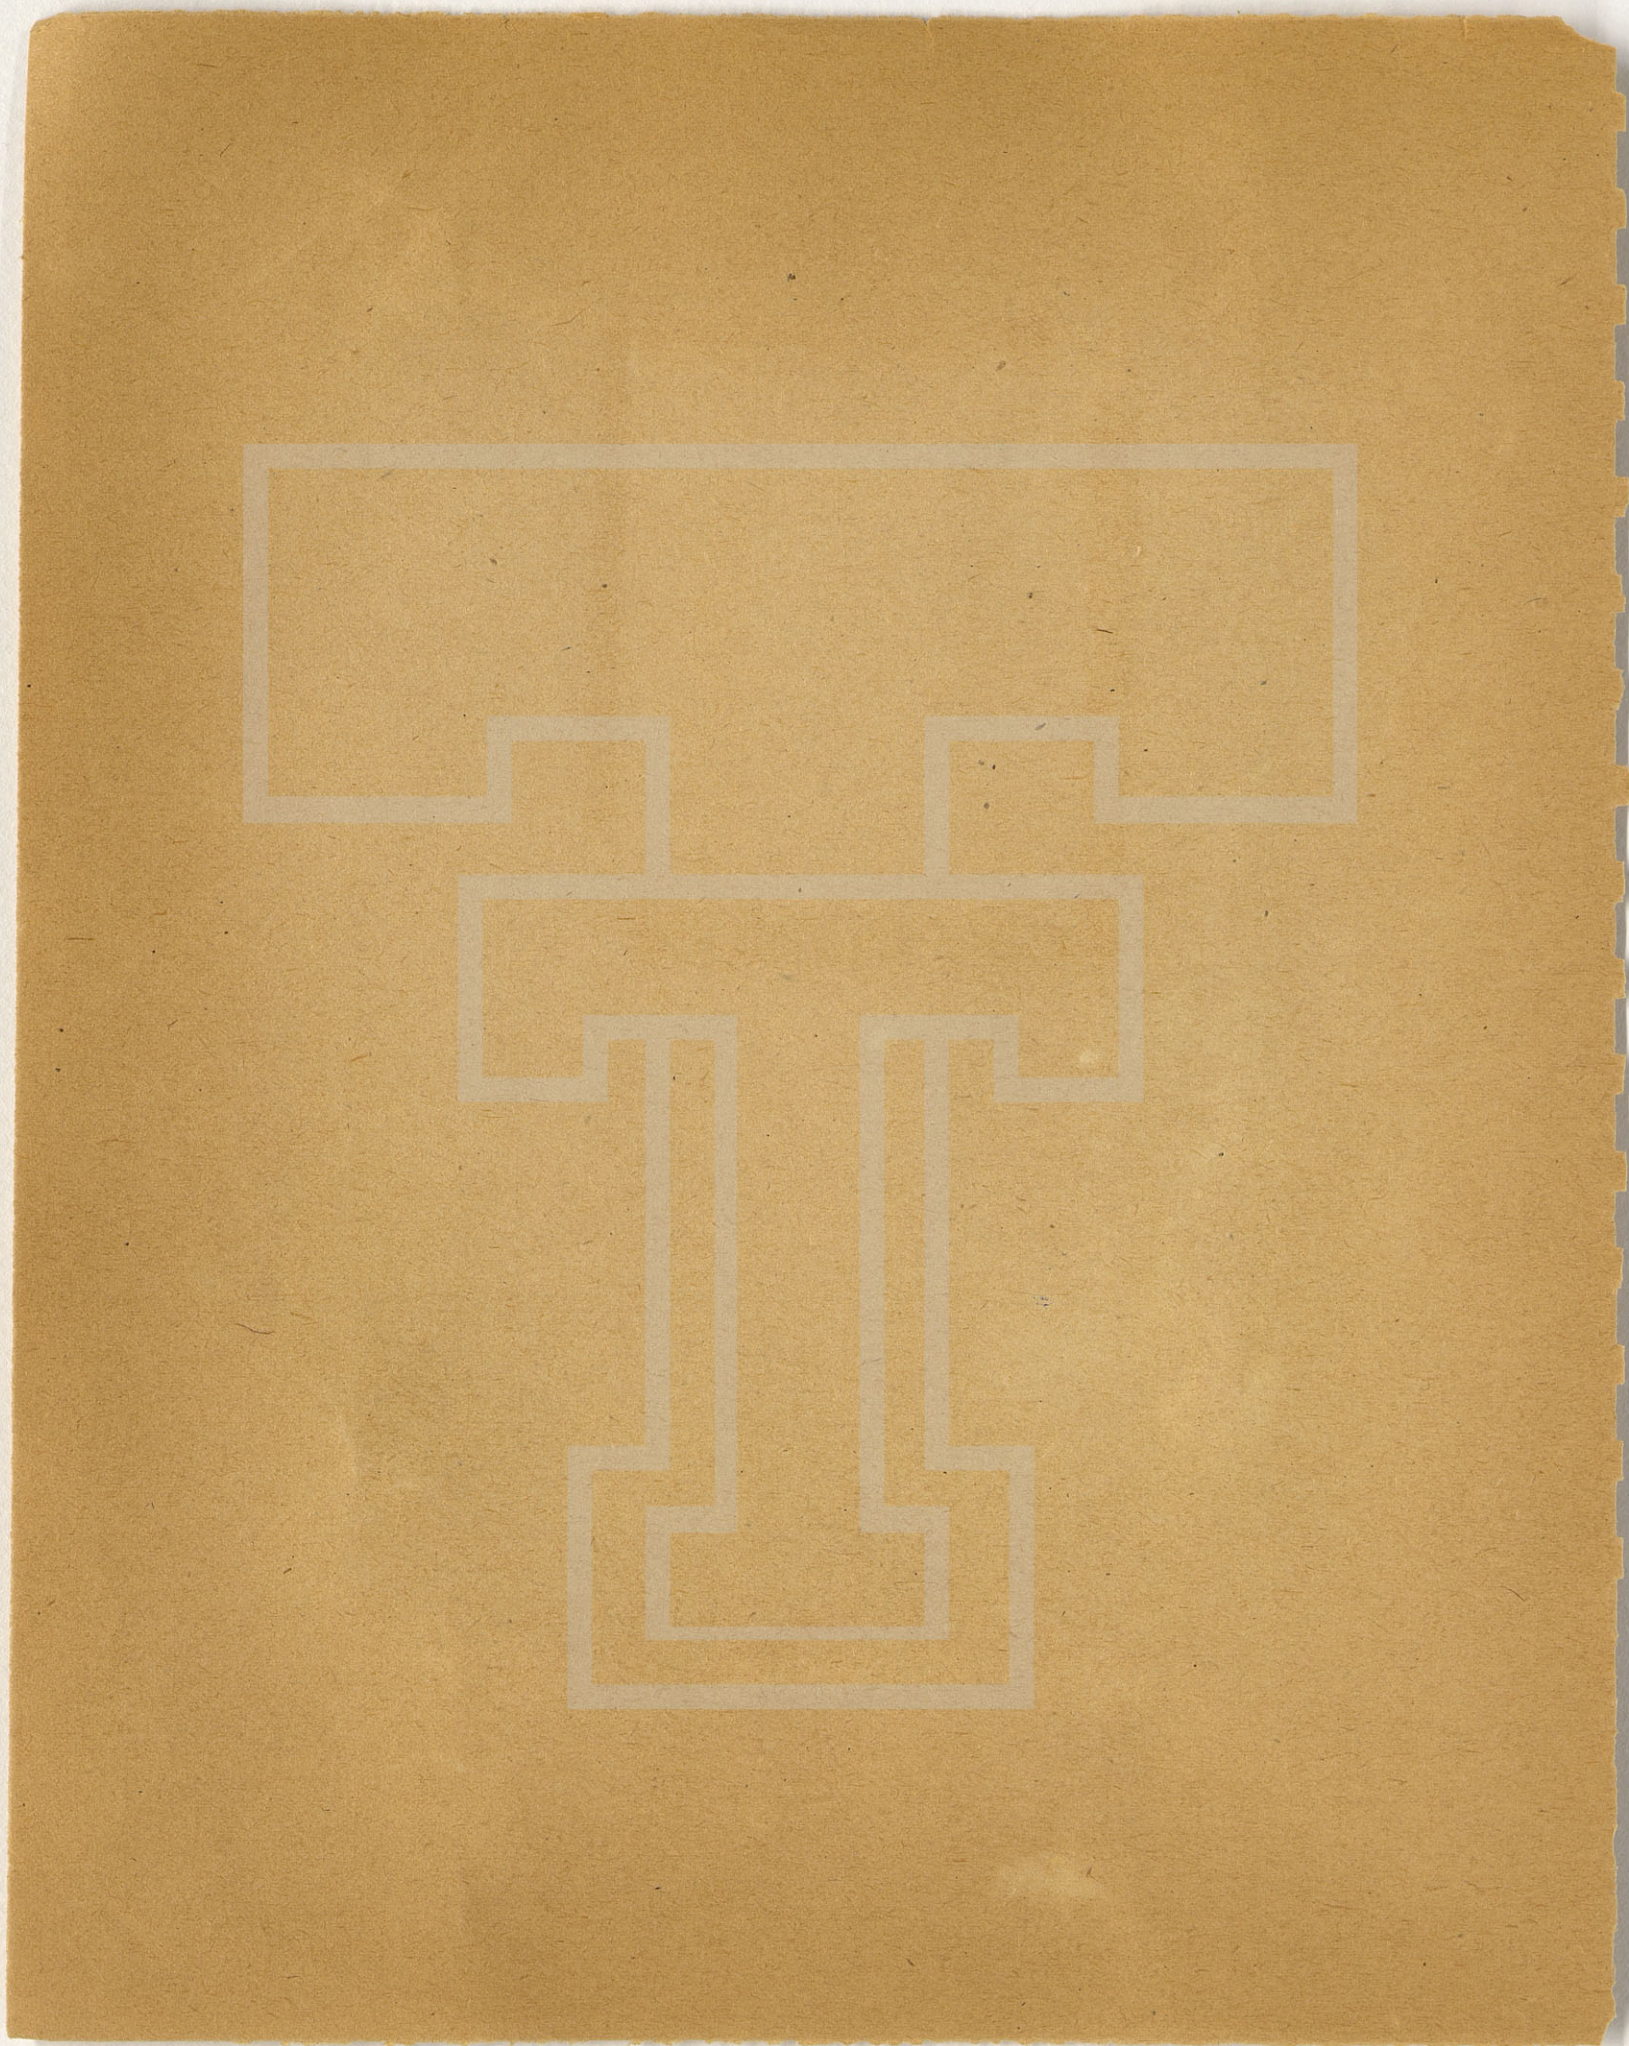

Miss Urban

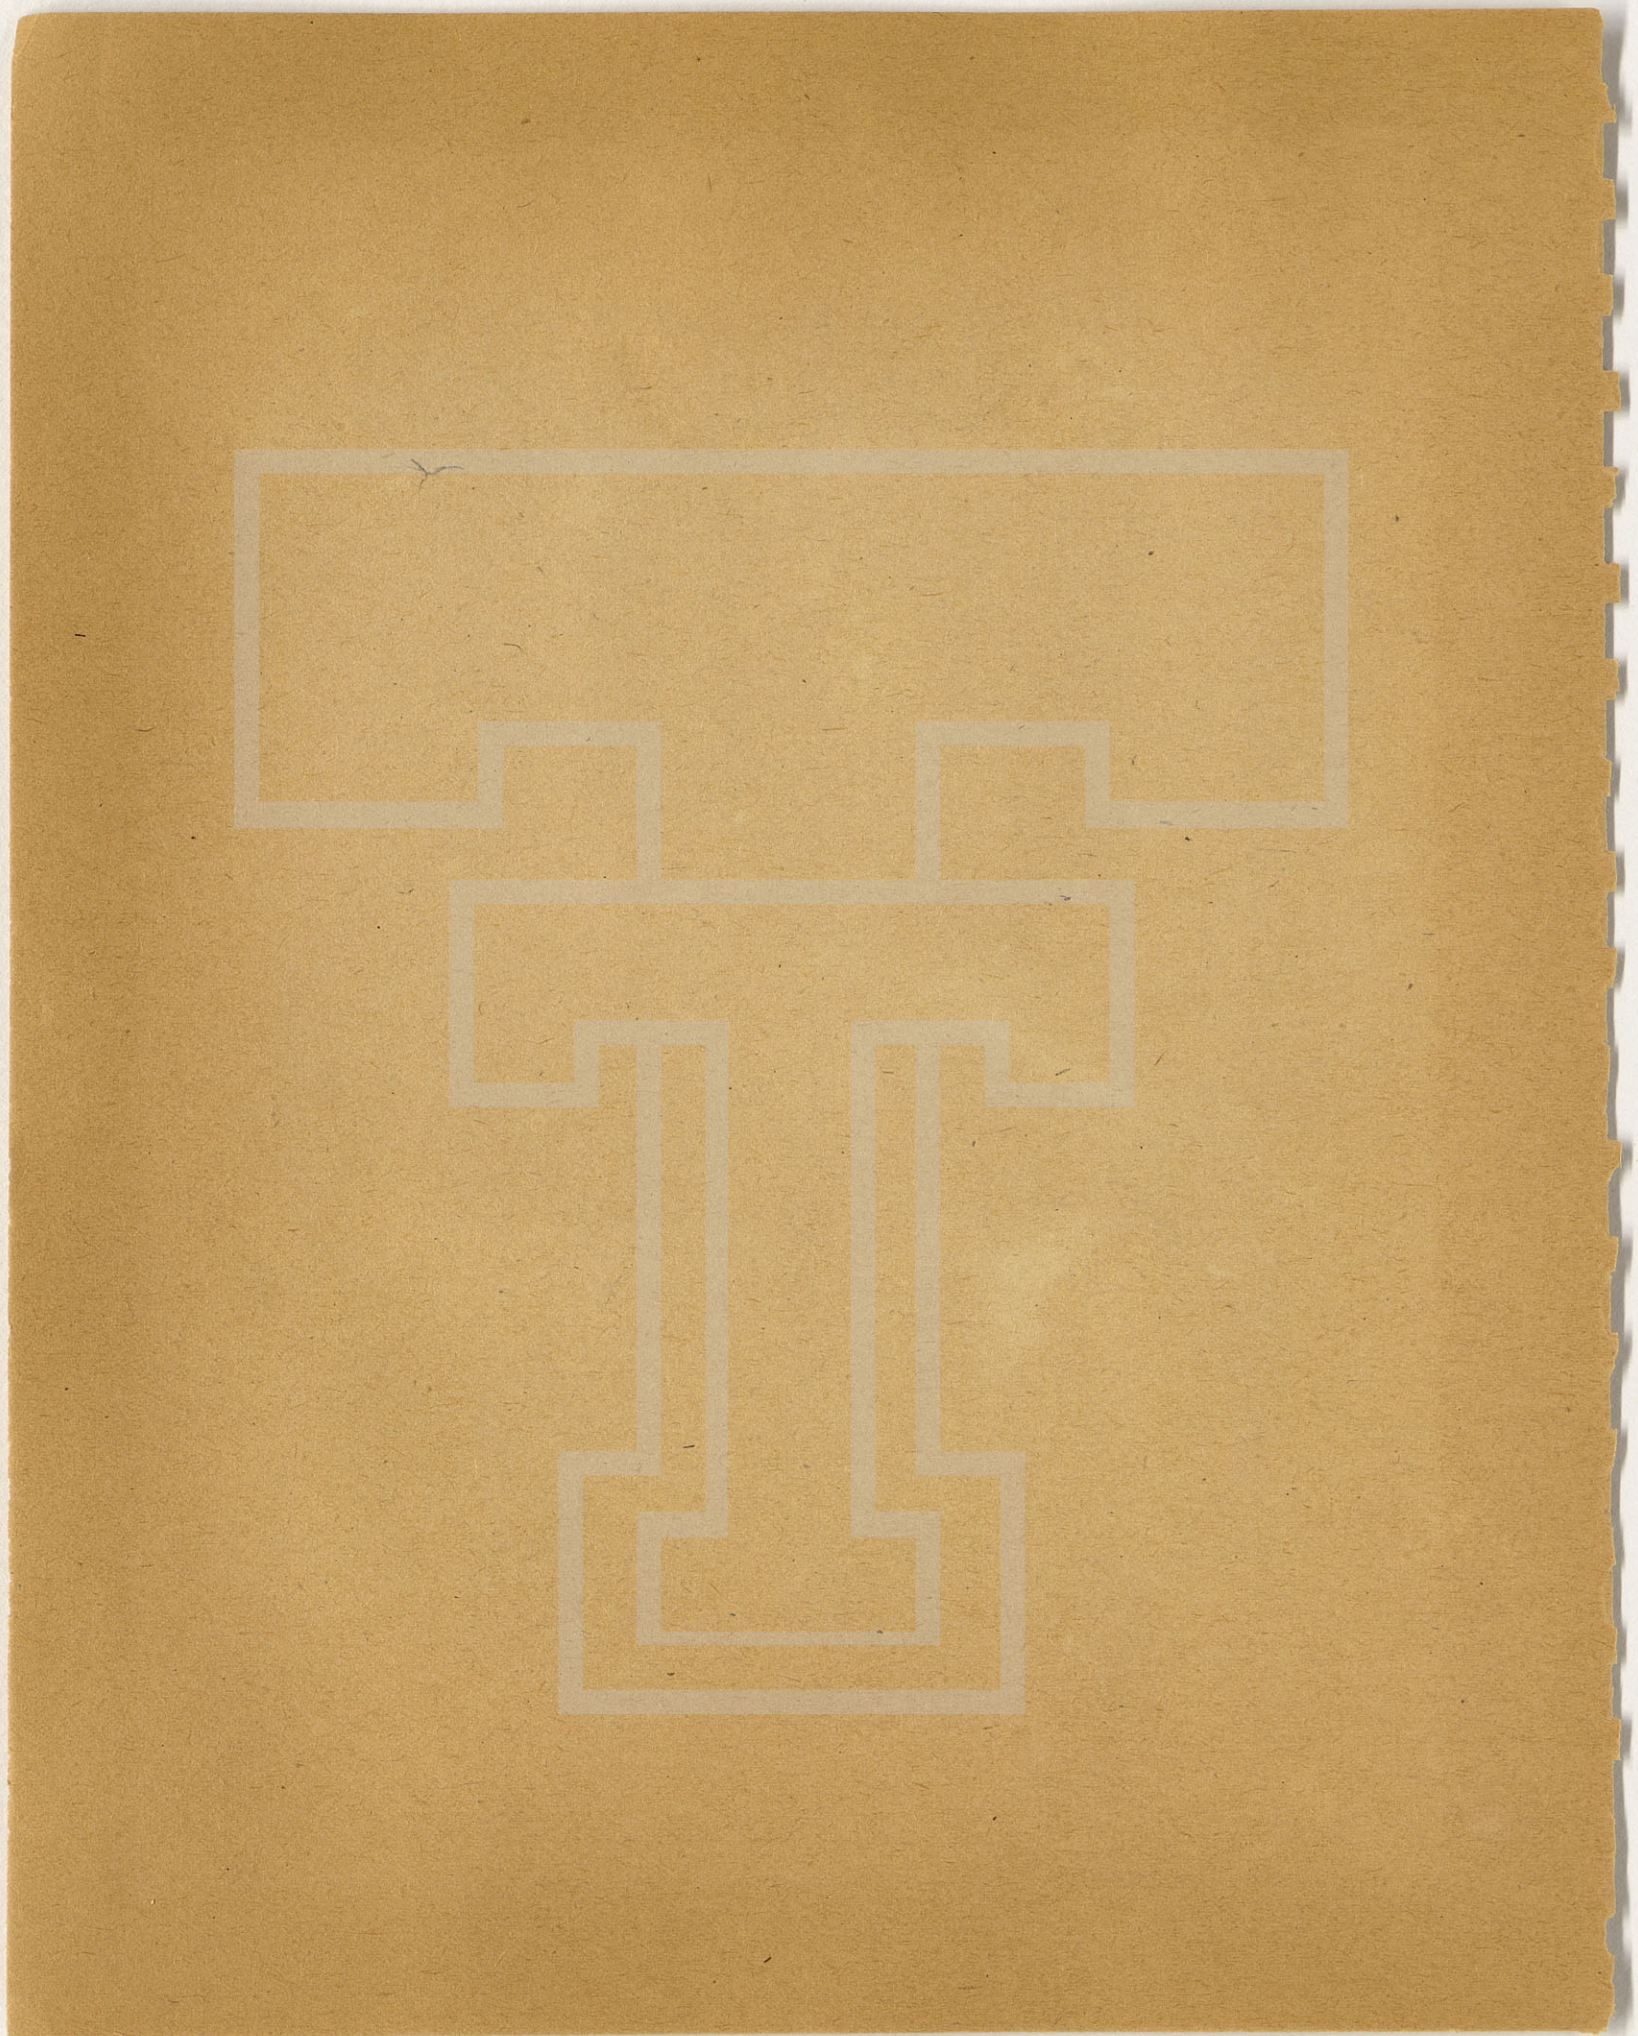

Mike

