4. What I liked best about today's Leadership Development Conference was

5. Suggestions for improvement? future seminars or conferences?

Rec

1- possible to do with 4 presenters

2- Track II

do not need special presenter for Voter Service + fund raising incorporate in other presenters material.

re-invent "overlook"

3- Build in break menu & opt.

4- Build in time to come back together (2 tracks) do evaluation together. Perhaps have 1 person address purpose of conference, thank yous, "god bless" etc.
some hand out to take home.
badge, candy,

5- improve interaction by:

1- have people sit beside someone other than who they come with. maybe change again after lunch.

4. What I liked best about today's Leadership Development Conference was the opportunity to hear creative ideas & suggestions

5. Suggestions for improvement? future seminars or conferences?

With such short time period it would be nice if we could have had more handouts (especially on Sondra's she had such informative material + I find it hard to write, listen & absorb at the same time)

PUBLIC RELATIONS

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Promote publicity through press, TV, and radio prior to and during convention.
- Prepare and distribute local press releases with input from the state board
- Assemble press packets after consulting with the state board and receiving from state office materials that may be needed.

PERSONNEL

- The chair should appoint an assistant if one is needed.
- One or two assistants may be needed to type last-minute copy.

PROCEDURES

- Two or more weeks in advance of the convention, the public relations chair should publicize the place, dates, and local convention personnel.
- One week in advance of convention, the chair should publicize the program of the convention and any local entertainment plans.
- On opening day, the chair should try to get an editorial welcome, mention by columnists, story of the state board meeting the previous day, TV and/or radio interview with the state president, etc.
- During the convention, the chair should be ready to prepare releases for distribution if so directed by the convention.
- Advance publicity should be clipped for display on the convention bulletin board and should be kept up to date.
- If press people are at the press table, the public relations chair or someone appointed by the chair should also sit at the table to answer questions, give names and addresses of League and guest speakers.
