

TOMPALL AND THE GLASER BROTHERS

LOVIN' HER WAS EASIER

Lovin' her was easier (than anything I'll ever do again)/ It'll be her/Busted/ Feelin' the weight of my chains/ Just one time/ The last thing on my mind/ United we fall/ Drinkin' them beers/ Tryin' to outrun
the wind/ A mansion on the hill.

I'm always dubious about reunion albums, because you can't turn the clock <sup>back</sup> and old glories can never be regained, whatever the motive.

Tompall, Chuck and Jim Glaser parted company in the mid Seventies, and this is their first album since they signed with Elektra <sup>last year.</sup> They've already enjoyed a Top3 Country single, in the late summer, with the album title track. That song, however, is the mould for the other nine cuts on the album.

Their harmony work which was always a strong point in their performances, is well to the fore, and Jim Bowen has done an excellent production job.

It's just that nagging feeling, that a little variation
in tempo, would have been nice.