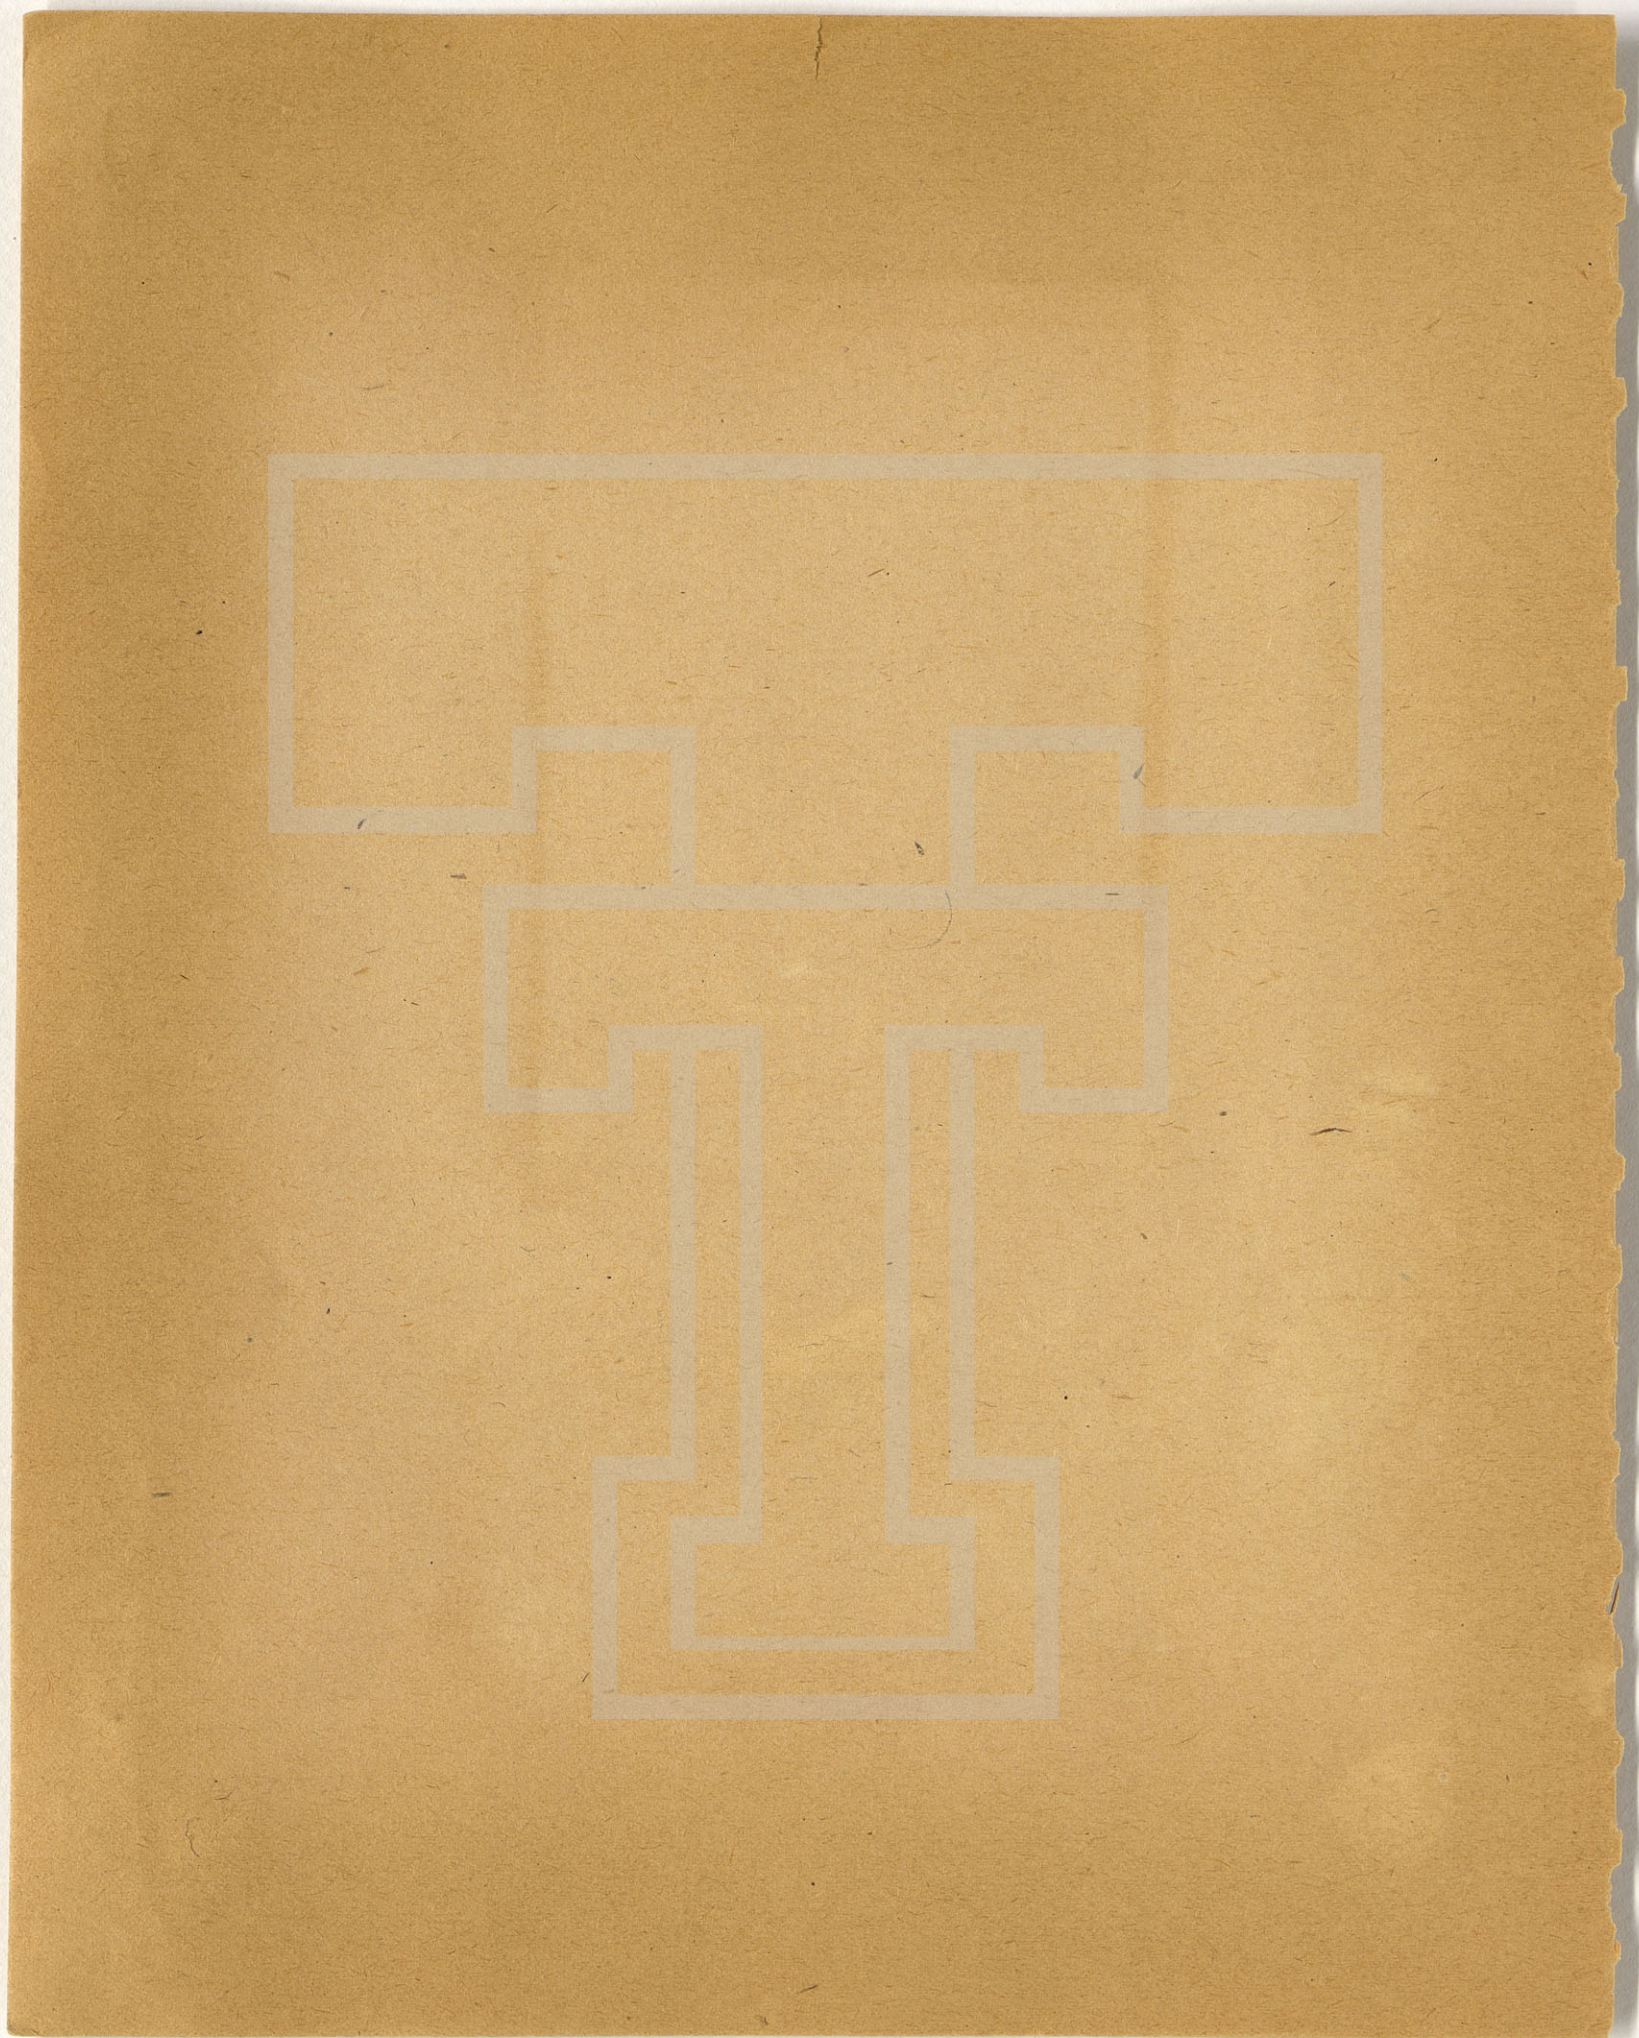

Josie Lee

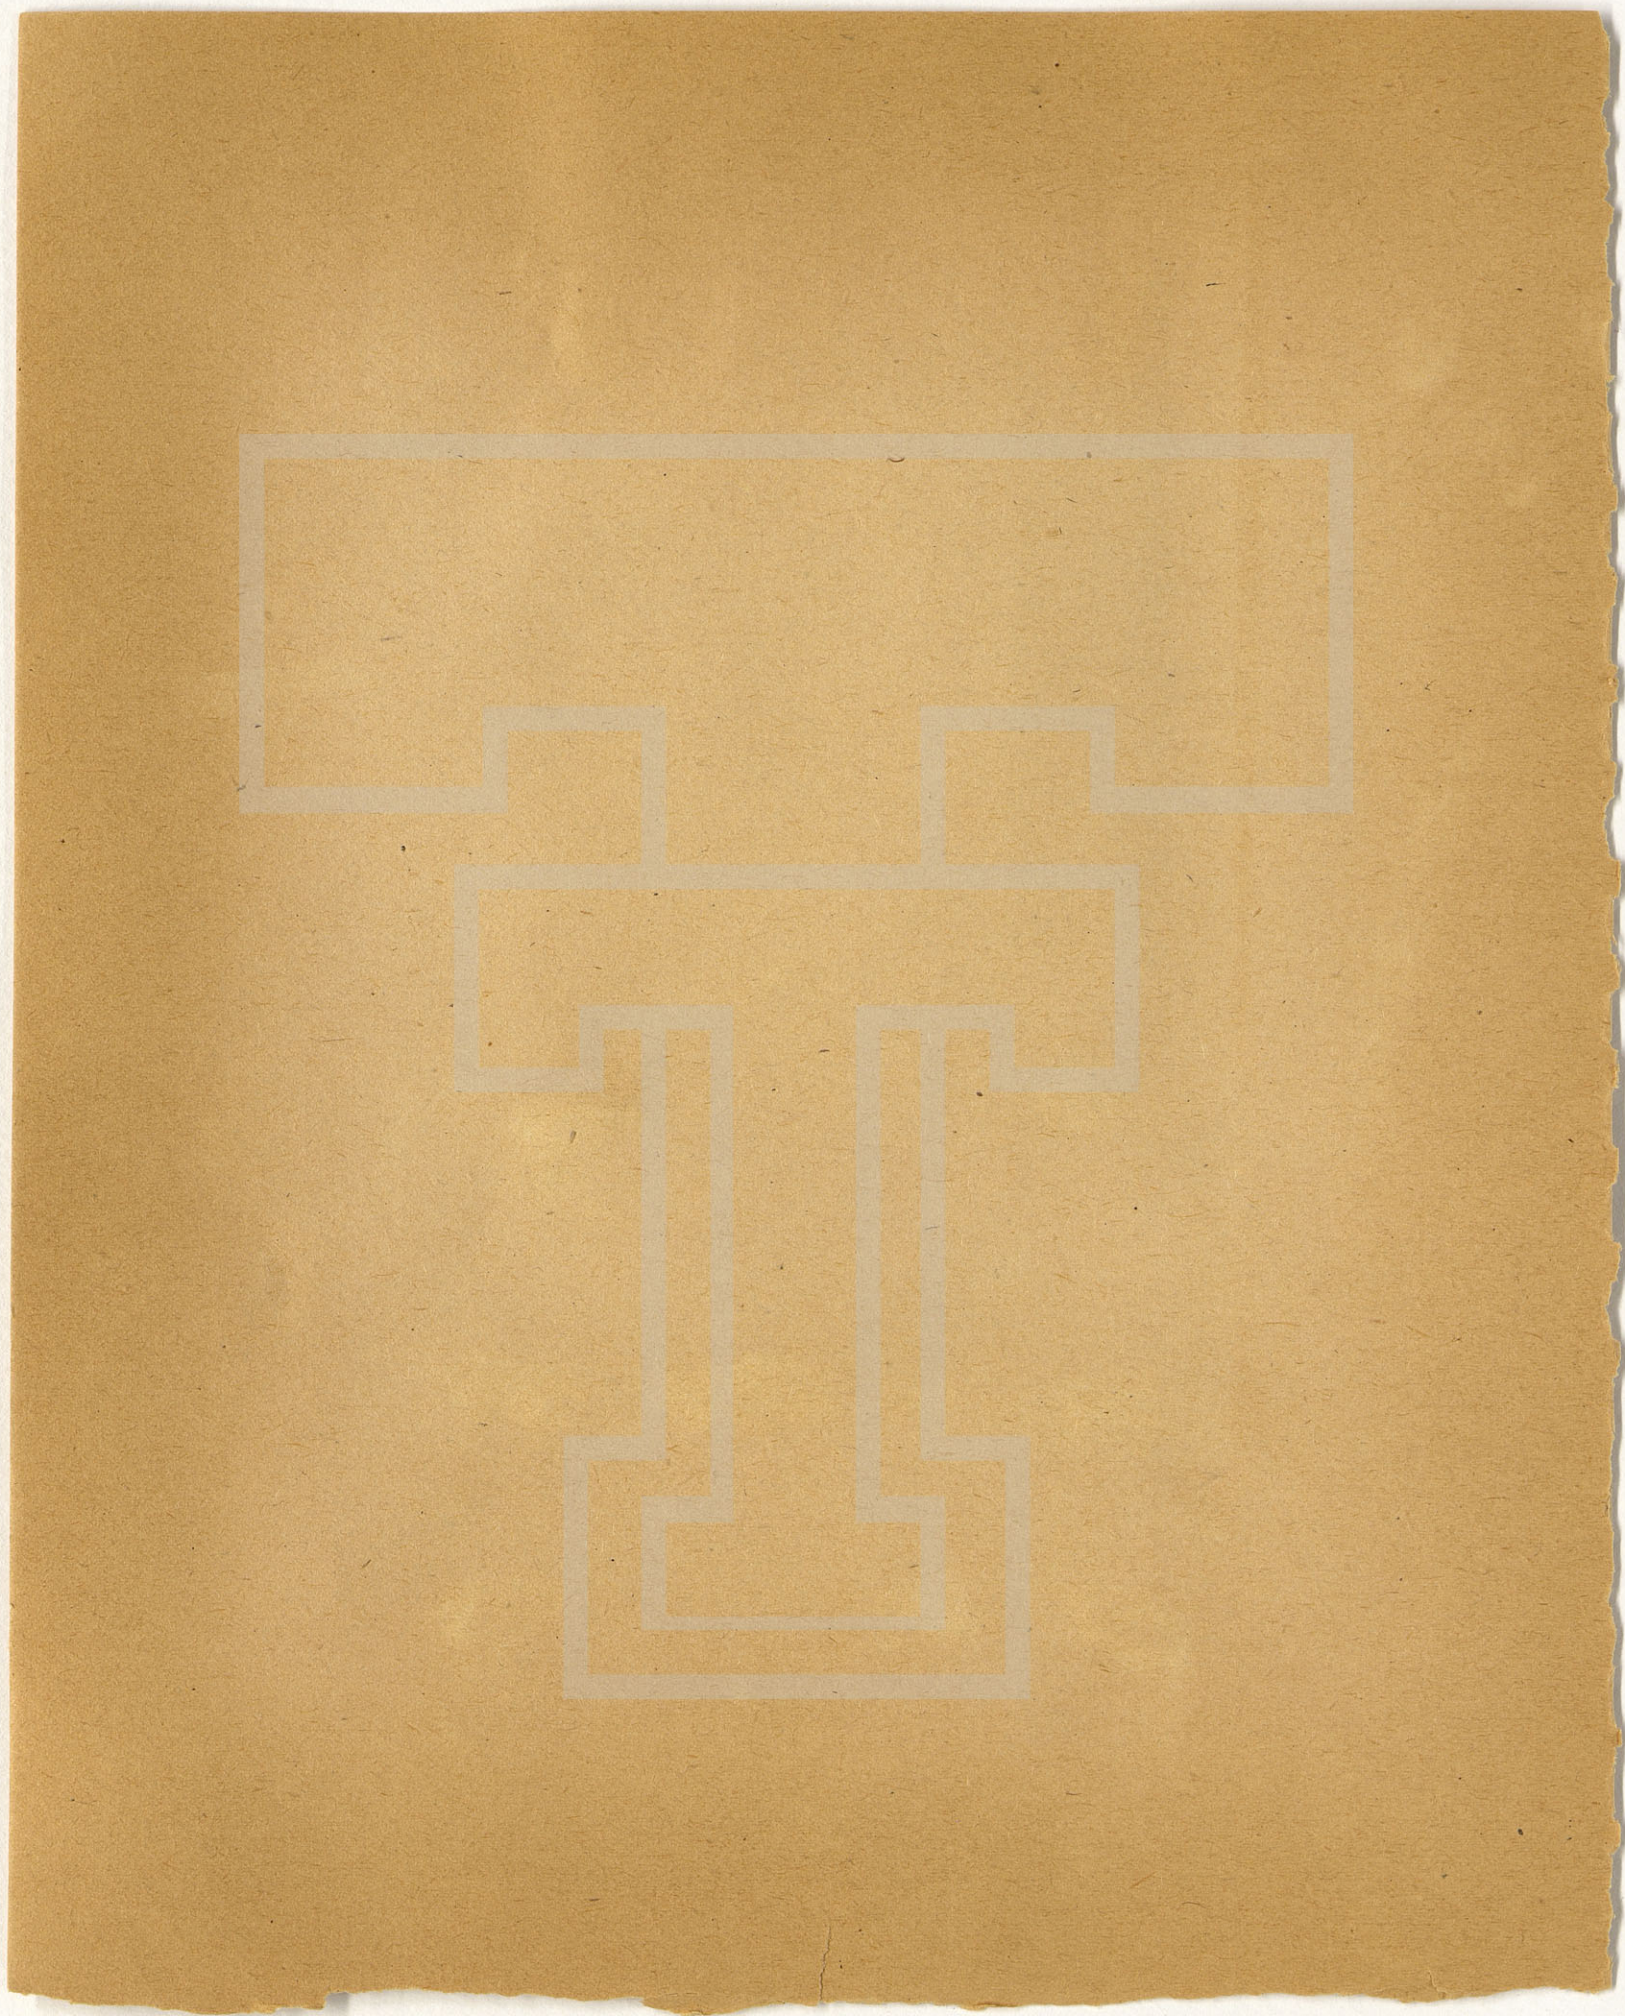

MARGARET

