YOU WANT STEADY NERVES to "hit the silk" in a paratroop attack

"JUMP" is the command that starts you on that headlong earthward plunge through space, but the real order of the hour is steady nerves! For these soldiers of the sky—for every one of us! So take a tip from the men in the front line. Their favorite is Camel—the slow-burning, mild cigarette. Make Camel your cigarette, too.

YOU BET I SMOKE
CAMELS. THEY'RE
EXTRA MILD
AND THEY ALWAYS TASTE GREAT

With men in the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, and the Coast Guard, the favorite cigarette is Camel. (Based on actual sales records in Post Exchanges, Sales Commissaries, Ship's Service Stores, Ship's Stores, and Canteens.)

Important to Steady Smokers:

The smoke of slow-burning

CAMELS

contains

than that of the 4 other largest-selling brands tested—less than any of them—according to independent scientific tests of the smoke itself!

"I HELP MAKE THOSE PARACHUTES," says Helen V. Lynch, Pioneer Parachute Company employee, "and I can tell you 'nerves' don't go in my job. Smoke? Yes, I enjoy smoking. I smoke Camels. They have the mildness that counts and Camels don't tire my taste." Yes, for all of us, this is a "war of nerves." More important than ever, now, is your choice of cigarettes. Smoke Camels.

Two of the most comfortable things in the world are old shoes and old friends.
An ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness.

A real diplomat is a man who can make his wife believe a fifty-dollar dress makes her look stout.

Many a man's failure is due to his having aimed too high with a short-ranged gun.

A perfectly good lie sometimes fails to serve its purpose.

Having nothing to say doesn't keep an argumentative man quiet.

Contributions To Tech Gym Fund Received

I read where a fund is being started for a gym for Tech, sure glad to hear there is something being done along this line. I'm enclosing my check and a check from J. C. (Jake) Bourland.
Neither of us feel that we are able to give more than this but want to do our parts in so far as we can. USO, Navy Relief, Red Cross and others have taken all of our surplus but we have been helping some more later.

I also read an honor roll of Tech
Alumni was being posted in the Ad Building. I wish you would see that Foy's name is on the list, he was on Bataan Peninsula at the time of its fall on April 9. So far the only thing we know is that he is "missing in action." It is presumed that he is a prisoner of war, there is a bare possibility he escaped but there is little hope of such being true. Foy graduated in 1936 from the School of Agriculture.

Very truly yours,
Iris Pribble

District Judge E. C. Nelson, of Amarillo, is a candidate for Chief Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals of the Seventh Supreme Judicial District of Texas. This is one of the highest judicial offices in the State, one that demands thorough training and wide experience.

His high standard of scholarship, both in the College of Arts and in the School of Law, is attested by the fact that he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, Chancellors, and several other honor societies. He also studied law at the University of Chicago and at the University of Montpellier, France, one of the oldest and best recognized institutions of learning in Europe. For five years he was a teacher in public schools and college before he took up the study of law.

He is now District Judge of the district composed of Potter, Randall and Armstrong Counties, and his appellate record is one of the best in the State.

He is 51 years old, just the right age to undertake the work of an appellate judge. He is old enough to have acquired the proper background of training and experience; and at the same time, he is young enough to give to the position the years of hard work that it demands.

ELMER V. EAST

"It is my belief that a District Attorney should be fair and just in the consideration of all criminal matters before him and that he should be competent, aggressive and energetic in the prosecution of all criminal cases before the Court.

"Based upon this belief, I am applying to the Citizens of this District for the office and wish to submit the following facts as to my qualifications:

"I was born and reared in Childress County where I lived until I moved to Lubbock five years ago. I have practiced law nine years, four of them in Childress where I served as County Attorney. I have always represented the State in criminal cases or have been engaged in the practice of civil law. I have only represented the defendant in one criminal case.

"Because of tire rationing, it is probable that I will be unable to make a thorough canvass of the district or to contact many of the voters; however, it is my conviction that the Citizens will be no less keenly interested in the officials who are to serve them during the next two years, and more especially their representatives in law enforcement offices.

"I shall deeply appreciate, therefore, the earnest consideration by Citizens of my desire to serve as District Attorney. If elected, I most earnestly desire the continued advice, counsel and guidance of the Citizens of the District and I assure you that I shall endeavor to represent the best interests of the Citizens at all times, keeping in mind that the office is a trust from the people and should be administered for the well-being of the Citizenship of the District."

