SECRETARY.

"The Heart has no speech" its only language is a beat or pressure of the hand it sends very fully convey or interpret its emotions".
In the three little words I now speak - I thank you - there are heart depth which I should fail to express better though I should use a thousand other words." Your unexpected kindness deprives me of all words in which to thank you and the few I can find will be but poor & feeble expressions of what I feel"