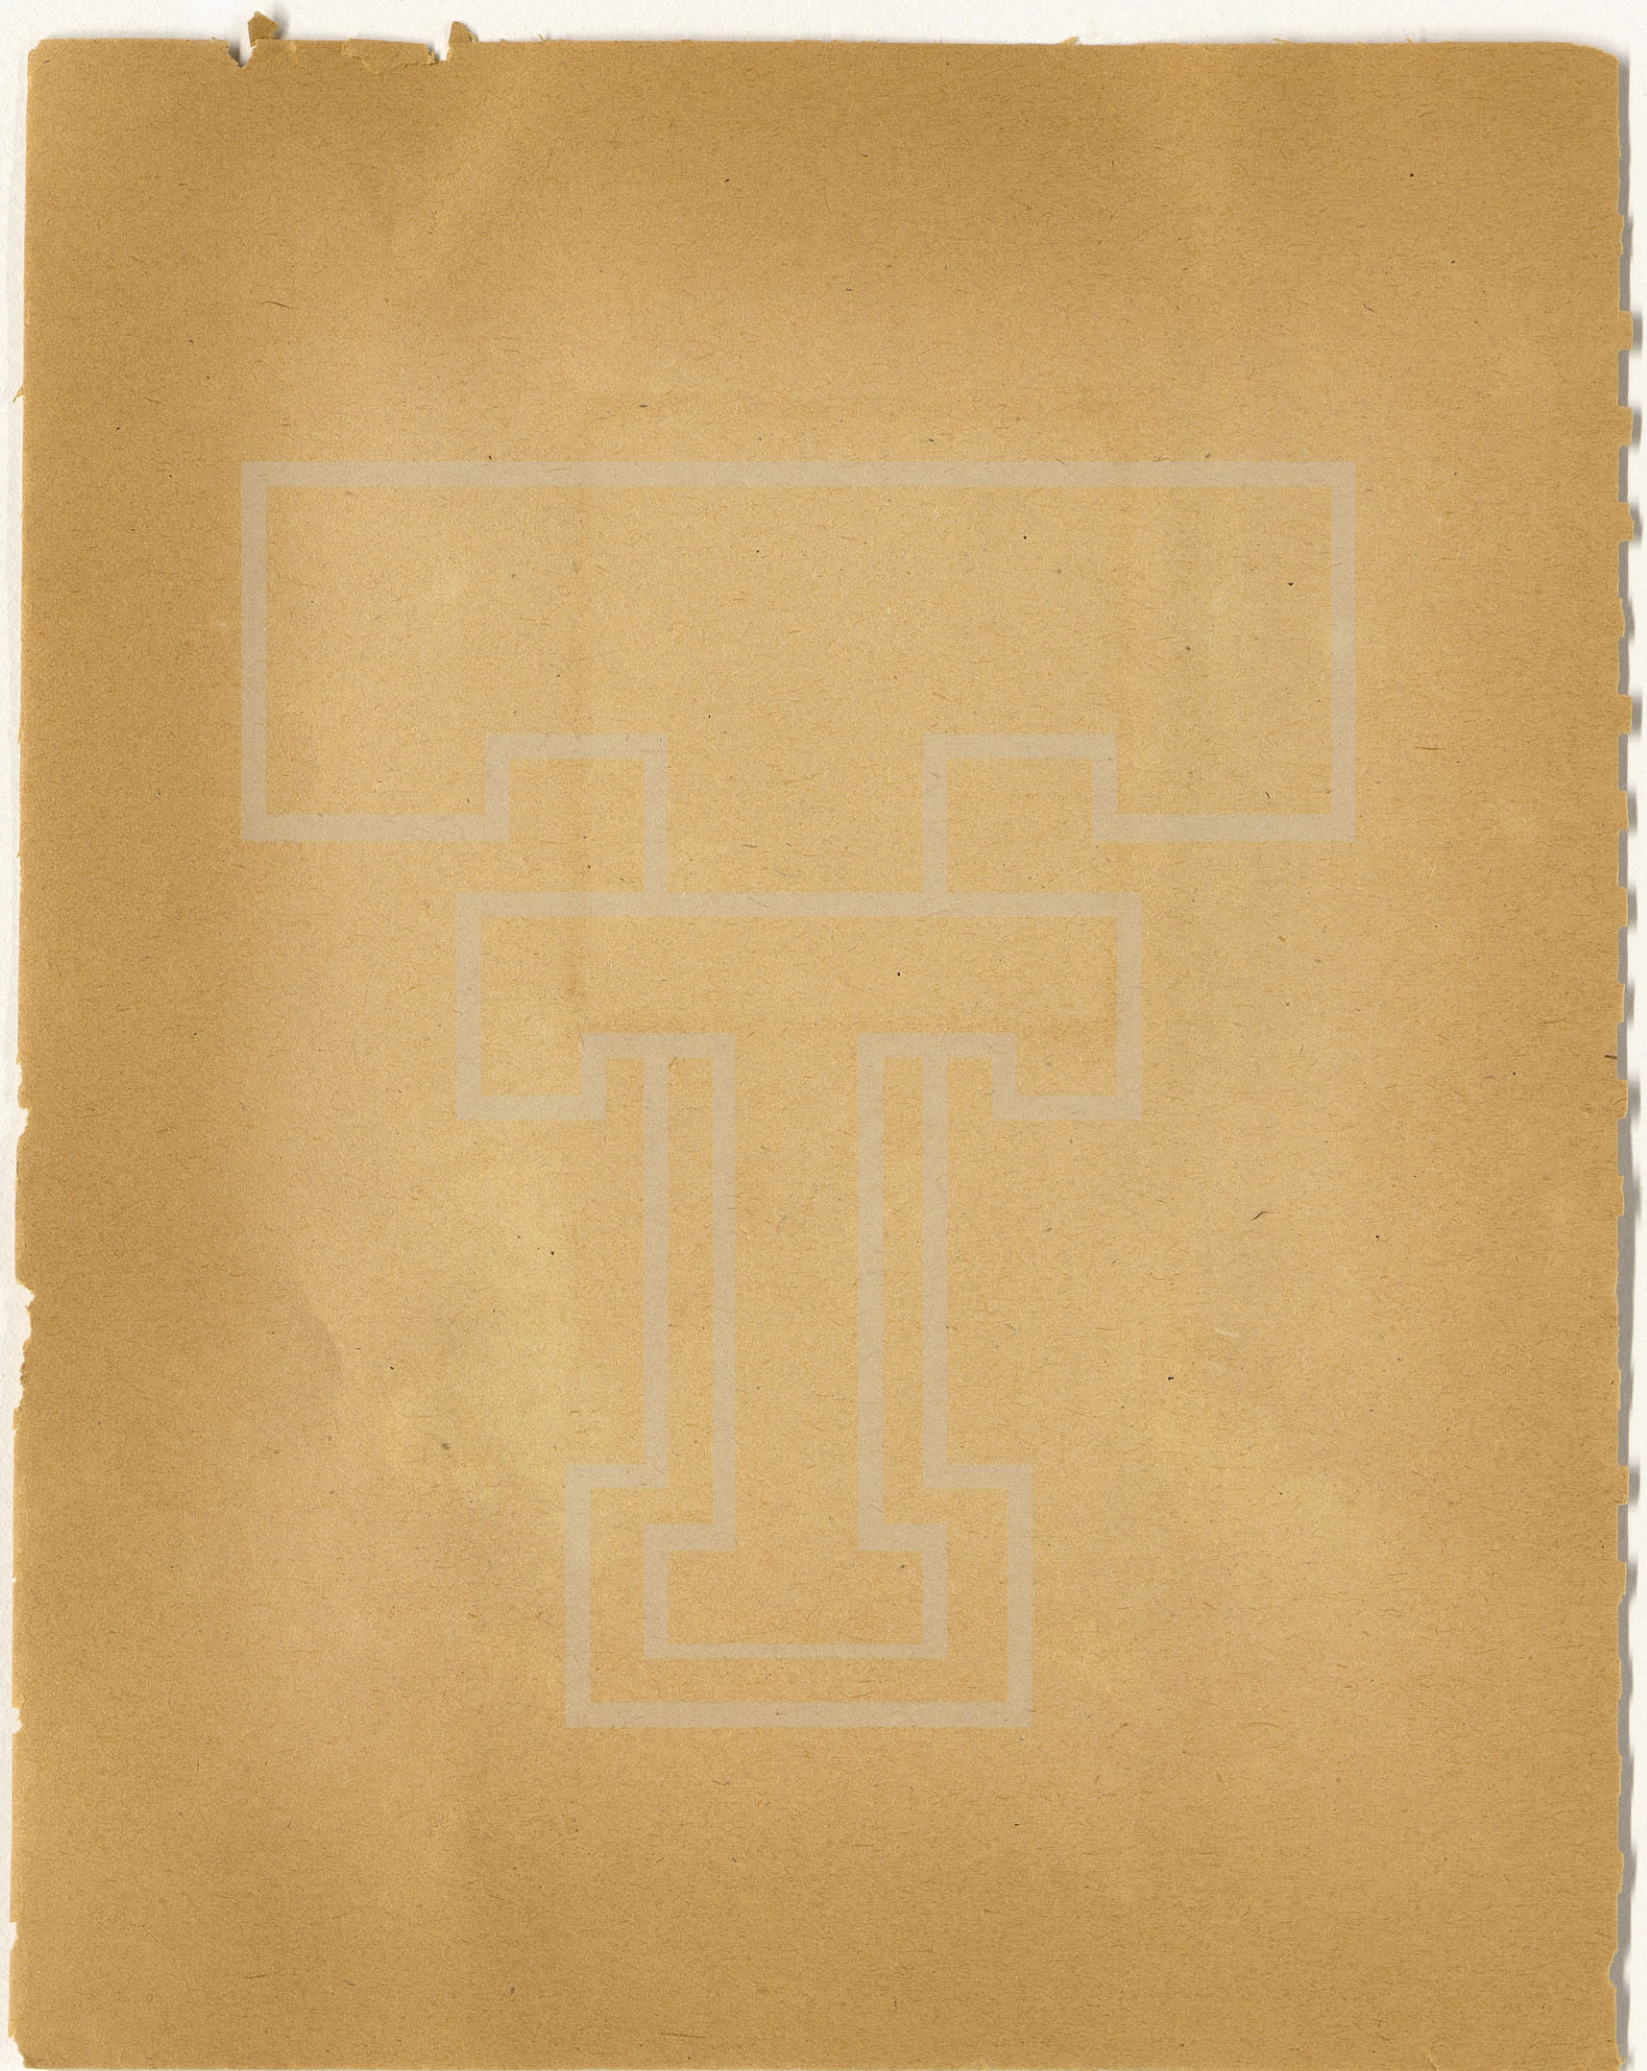

Maud Alice

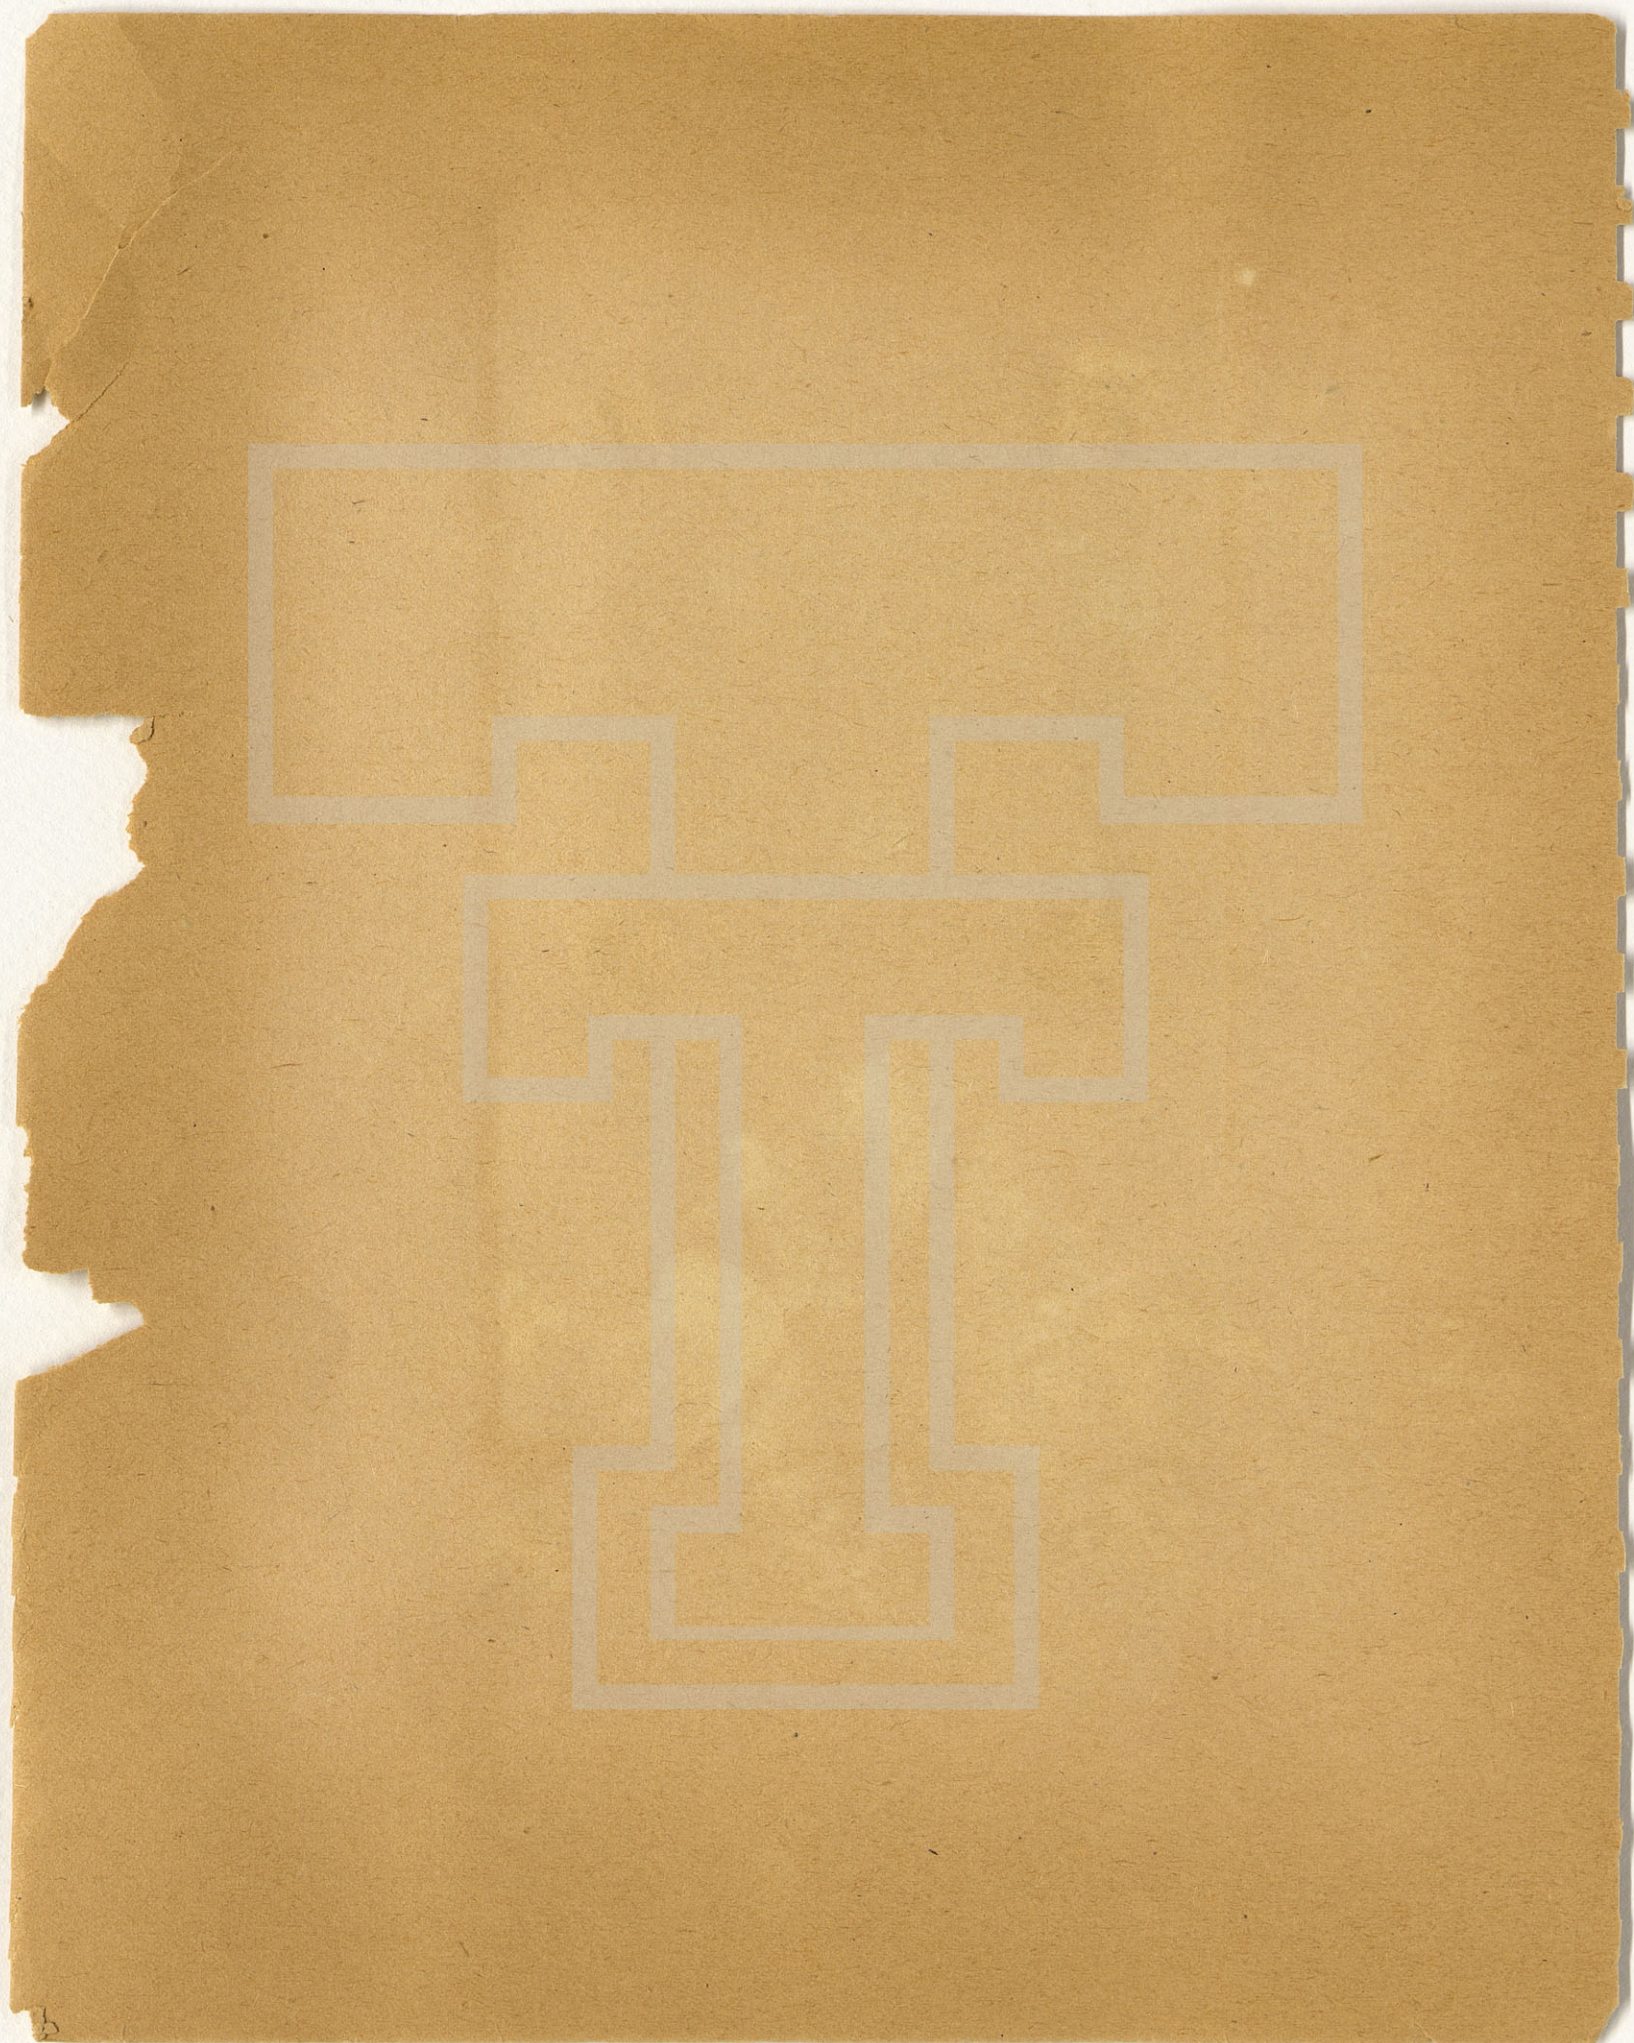

Oleta