His statement:

Dear friends and voters of Precinct 1, in announcing for this office I feel that I am capable and qualified to fill the position both by experience and training, and to perform the many duties of this important office in an efficient manner. If elected I promise to render courteous, efficient, and faithful service at all times, and will cooperate with the law enforcement agencies of the city, county, and state.

To those who do not know me I invite you to investigate fully my past record. I have lived in Lubbock the past seventeen years. I will appreciate the support and influence of all citizens of the precinct.

There is such a thing as being too conceited about one's modesty.

AIM TO GET THE BEST OUT OF YOUR COOKING

Follow These Rules:

Roast meat at low temperature in your Gas oven and reduce shrinkage.

Remember that the flexible Gas flame can be regulated to any degree of heat you need, eliminating scorching and overcooking of food.

Use any remaining vegetable liquids in soups, gravies, sauces, or cold in tomato juice.

Plan one casserole dish a week to use left-overs.

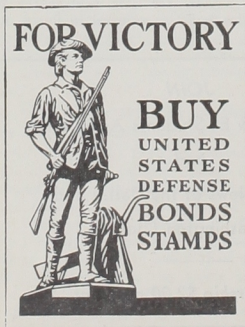

Cook vegetables by the "waterless" method for which your Gas range is especially suited. The flexible Gas flame will give you the exact degree of heat you need.

Bring vegetables to boiling point quickly over full Gas flame, then turn flame low and cook gently.

Keep utensils covered and do not use soda in vegetables. Do not pre-heat your Gas oven or broiler too long. Remember, Gas is fast.

Plan complete oven and broiler meals, to make full use of Gas.

Avoid using small pans on large or giant top burners.

Alumni To Build Memorial Gymnasium

The building of a magnificent Memorial gymnasium upon the campus to honor the son of Tech who are serving in the present world conflict was set as a goal of the Alumni and Ex-Students Association at the fifteenth annual banquet in the women's dormitory No. 2 Saturday night, May 30.

The gymnasium will be a memorial "commemorating the lives of those who shall not return from the grim struggle, and honoring those who shall have fought through to a glorious victory and returned to fill their places in our American way of life."

The project was approved in the passing of a resolution submitted by Royal Furgeson, executive secretary and president-elect, and Lloyd Croslin, retiring president. Contributions for the building will be accepted in war bonds and stamps. No sooner had the resolution been passed and the plan of subscription announced when donors began subscribing to the fund. George Langford, former Red Raider football player, Ex-Double T president, and elected athletic representative, made the first bond subscription, and in a few minutes more than a dozen bonds had been subscribed. Spencer A. Wells, chairman of the college board of directors, headed the list with a $100 bond donation toward the fund.

Creation of a Memorial Fund committee to be composed of two continuing members of the association to be appointed by the president of the association; two continuing members from the college to be appointed by the president; chairman of the board of directors of the college, and the president and administrative secretary of the association was empowered in the resolution. The committee will administer the fund and carry the project through to a successful completion. Contributions to the fund will be deposited with the business manager of the college who will be its custodian.

The Texas Technological College board of directors approved the resolution in their meeting June 1.

The banquet was pronounced a success by all who attended. President Lloyd Croslin presided. Invocation was by Dean James M. Gordon. Mart Pederson led the group in pledge of allegiance to the flag. Lieutenant John E. Speer of Lubbock Army Flying School, former president of the association, extended a welcome to the members of the 1942 senior class and John Phillips, senior vice-president, responded.

The largest number of graduating seniors to ever attend the Alumni banquet were present.

Dr. H. L. Kent, administrative assistant to President Clifford B. Jones, made the principal address of the evening on the relationship of Alumni to their alma mater.

Royal Furgeson of Lubbock was elected president in the balloting. Other officers named were: L. M. Hargraves, Wolforth, first vice-president; Anne Hammons, Dallas, second vice-president; George Langford, Lubbock, athletic council representative; and Ward Garrison, Amarillo, three-year director.

Spencer A. Wells, chairman of the college board of directors, spoke briefly on the memorial program as did Director of Athletics Morley Jennings.
