FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING
DALLAS, TEXAS

Kilgore, Texas
May 24, 1941.

Mr. Ira Wills
Levelland, Texas.

Dear Mr. Wills,

While I was in our Dallas office yesterday I got up all the roddage across the Slaughter property and gave it to our lawyer with instructions how to make out the instrument and to send it to you for your OK and to send to Mr. Slaughter.

Mr. Perry was to be in there today and go over it with our man, then they were going to send it to you.

35 of having planted crop
Enclosed is damage release on the Labour 55 for 152 rods in the amount of $53.20. I have lost the mans name that it was to be paid to so will you please fill the name in the draft.

I se in the paper where you made a pretty good haul from the bank. I'm glad that guy didnt come in there a day earlier, he might have caught me in his trap.

Again I want to thank you for helping me on this damage stuff, and I think I will see you in a couple of weeks.

With best personal regards,

Yours very truly,

Jack Zachary