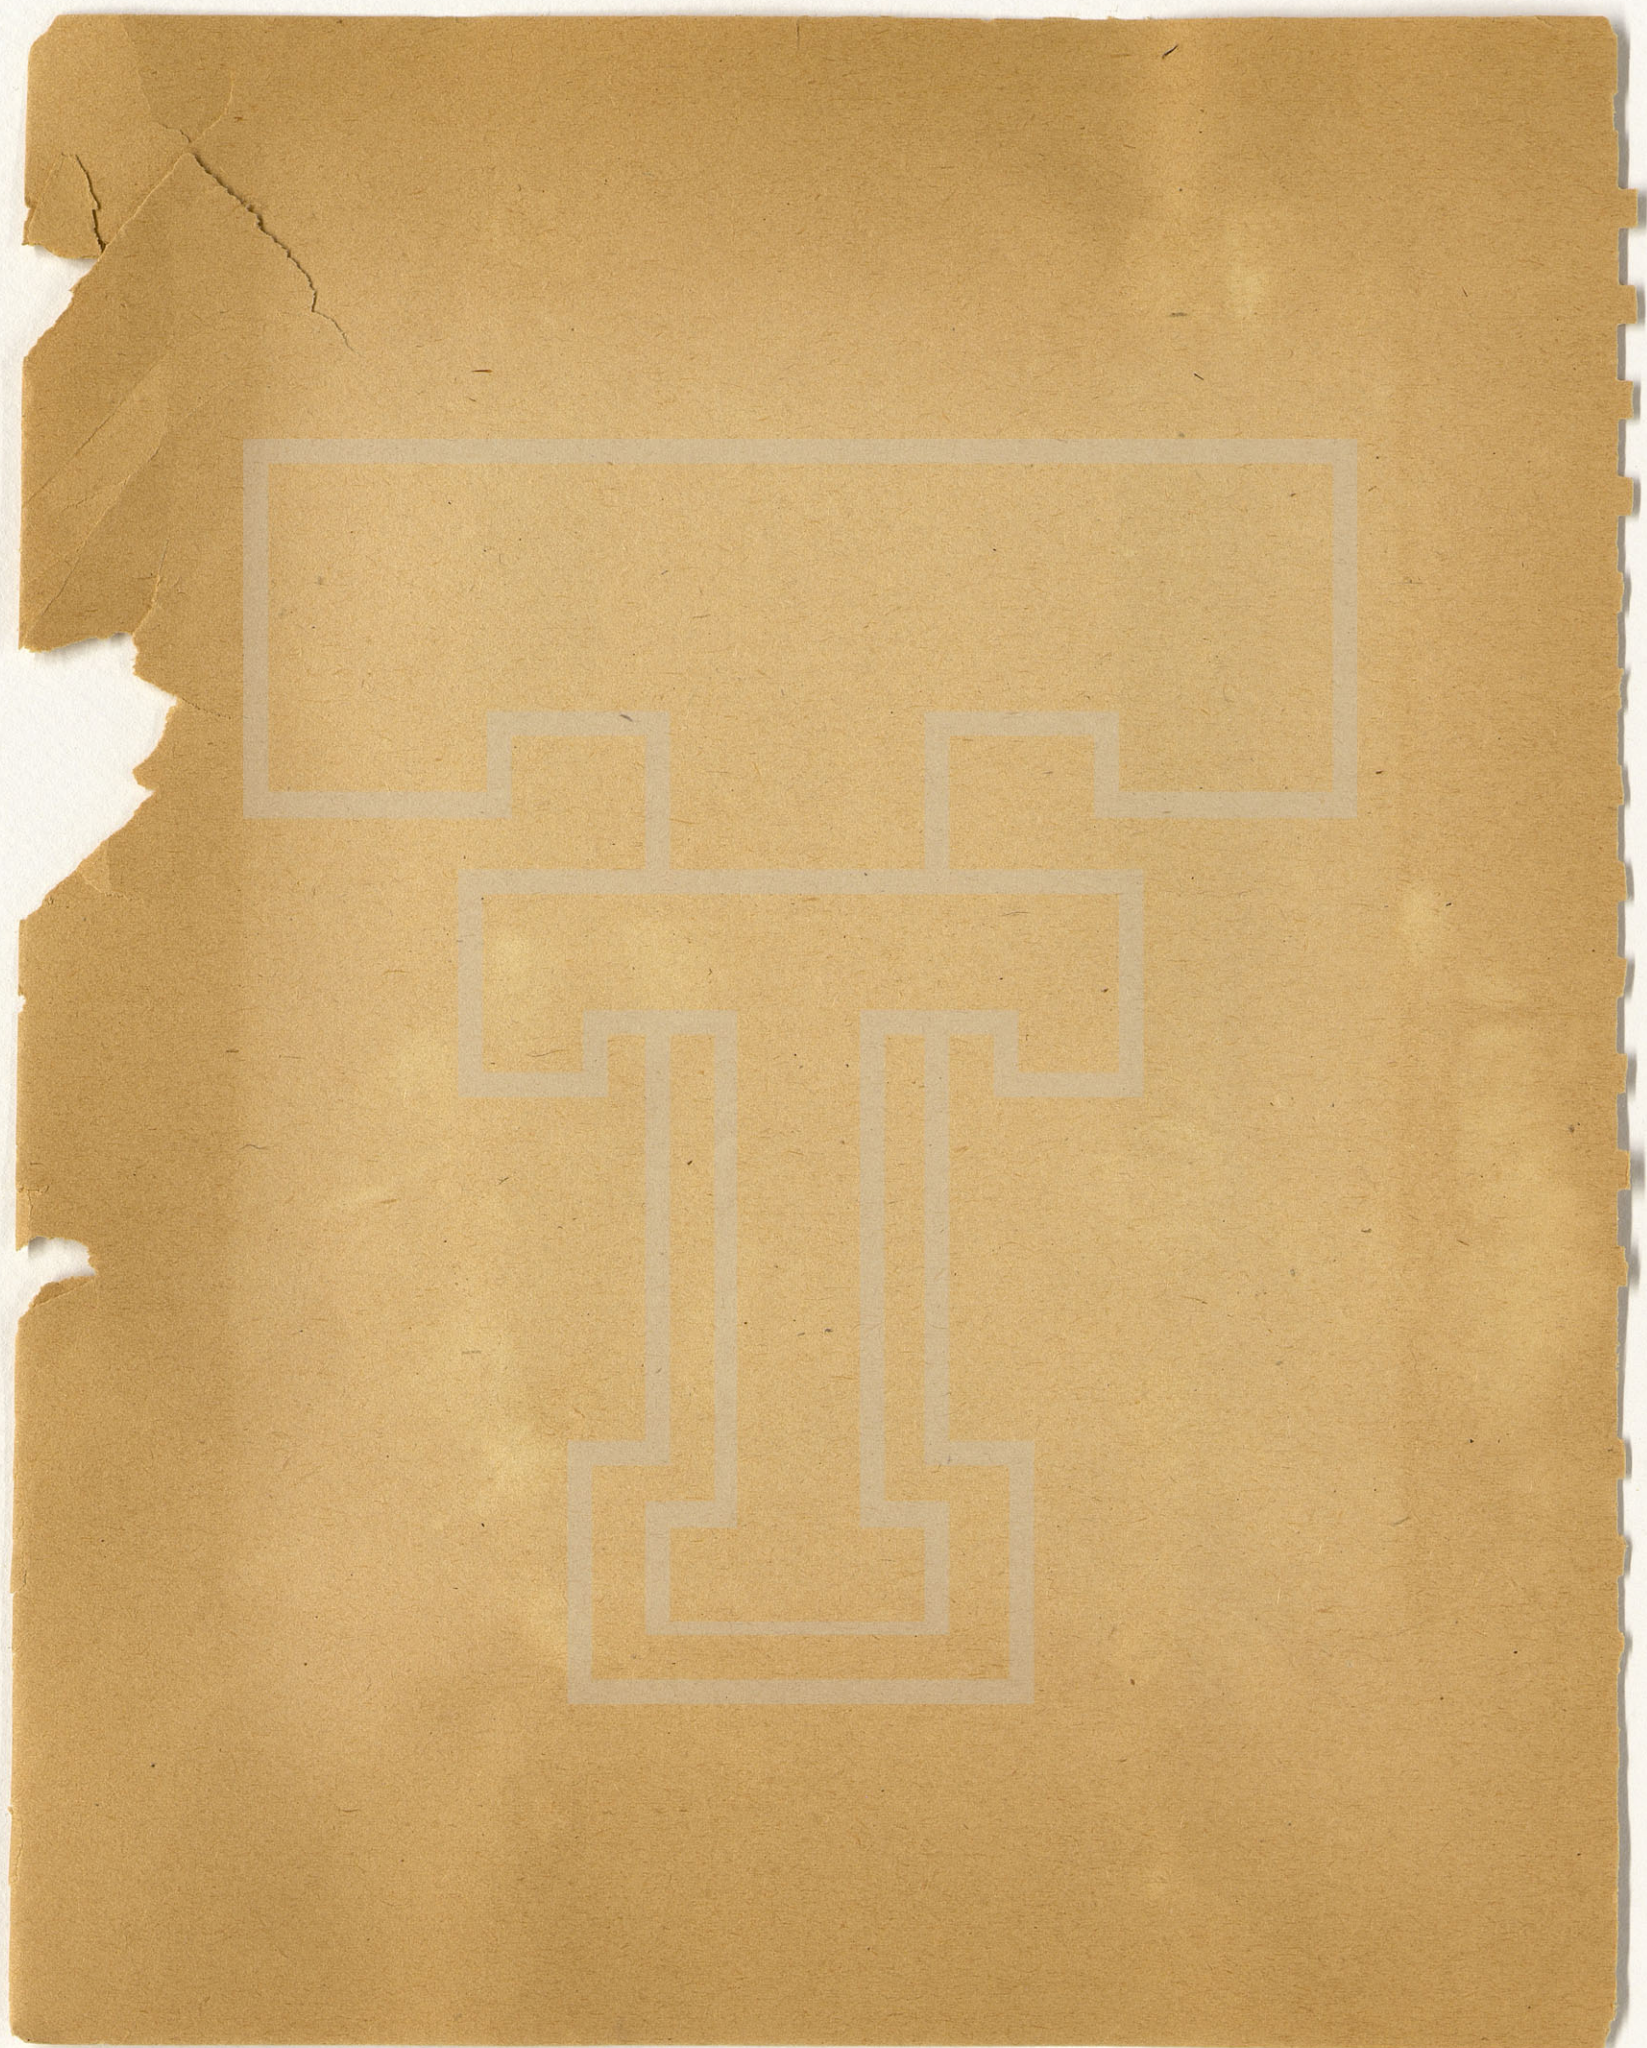

Marthella

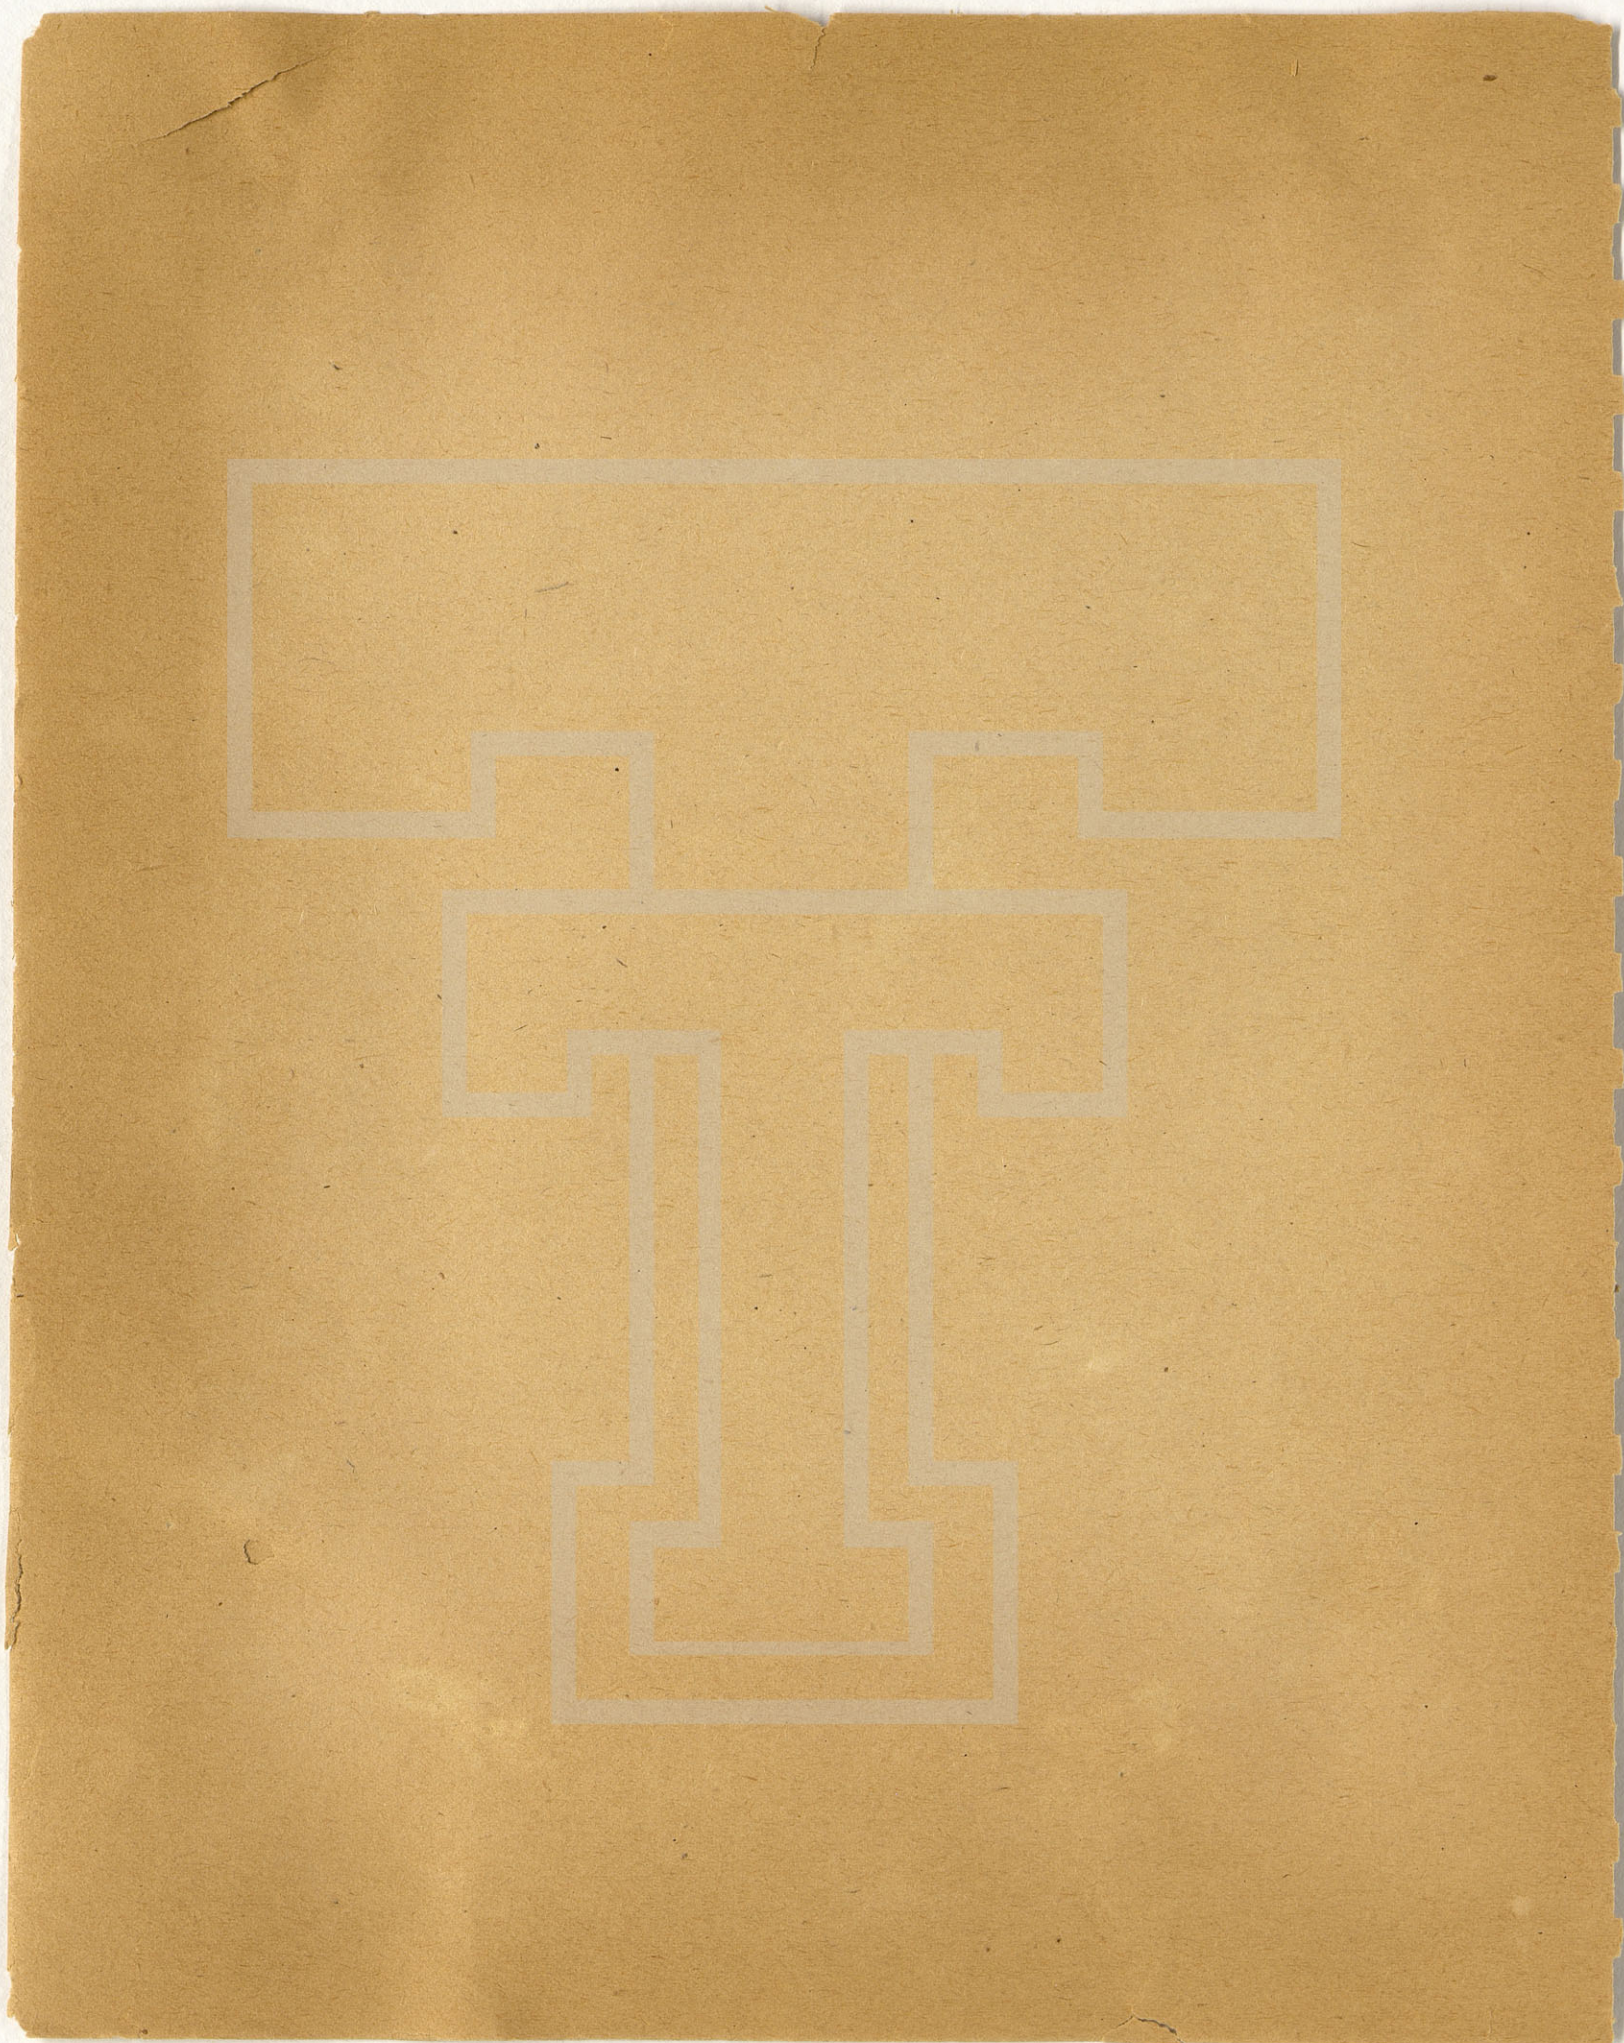

Lucille

