"Dear Anna"

Leadville, Col., Jan'y 20th 1881

Your letter at hand and glad indeed to hear from you I presume you think it very odd to be compelled to live under the knowledge that I am really married - well I must confess it seems strange to me - when I look back upon the past and the position that I am ⁱⁿ at the present - One would have almost thought I had passed all danger and would come out the same as I always have been - single - but this is a strange world and there hardly is any accounting for what one will do, had I been where I could have had a home and the surroundings and ^{comforts} of a Home - I hardly think I would have been induced by any one to have changed to the life that I have - actually I hardly think ^{now} I ever will make anything but the West my Home - I have a splendid good economical Cook and House Keeper for a wife and companion - and I sincerely hope that I will at some early time be able to change my place of business, and living to a more healthy & beneficial climate - for it don't agree with me here - As regards any little souvenir to be company the pin cushion - for my bureau - you can make it the same color, but don't go to any expense nor annoyance - and have Mother send the music box & things I wrote for along as soon as possible - with lots of love to all in which I ag - love me - your brother
