R. C. Lee Camp.

My kind friends

The death of my beloved husband, who so shocked, and crushed me, that - I have been unable to acknowledge thanks for the high honors you have paid him in the resolution sent me by your Committee.
I deeply appreciate these expressions from your Camp - and I feel that - no higher tribute could have been paid my dear husband, he was so proud to be a Confederate Veteran, and while there was many years between us - I gloried in being the wife of one who fought for our Southern Cause - With many, many, thousand from our best hearts we remain

Always your friends
Mrs John Buggs Moore
Luizg^d Marshall Moore.