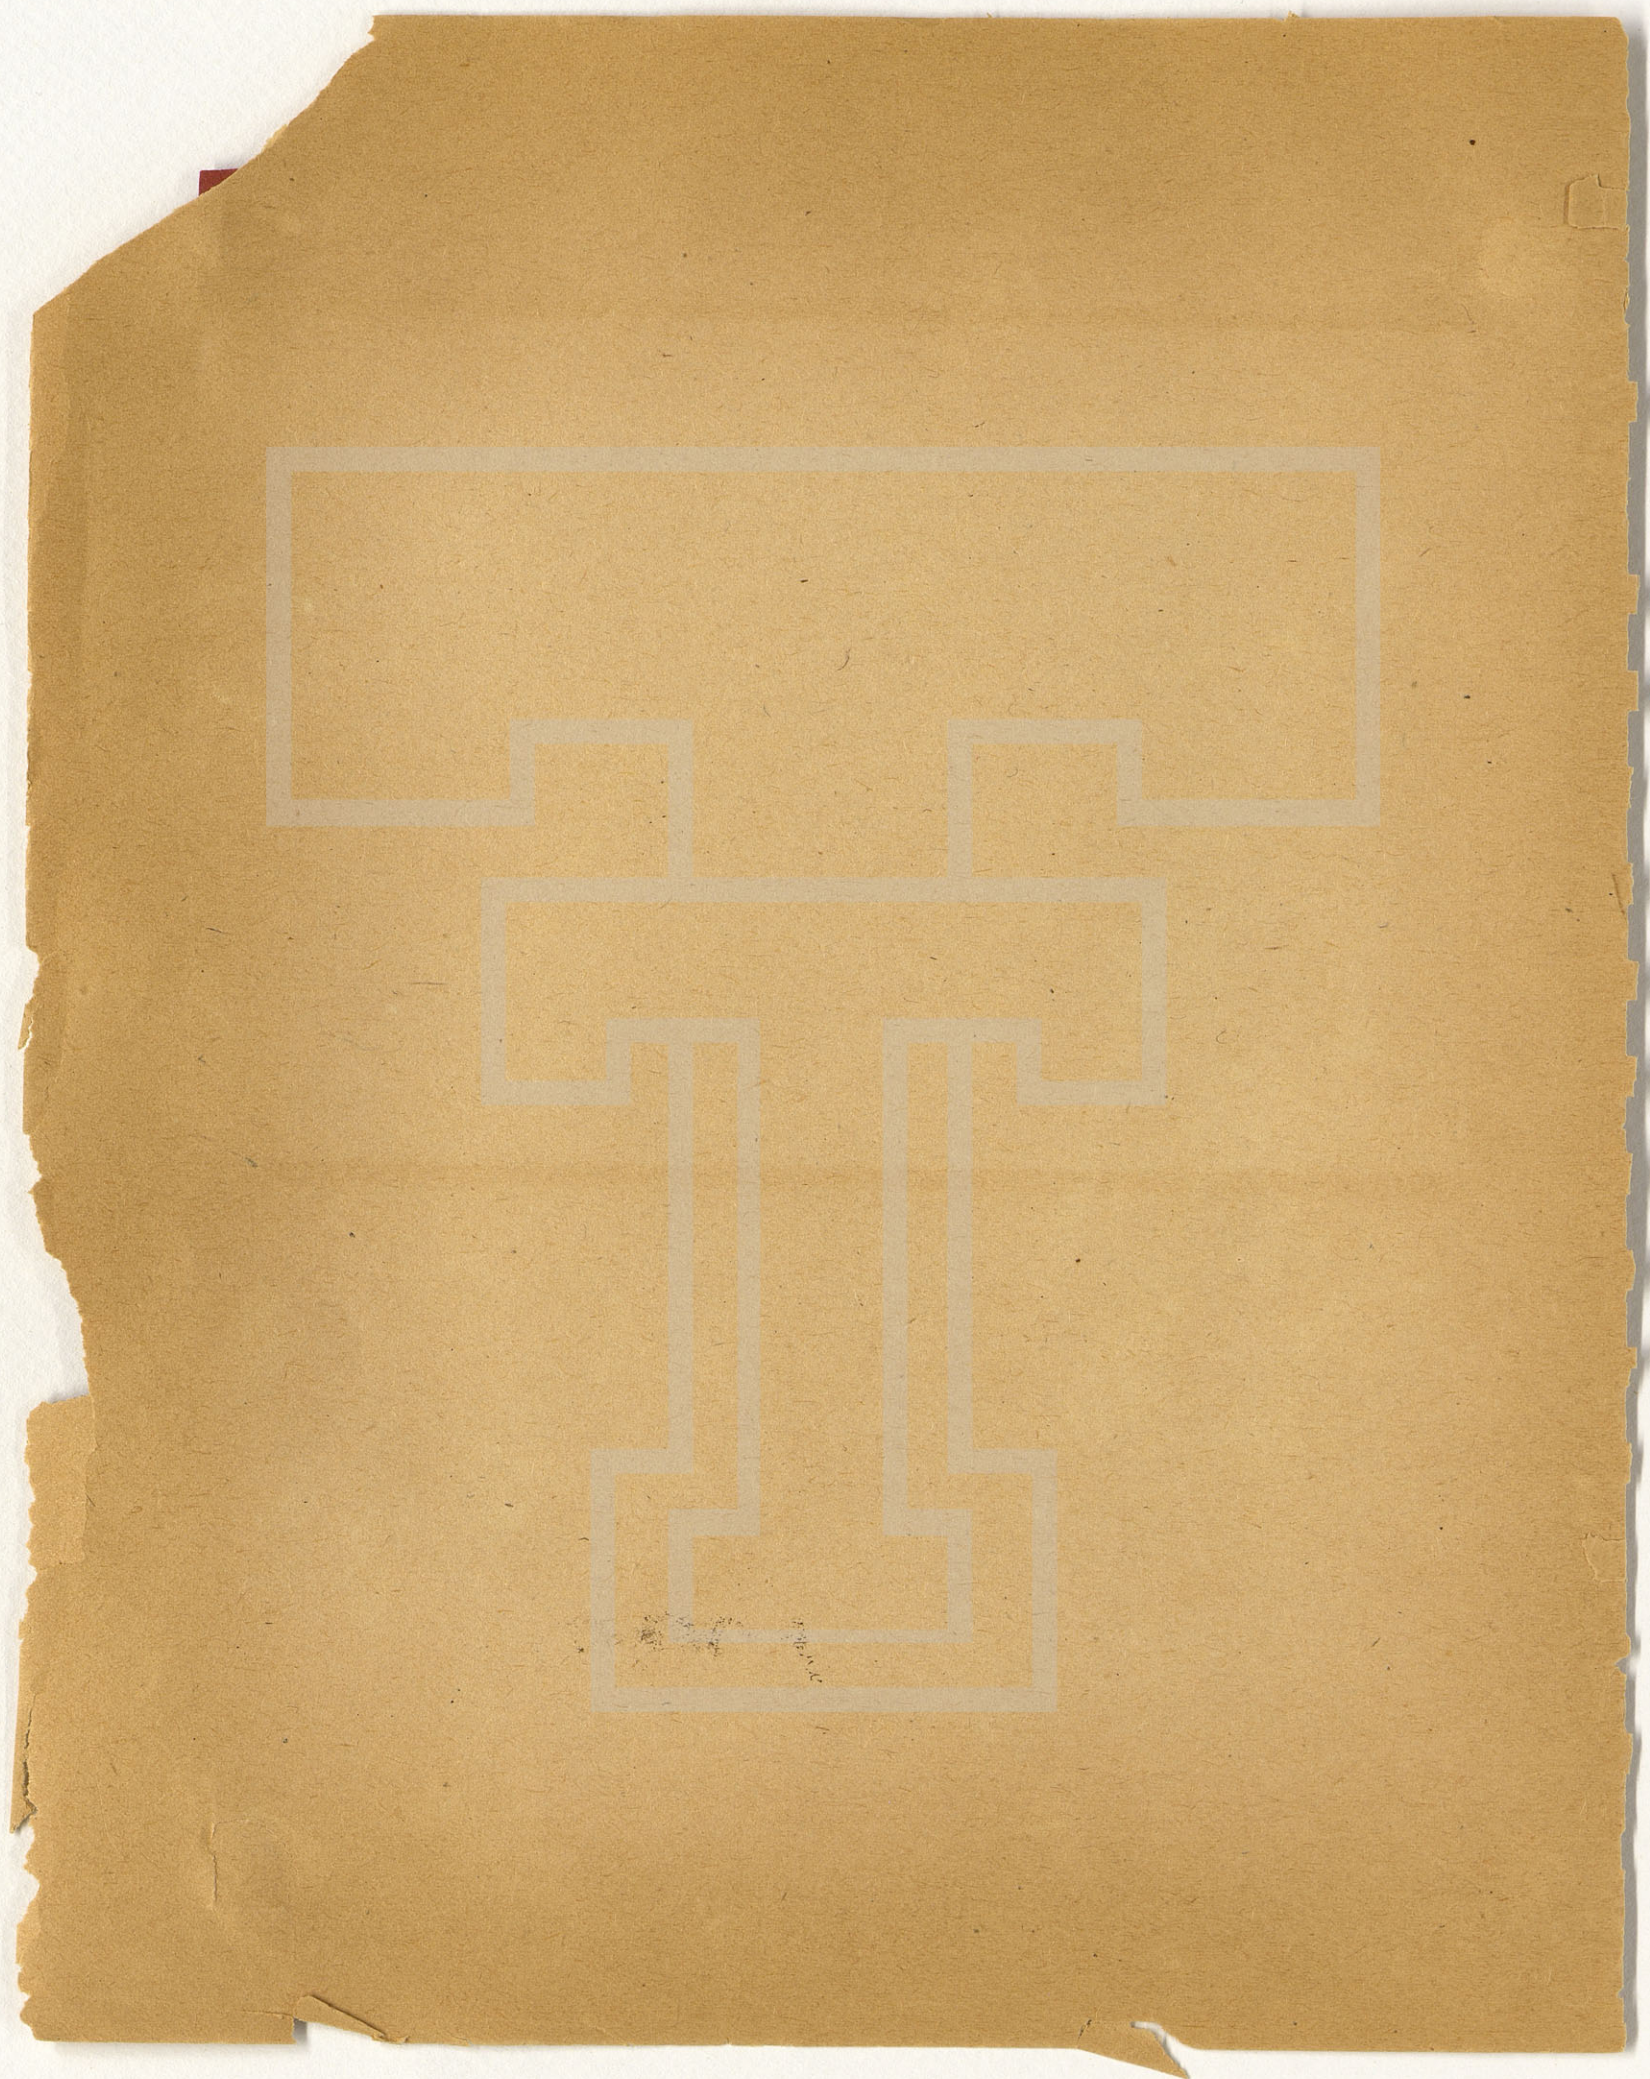

Arline

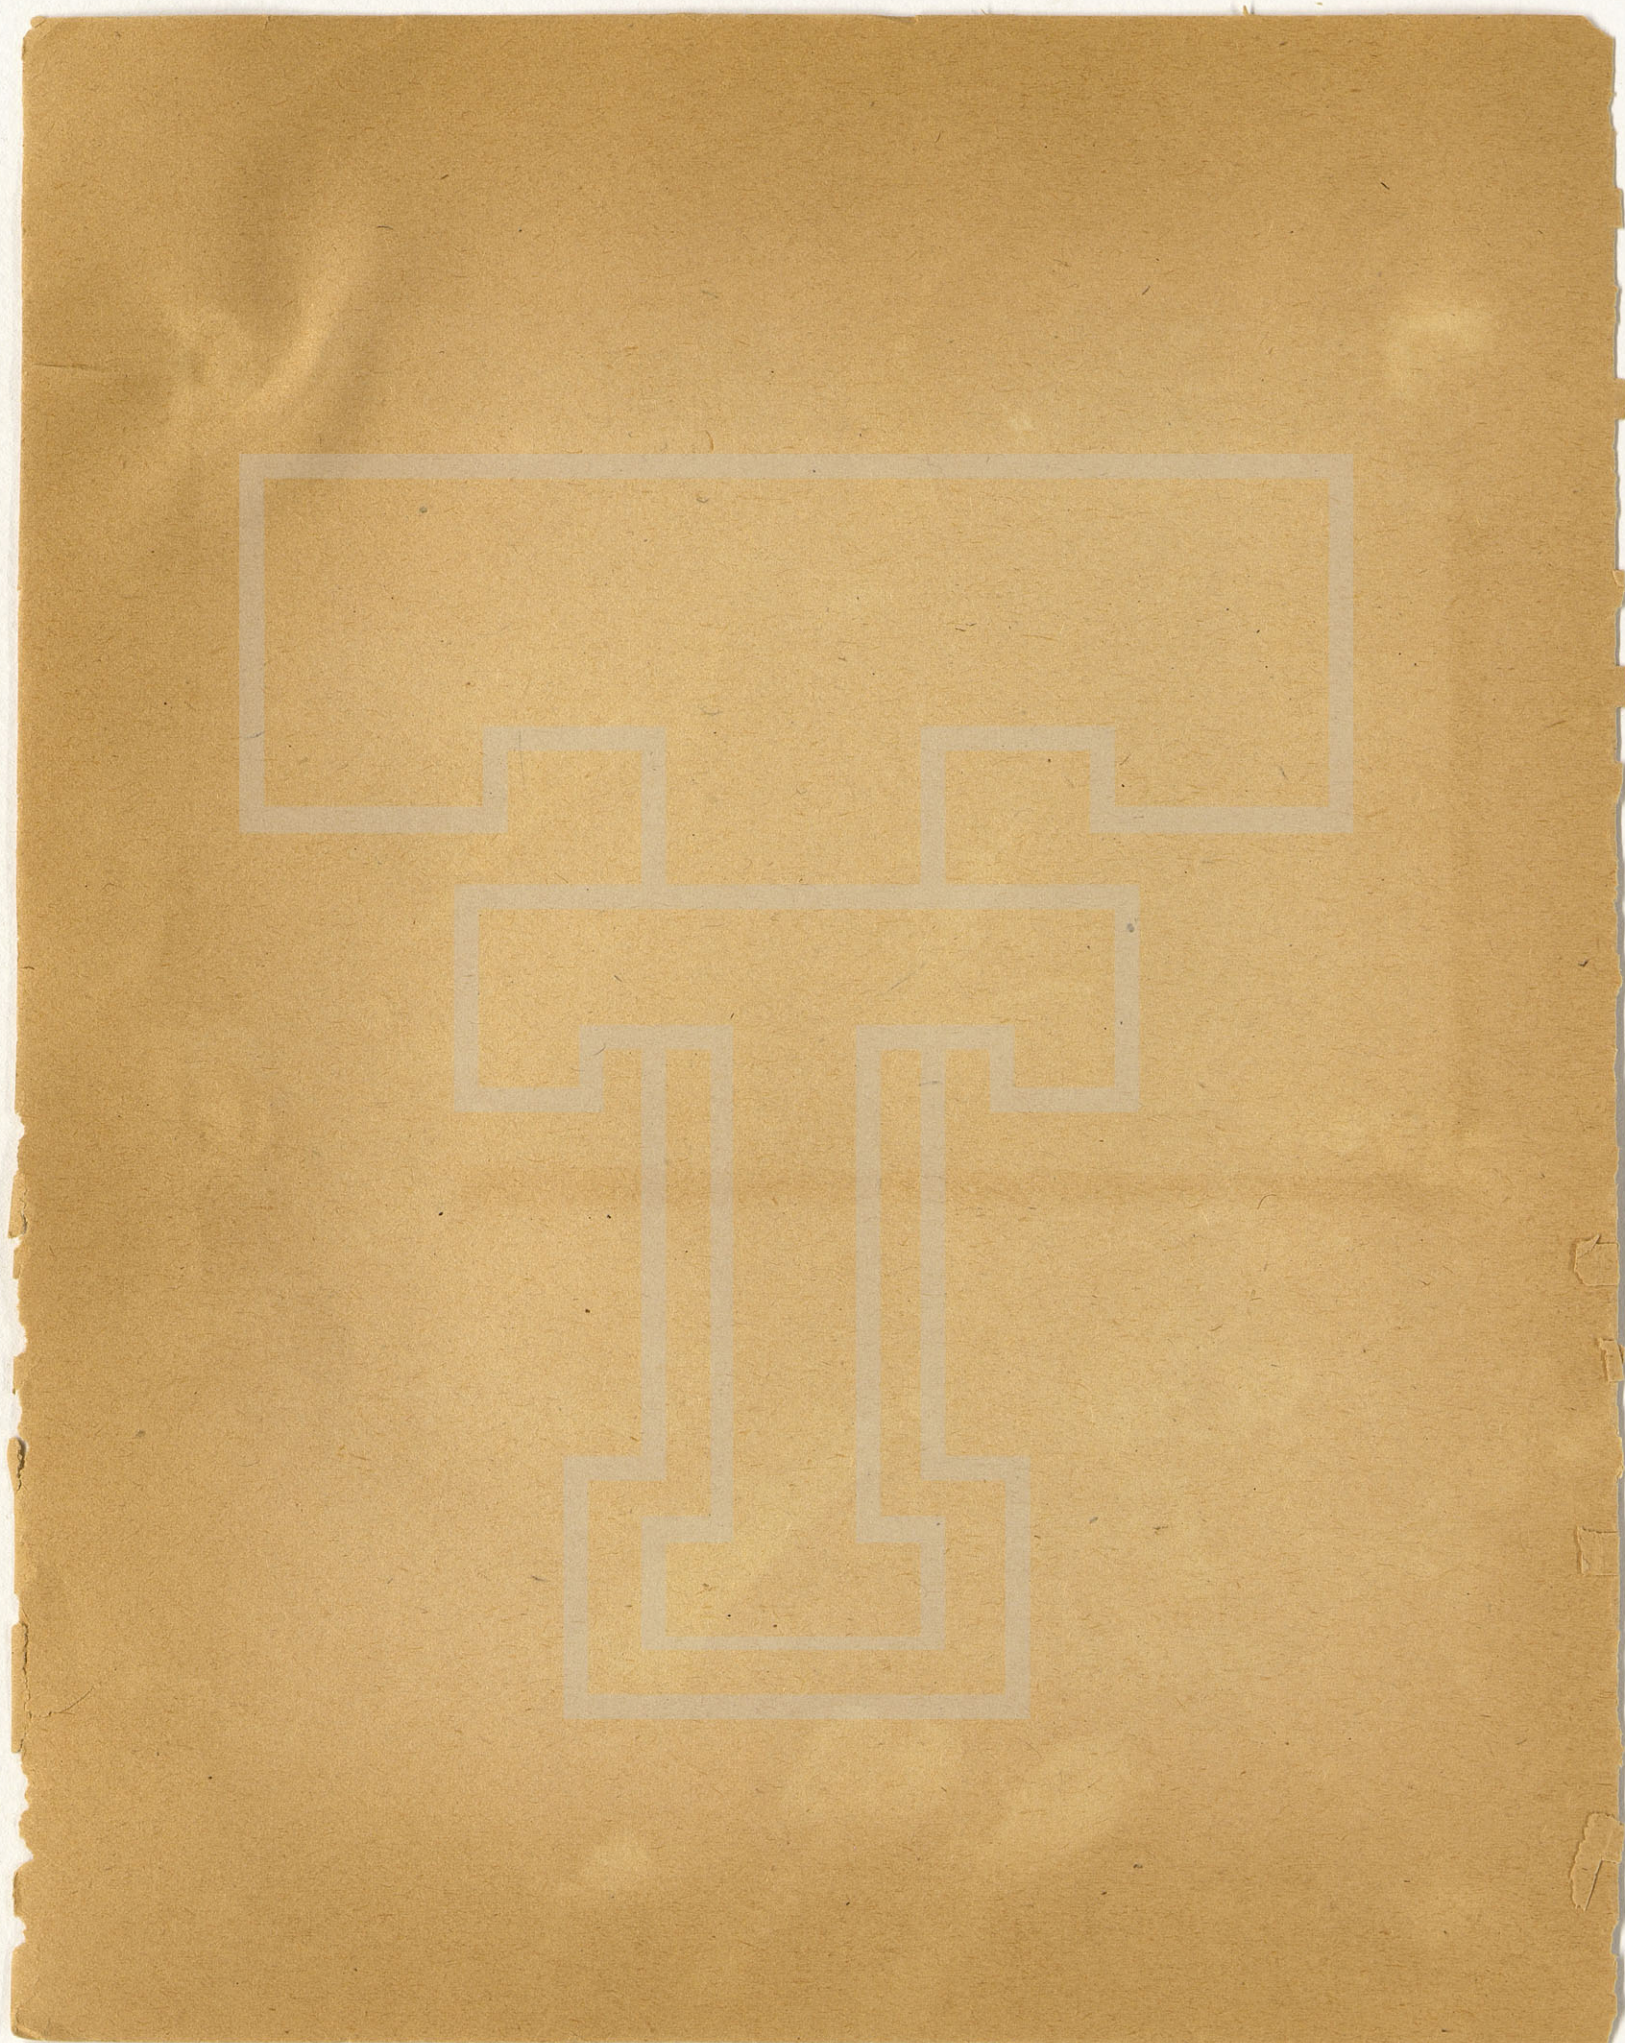

It's so much fun just relaxing!

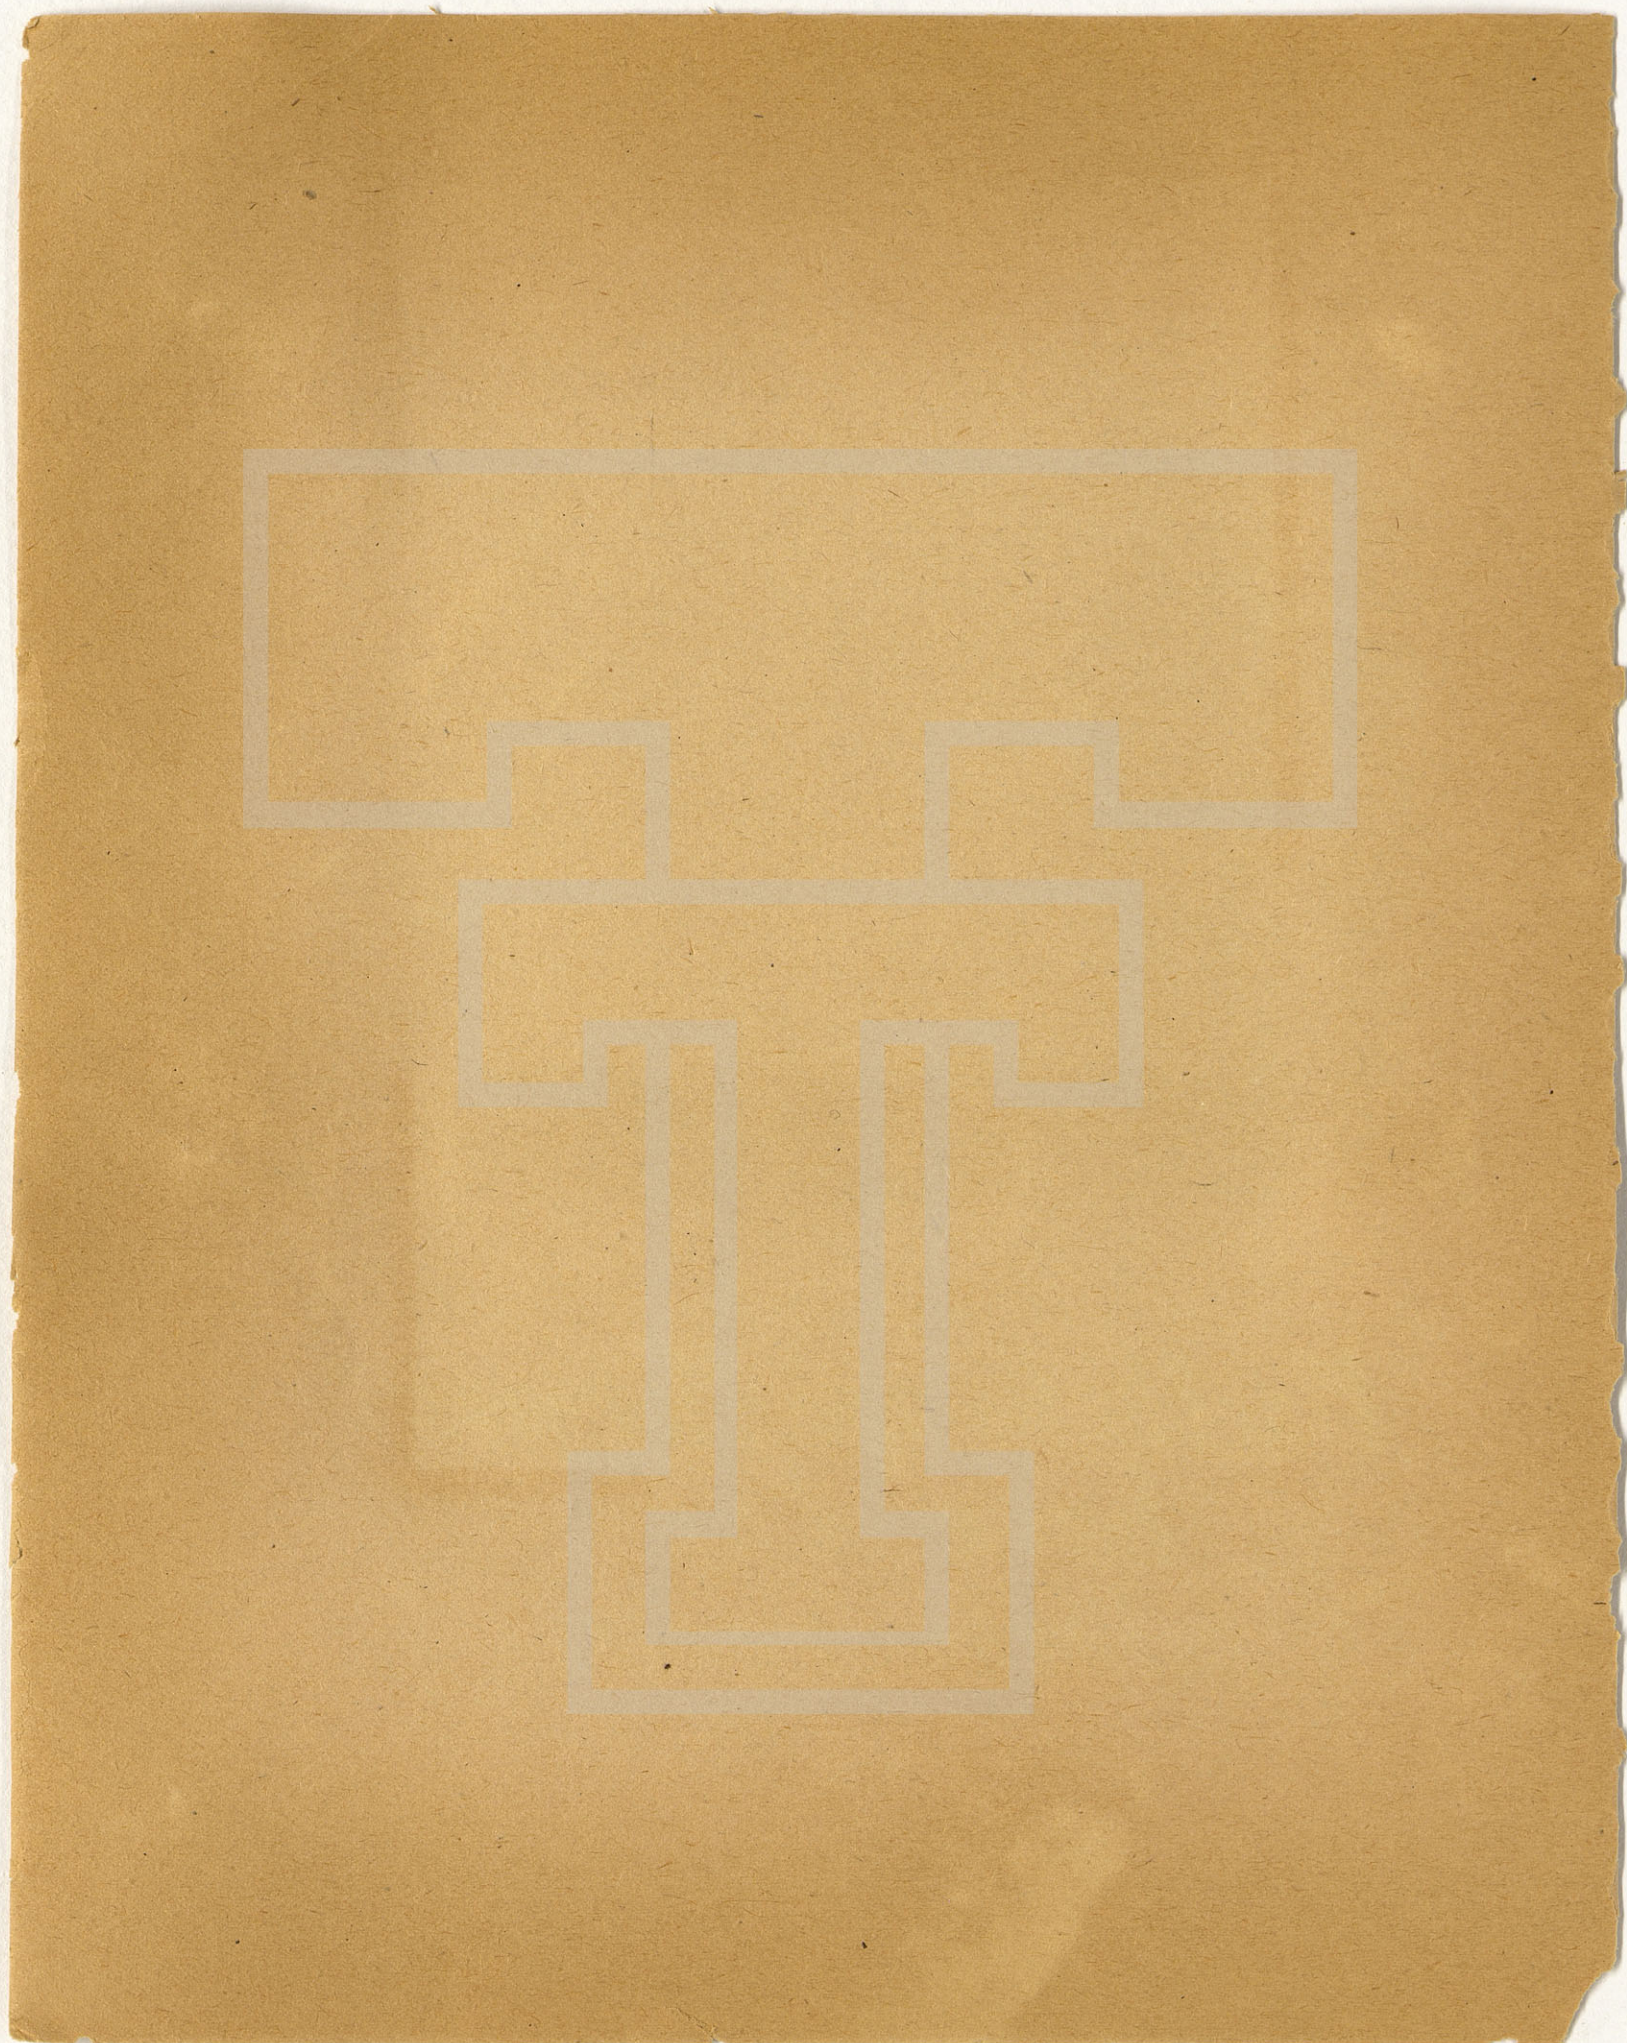

'Cille and Maud
live in the modern room

Marthella and Margaret have the middle room

Candy enjoys life
alone in the single room

and Josie and Arline are at home in the maple room

Josie and Arline seemed to be in a fog alone so we just came in to Pep them up with a
hand of bridge

Miss Urban is always busy even when relaxing in her room

Mike's first birthday — gifts and
fun galore

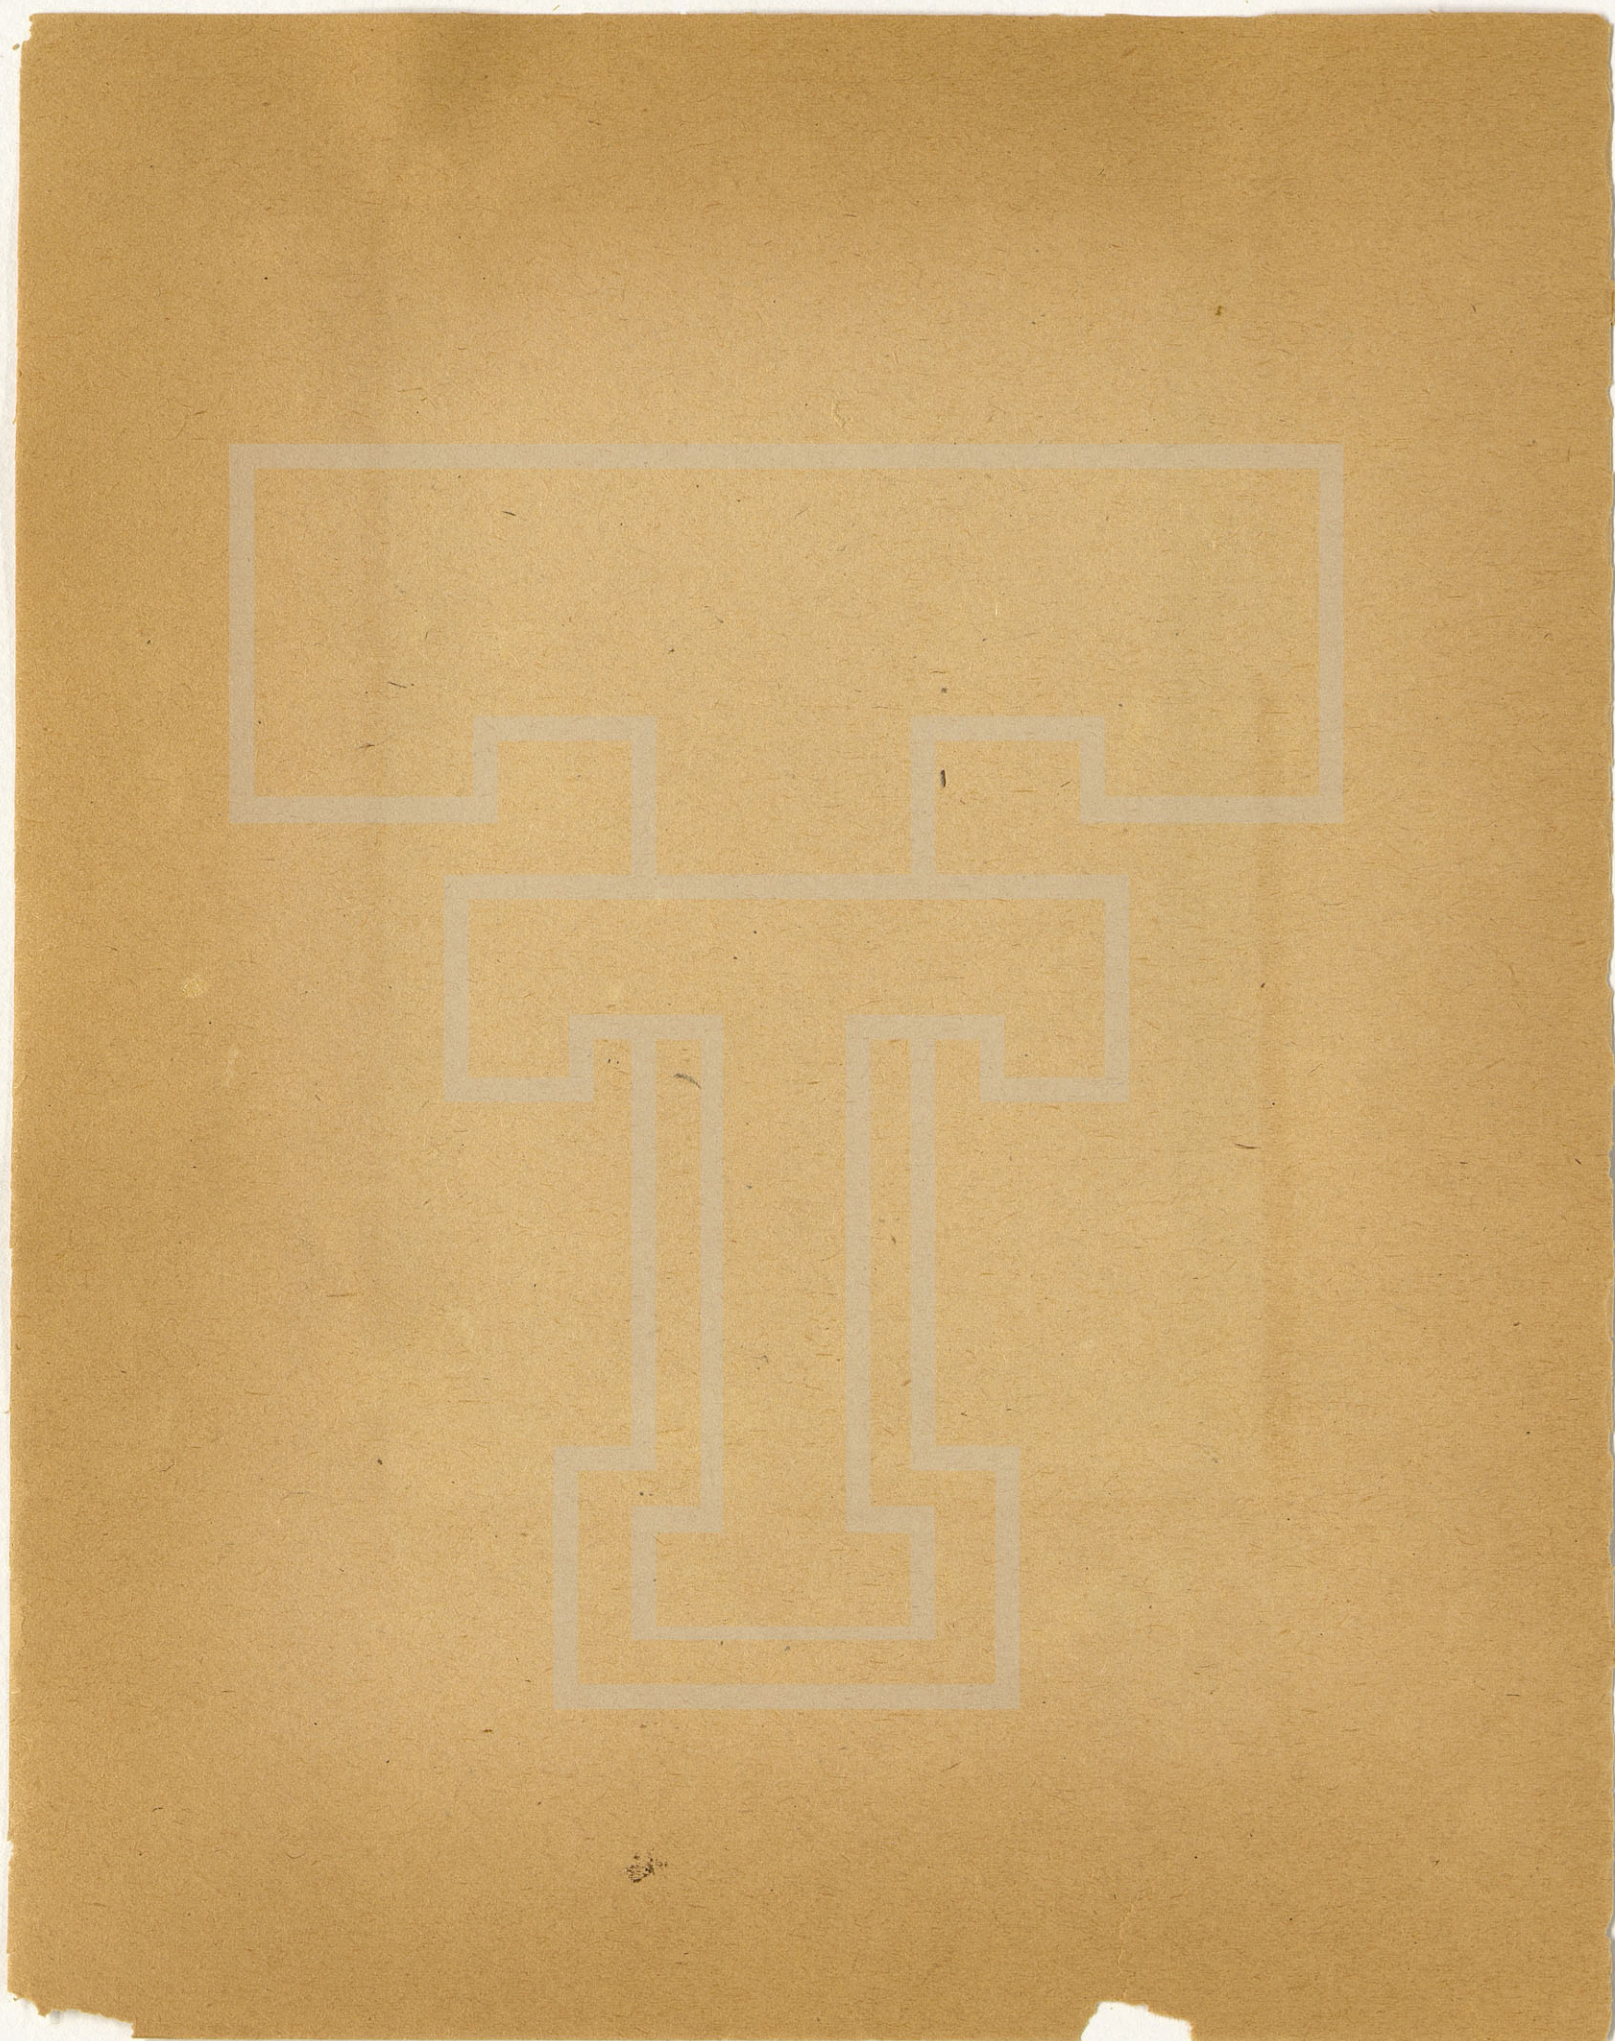

and Mike has
as much fun
wearing them as we do washing them

Isn't she pretty!

Oh see what Miss Weeks gave me for my birthday!

Josie and 'Cille look so pretty in their new sweaters

Already Mike can drink from his birthday cup

Aunt Francie gave me my white coat
and cap for my birthday

See - we do study
sometimes, says
Maude

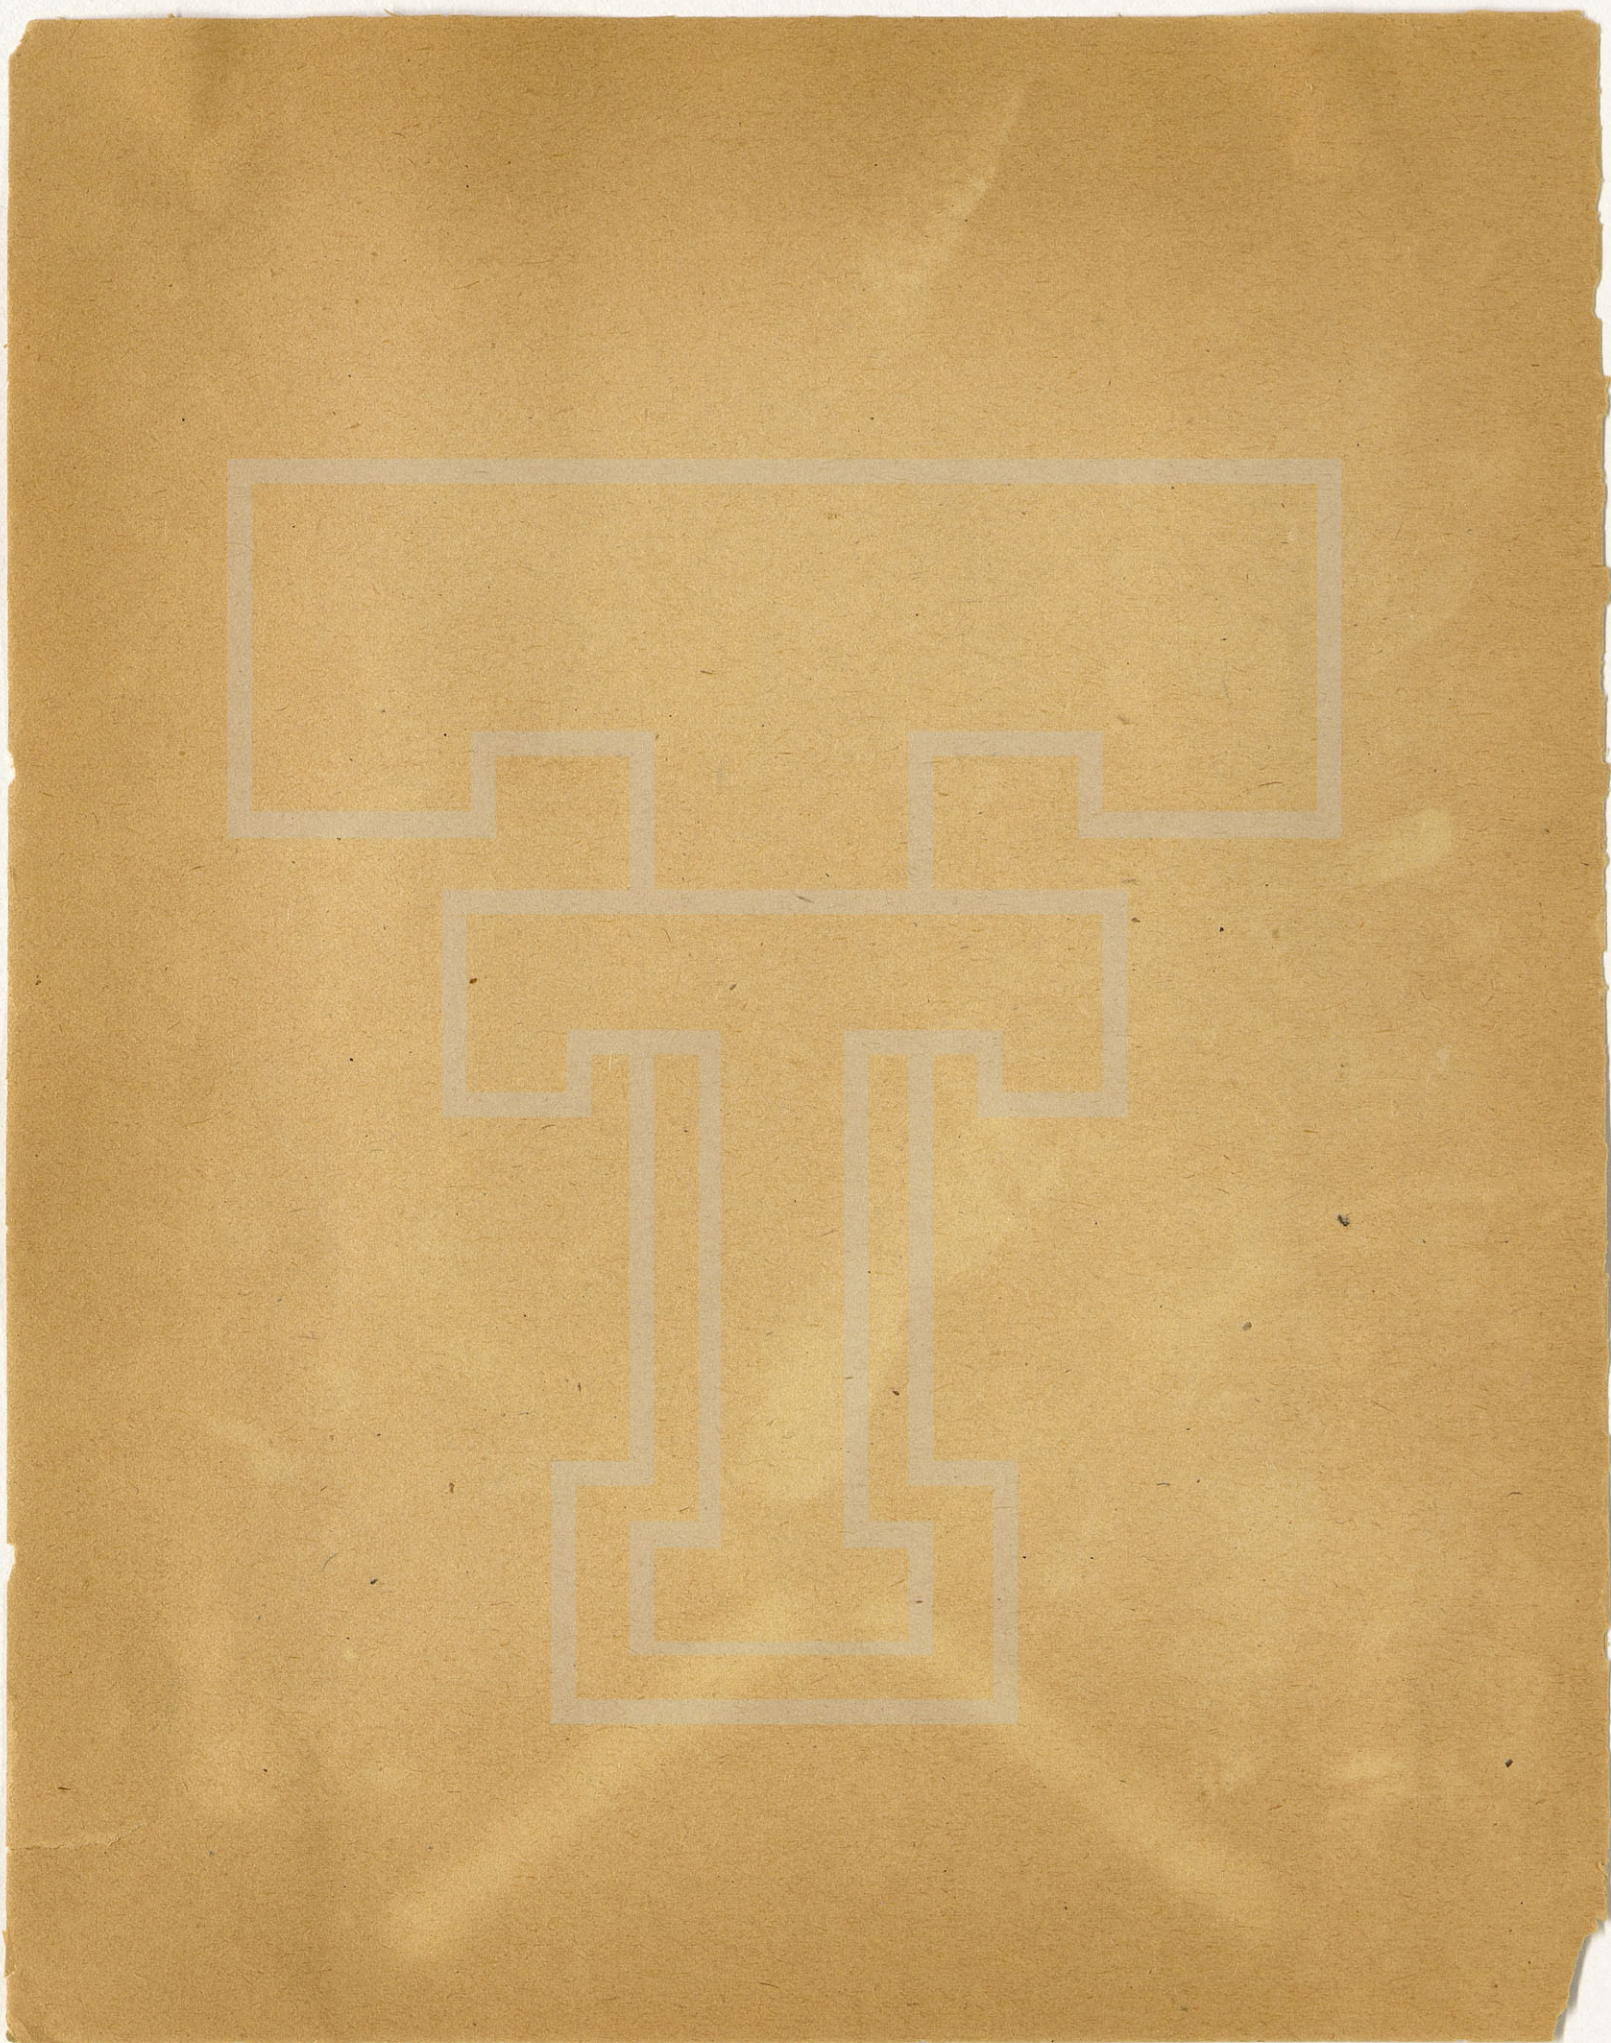

Dear Bob,

Oh pardon, we didn't intend to let the skeleton out of the closet

Dear Miss Urban and Gals -

You all gave me such a happy time today that I feel, tonight, I must write this note to let you again how much I appreciate all the nice

things you did -

The beautiful corsage, the delicious dinner and birthday cake, the sweet lines of poetry and the dainty handkerchief are all things which I shall cherish and for which I thank you - But above all I appreciate the beautiful spirit and the kind thought which prompted you to do these things.

Miss Erwin and I had such a nice time with you today.
You are all lovely, gracious hostesses and we are very

Our favorite guest,
Miss Weeks with

proud of you -

Thank you again -

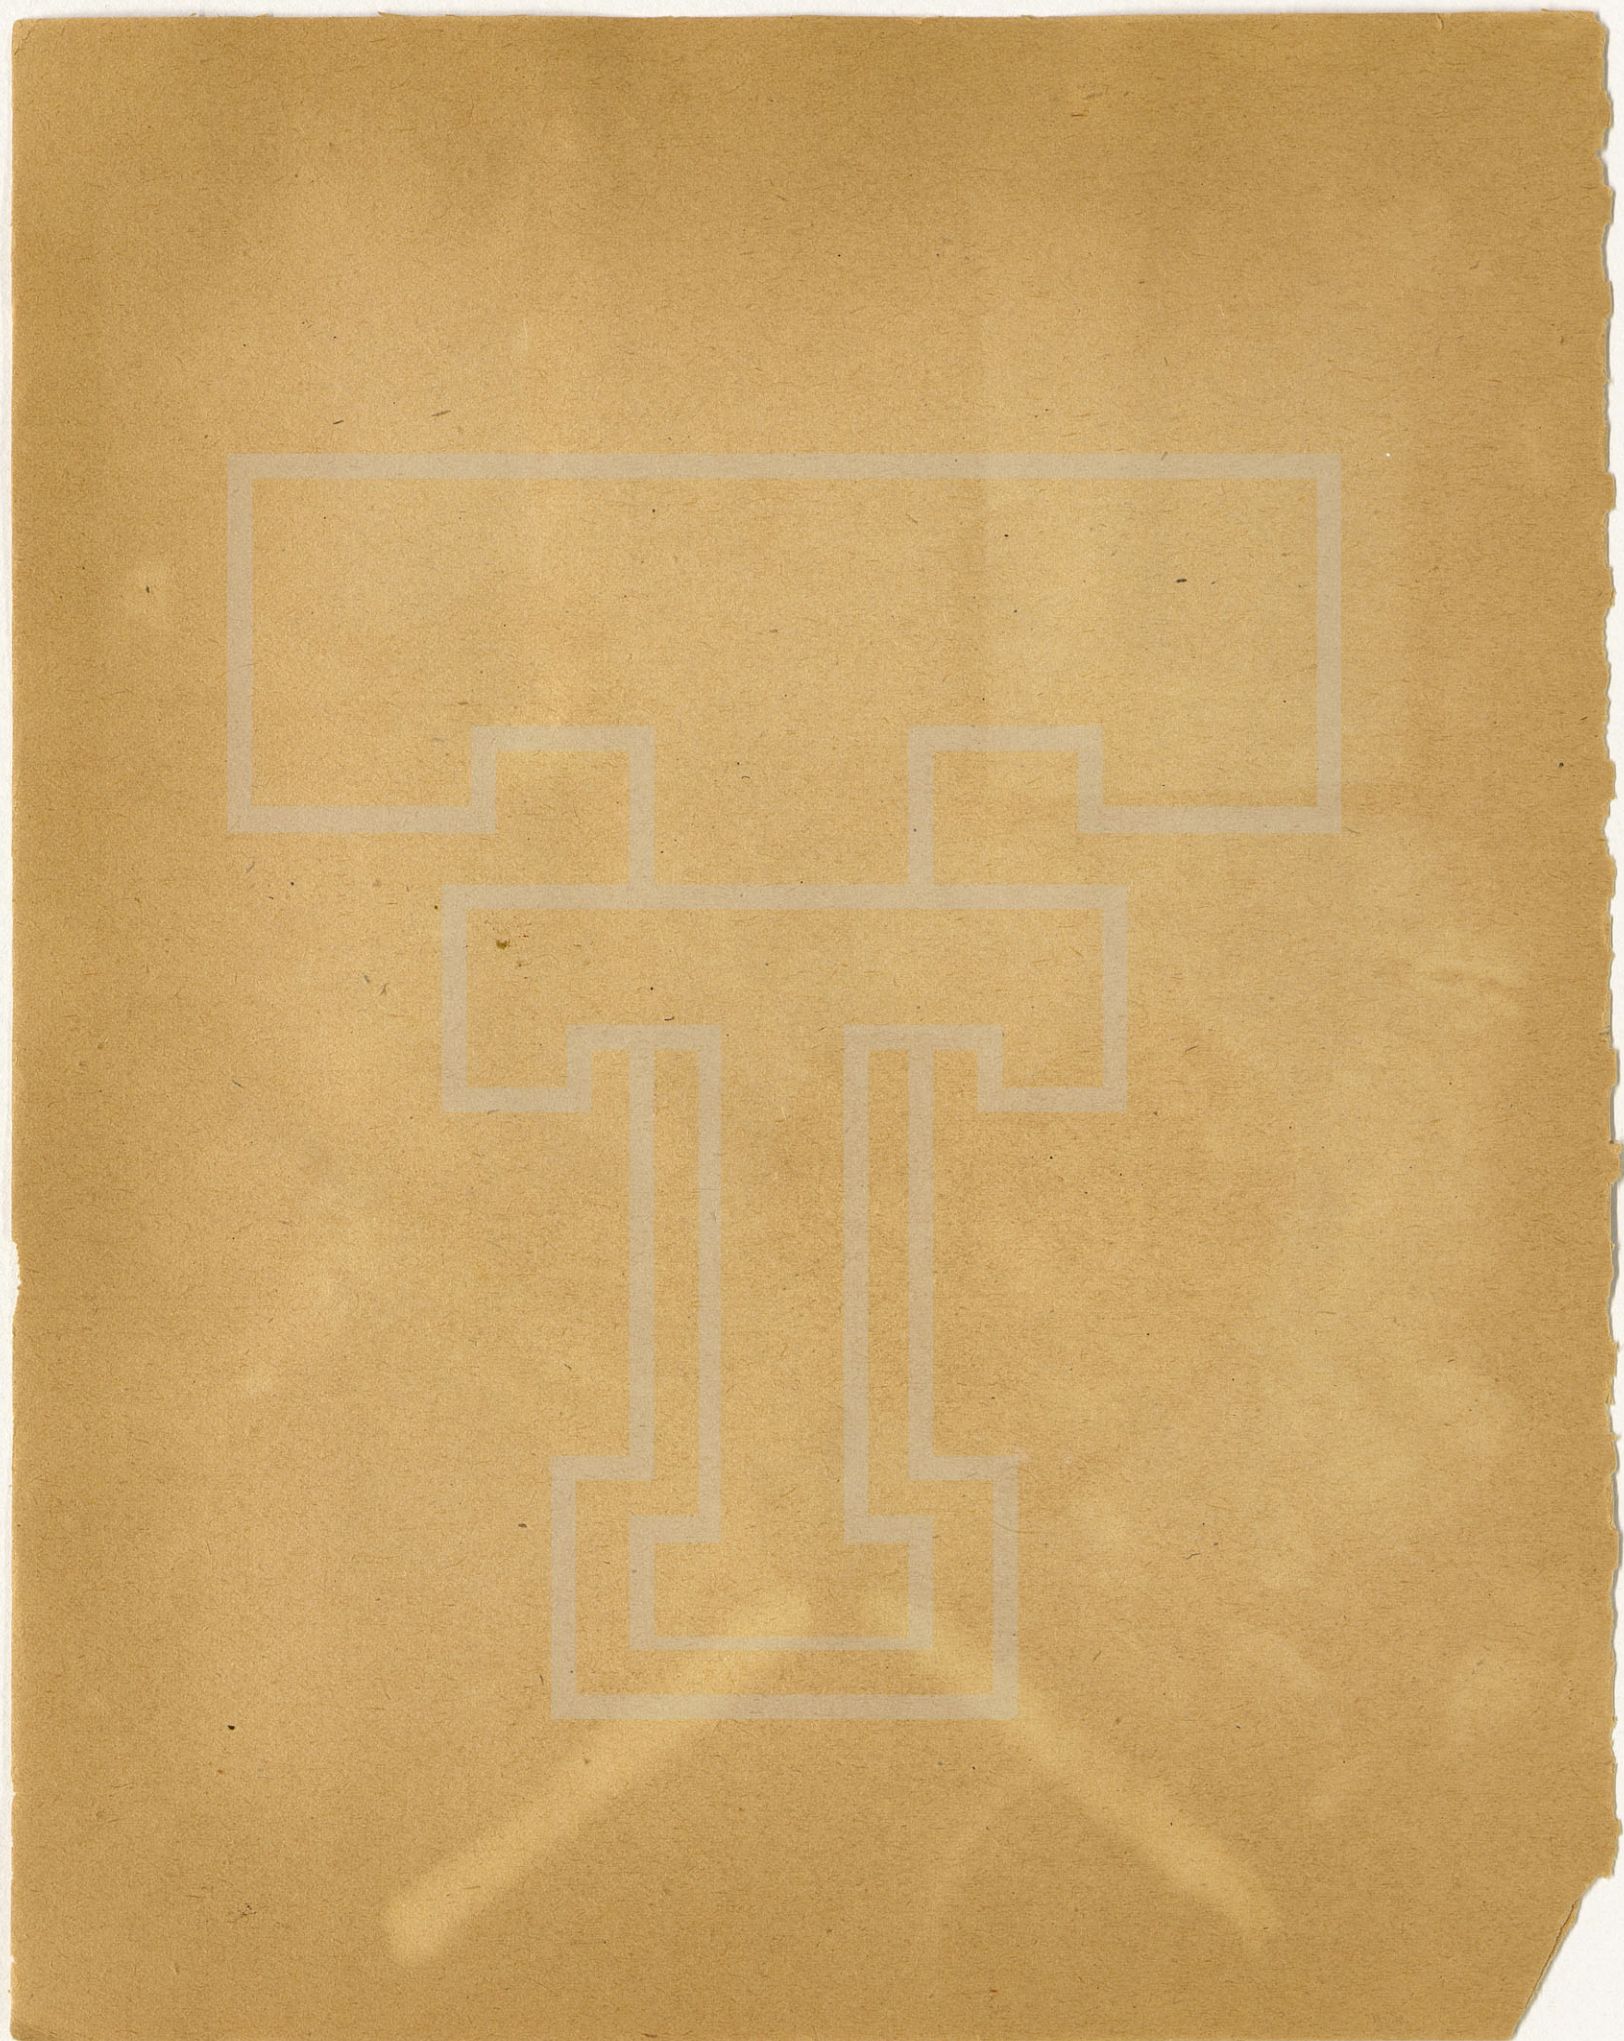

Sincerely -

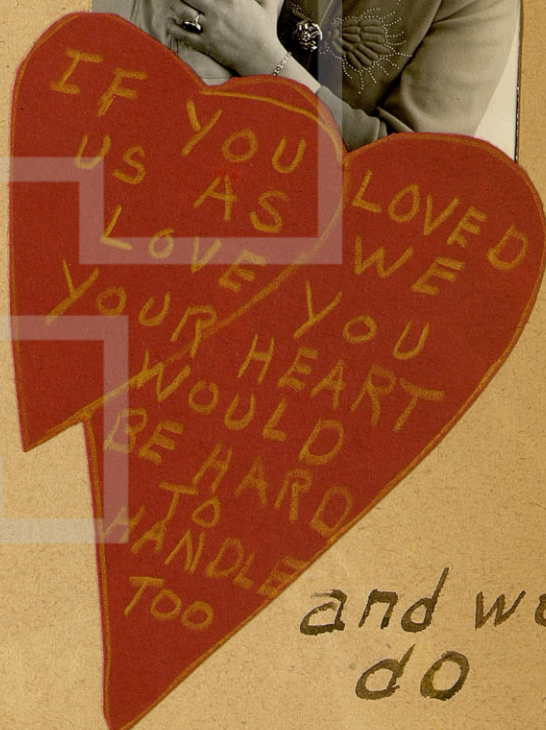

Margaret - M. Weeks

HE Management House Has Seven New Residents

Seven new residents are now living in the Home Management house. They are: Maude Alice Zorns, Lucille Melton, Arline Birdwell, Josie Lee Barnett, Marthella Cunyus, Margaret Hiatt and Oleeta Cummings.

They are planning several entertainments, one of which is a birthday party Feb. 7, for Mike, Home Management house baby.

An extension class, taught by Miss Edith Coleman, inspected the house Tuesday evening.

5 HM Residents To Give Party

Five residents of the Home Management house will entertain sisters enrolled or visiting on the campus with a supper party tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Guests are: Loy Catherine Barnett and Mrs. Elmer Tarbox, sisters of Josie Lee Barnett; Audrey Melton, sister of Lucille Melton; Dorothy Freeman, sister of Maude Alice Zorns; Mrs. Christine Keeney, sister of Arlene Birdwell; and Betty Cunyus, editor of Marthella Cunyus.

Miss Theodora Corey, new Textile and clothing instructor, will also be a guest.

HM Residents Entertain Pres. Whyburn And Family

The Home Management house entertained President and Mrs. W. M. Whyburn, daughter Willa Marie and son Clifton, and Miss Margaret W. Weeks, dean of the home economics division, at dinner last Wednesday evening. The party attended the Artist's Course program during the evening.

Home Management Coeds Entertained By Birdwells

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Birdwell, parents of Arlene Birdwell, entertained residents of the Home Management house with dinner and horseback riding last Thursday evening at their home five miles south of Lubbock.

Guests were: Misses Frances K. Urban, Josie Lee Barnett, Lucille Melton, Oleeta Cummings, Maude Alice Zorns, Marthella Cunyus, Margaret Hiatt, and Birdwell.

HM Residents Entertain Parents

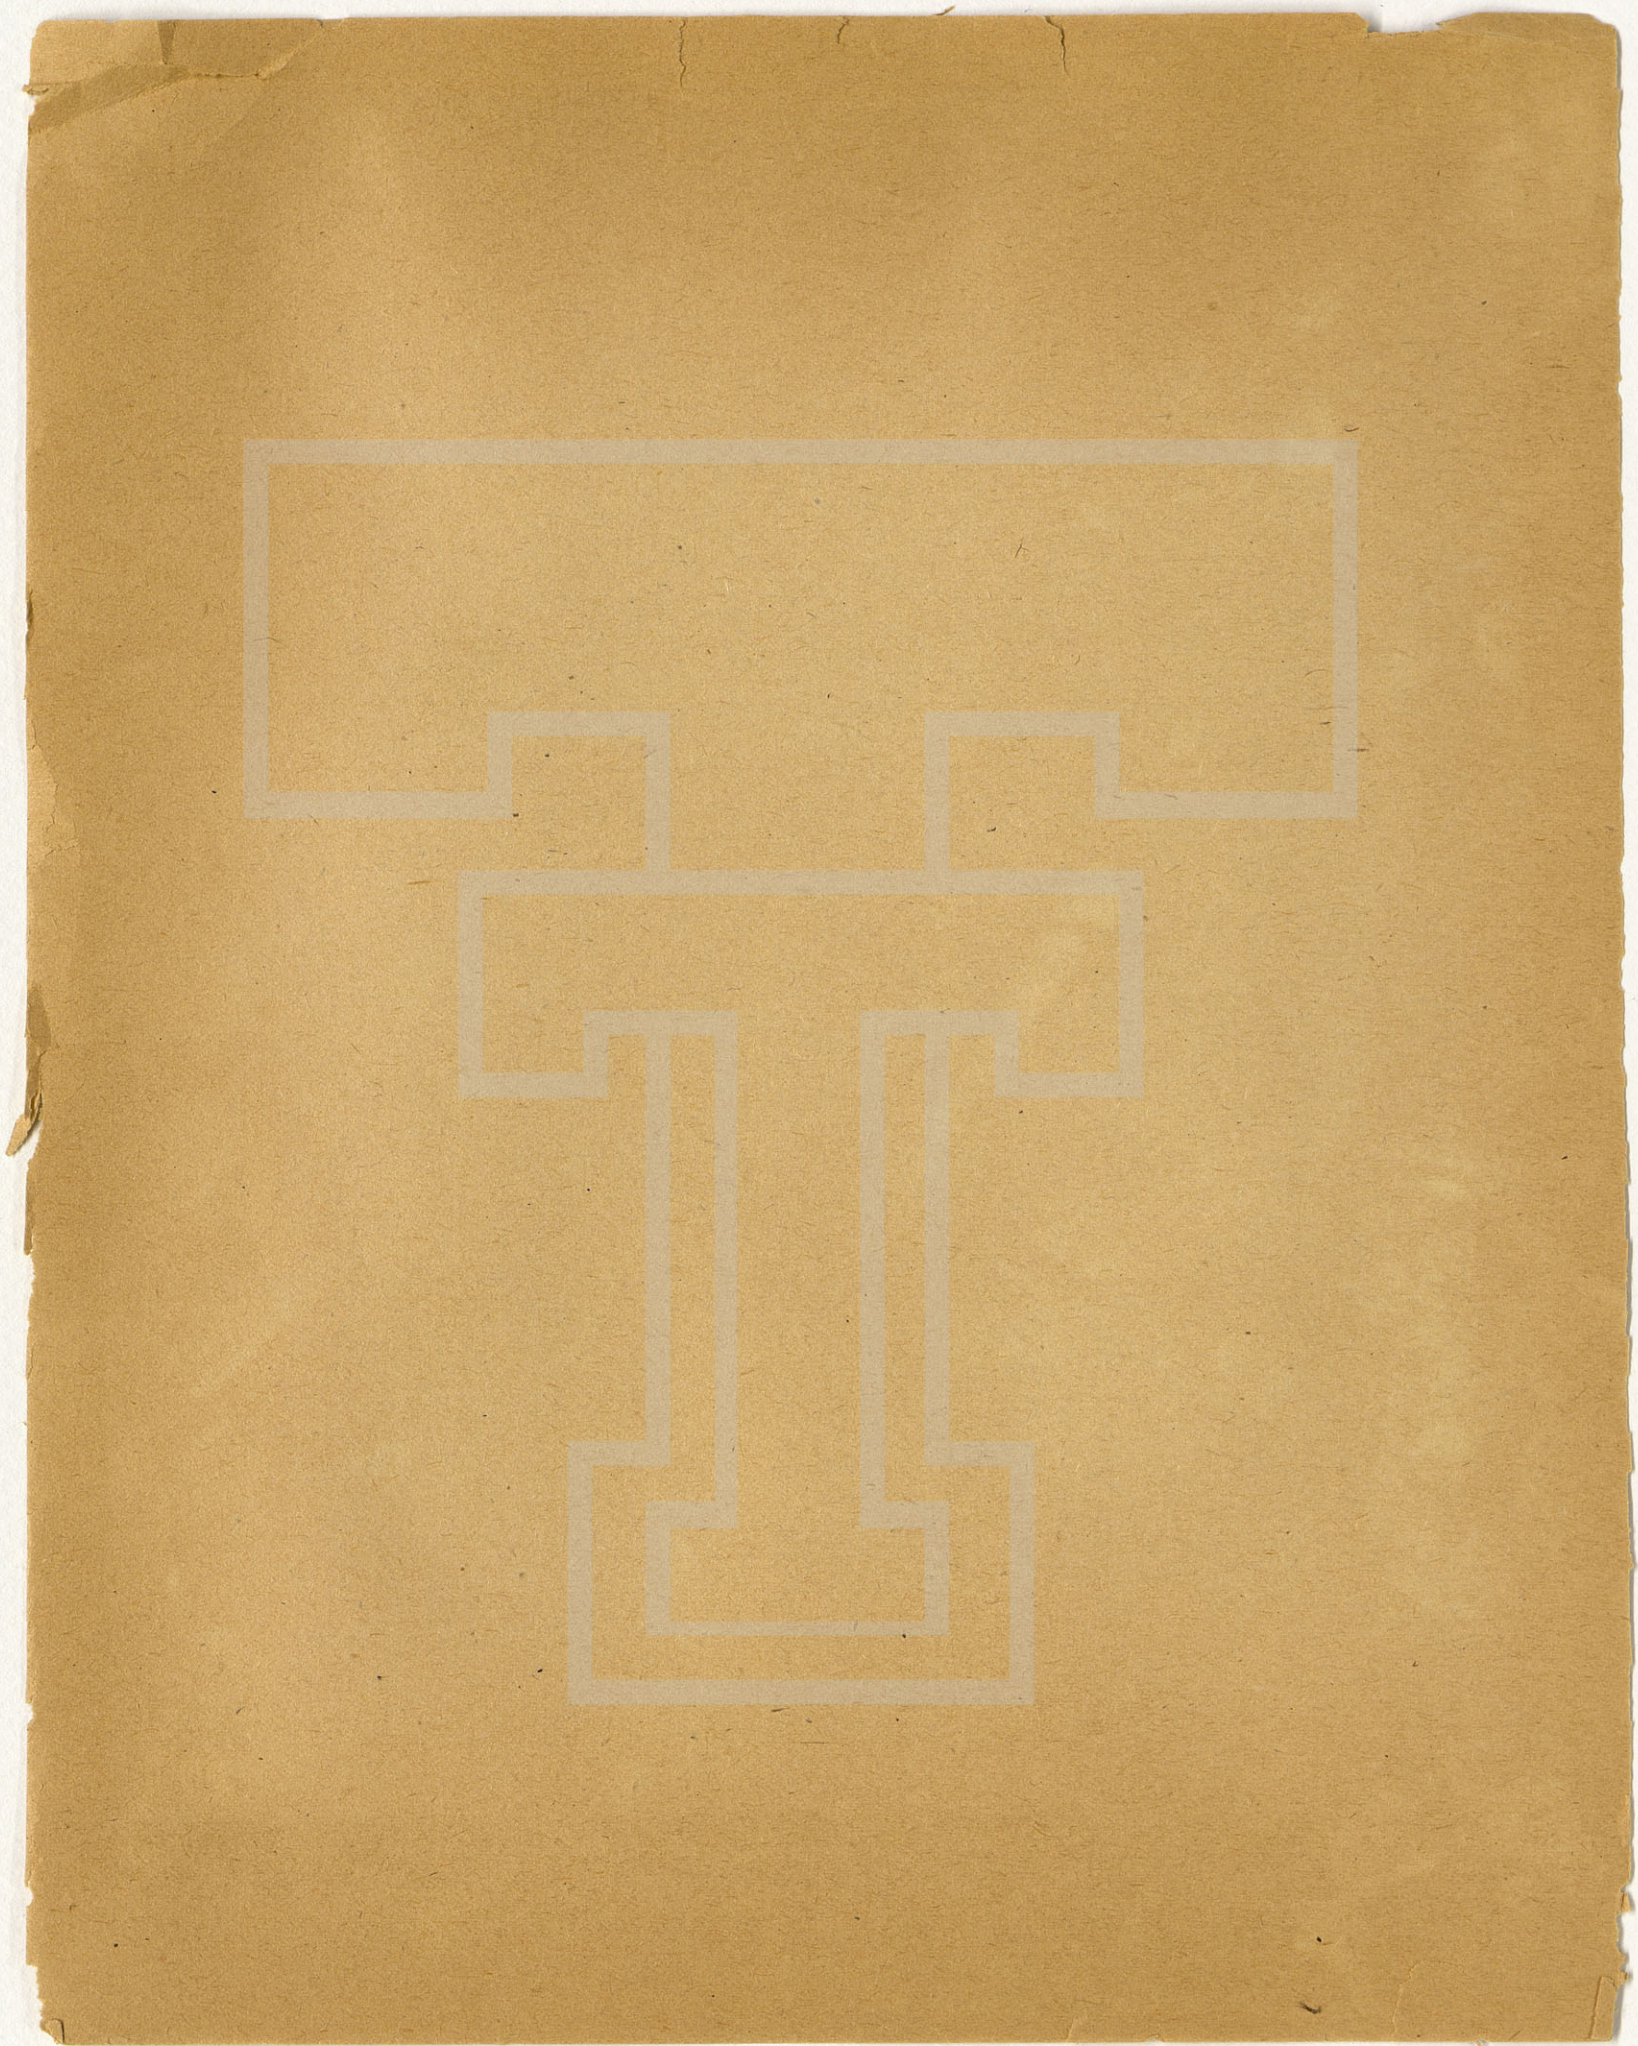

Residents of the Home Management house will entertain parents Sunday with a dinner. Guests will be: Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Cummings of Pampa, parents of Aleta Cummings; Mrs. Maude Zorns of Meadow, mother of Maude Alice Zorns; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Melton of Olton, parents of Lucille Melton; Mr. and Mrs. Mac Hiatt of Lubbock, parents of Margaret Hiatt; Mr. and Mrs. John Birdwell of Lubbock, parents of Arlene Birdwell; Reverend and Mrs. Alsie Carleton of Lubbock, guests of Josie Lee Barnett, and Mrs. Bethel Cunyus of Lockney, mother of Marthella Cunyus.

HM Girls Give Incoming Party

Incoming residents of the Home Management house will be entertained tonight at 8 o'clock by those who have completed nine weeks residence there. Refreshments will be served and the guests will be shown through the house and allowed to draw for the rooms they will occupy.

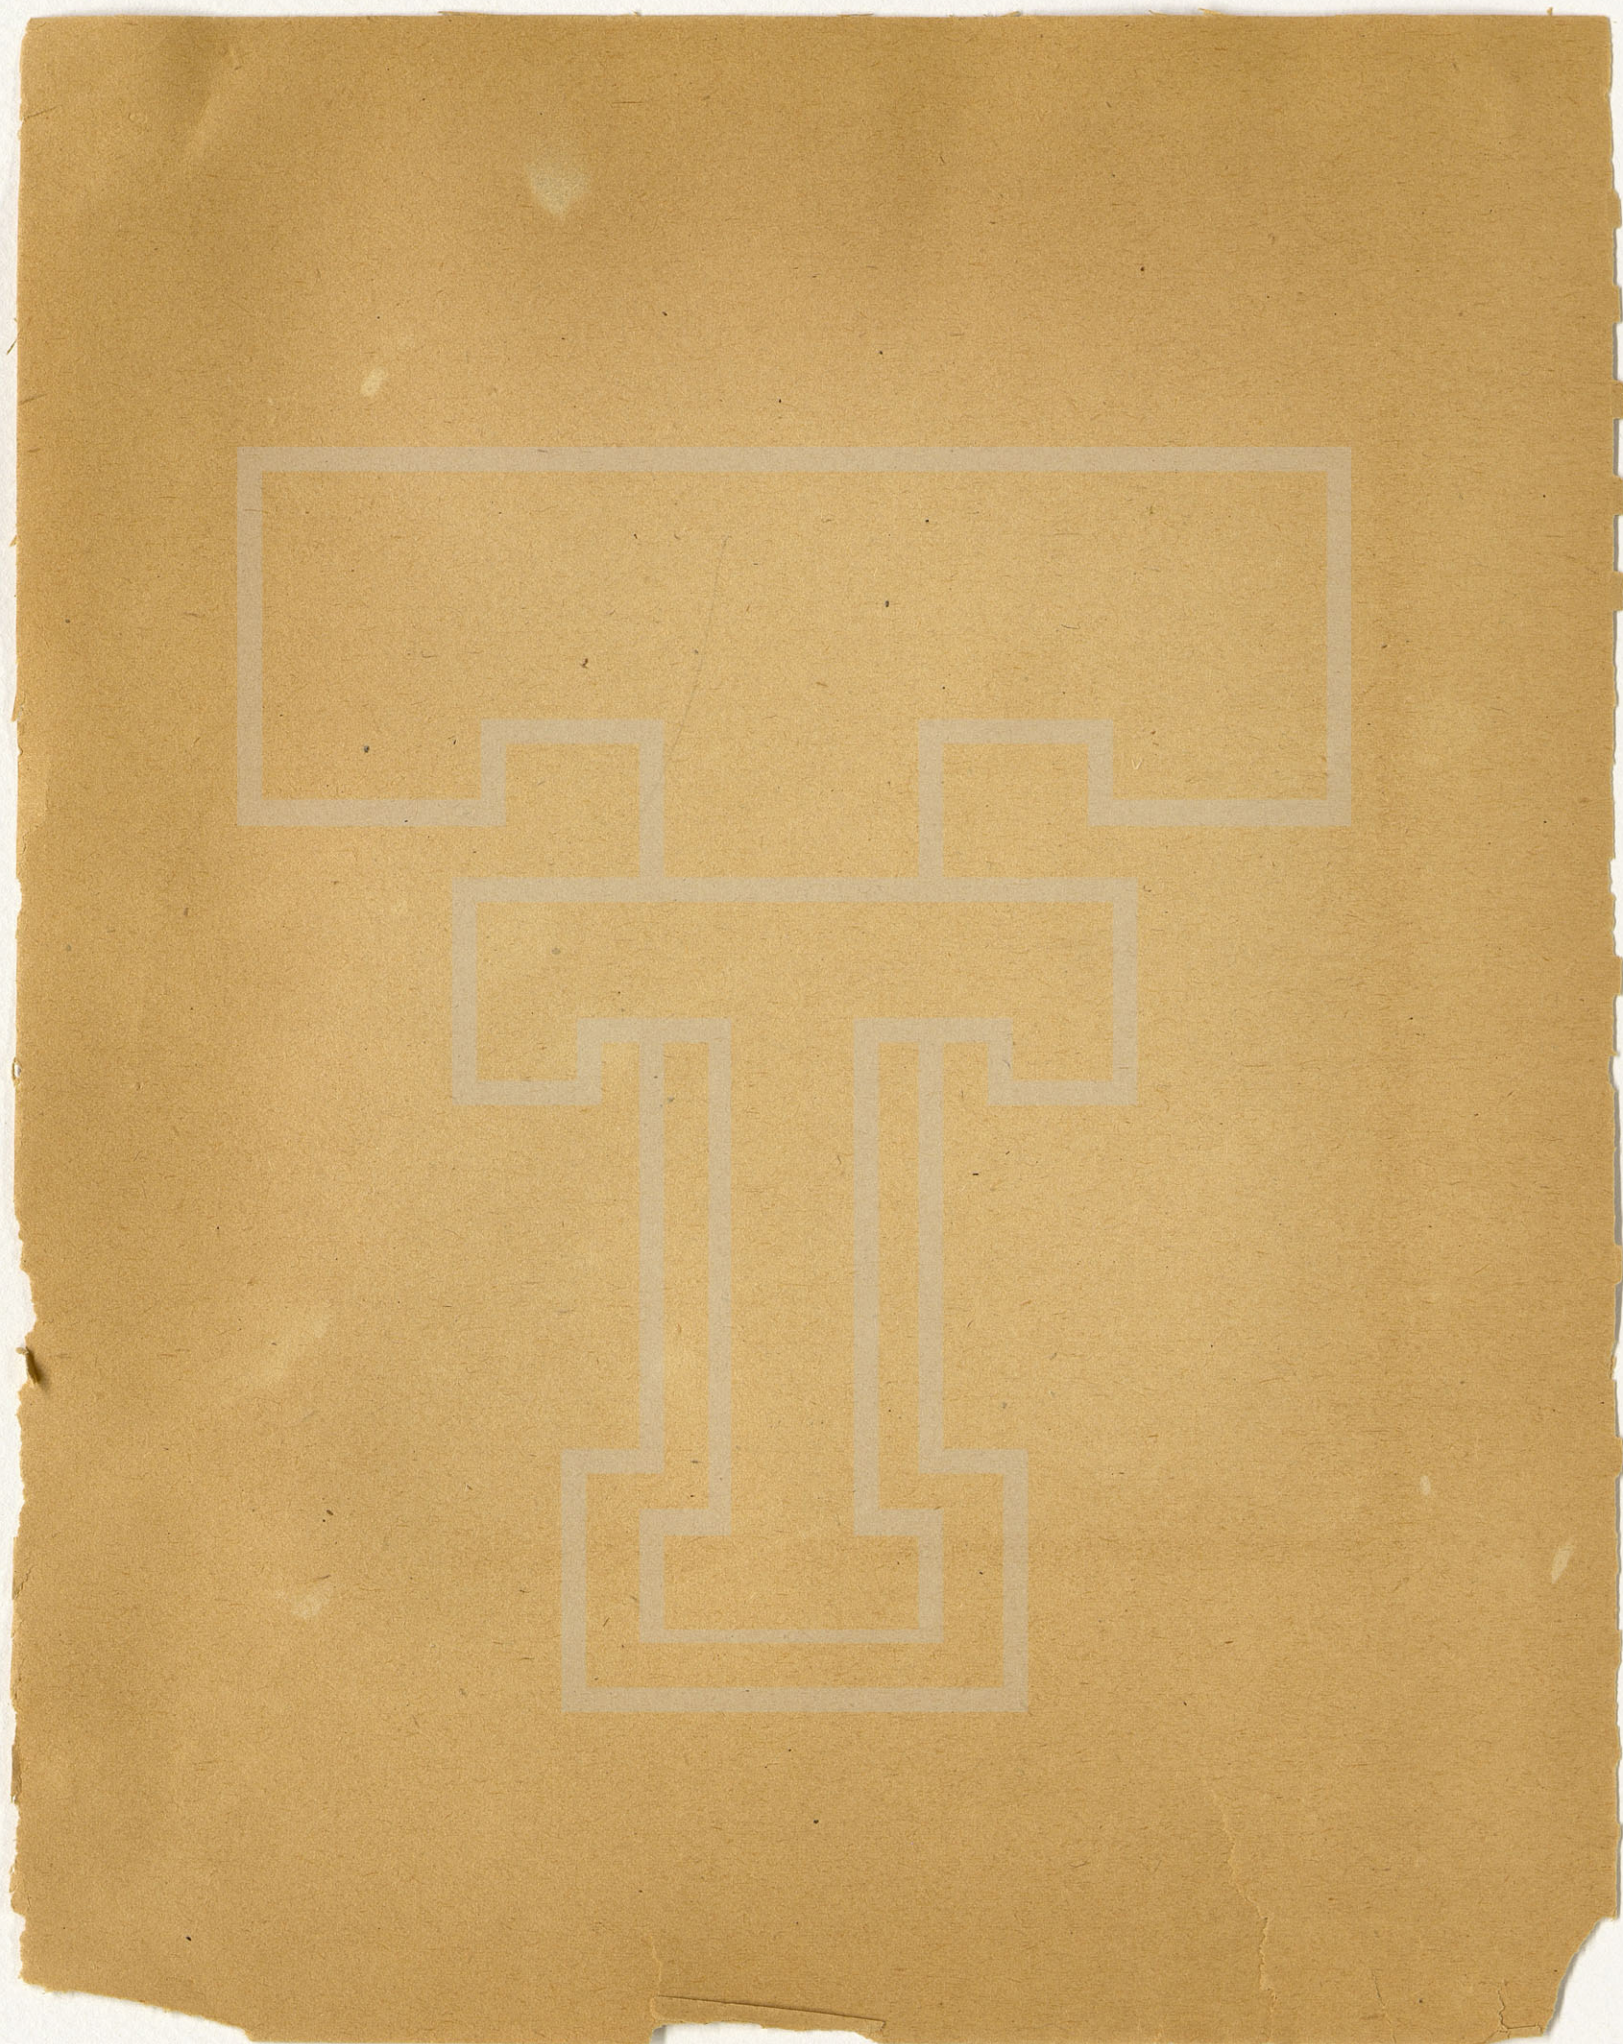

Guests are Dora Gaither, Frankie Nixon, Margaret Leonard, Dolores Snodgrass, Emma Gene Tonn and Ethel Burns. Old residents are Maude Alice Zorns, Margaret Hiatt, Arlene Birdwell, Oleeta Cummings, Josie Lee Barnett, Lucille Melton and Marthella Cunyus.

FLASH!!

It was so much fun when they came to visit with us

It's wonderful that she can still smile after the grey hair we caused her

We do hope you've enjoyed your visit as much as we have,
and won't you come
back again.
