

Judge W P McLean , Commander:

It devolves on your committee to chronicle the sad news of the death of our comrade Capt Joseph M Adams which occurred in this city October 2nd 1909 ~~in~~ th the 77th year of his age.

He was born in Scott county Kentucky Oct 12 1831 , was educated at Georgetown Kentucky and the law school at Louisville and soon after his matriculation moved to Madison county Miss where he was practicing his profession at the beginning of the war . In 1861 he enlisted in co G 18th Miss infantry regiment and was in a short while promoted to the command of his company which he led gallantly in the various battles of that regiment as a component of Barksdales Miss brigade McLaws division Longstreets corps ~~army~~ of Northern Virginia of the Confederacy.

His record shows him to have been a participant of the many hard fought battles with that command beginning with 1st Manassas and ending with Lee's surrender at Appomattox .

After the war he resumed his profession at Georgetown but removed to Mississippi where he enlisted as stated He has resided in this city for a number of years where he leaves a number of relatives and a large circle of warm friends to mourn his loss

Resolved that we join our voices with these friends and relatives in sympathy at his passing away from us and extend to the bereaved widow and his surviving children our ^{most} sincere ~~and~~ condolence .

C C Cummings

McDon

John Doyle Committee

Judge W. P. McLean, Commander:
It devolves on your committee to chronicle the sad news of the death of our comrade Capt Joseph M Adams which was arrived in this city October 2nd 1909 at the ⁷⁷ year of his age.

He was born in Scott county Kentucky Oct 12 1831, was educated at

Georgetown Kentucky and the law school at Louisville and soon after his matriculation moved to Madison county Miss where he was practicing his profession at the beginning of the war. In 1861 he enlisted in Co G

18th Miss Infantry regiment and was in a short while promoted to the command of his company which he led gallantly in the various battles of that regiment as a component of Garrettsville Miss brigade 1st division

Longstreet's corps army of Northern Virginia of the Confederacy.

His record shows him to have been a participant of the many hard fought battles with that command beginning with 1st Vassass and ending with Lee's surrender at Appomattox.

After the war he resumed his profession at Georgetown and removed to Mississippi where he enlisted as stated

He has resided in this city for a number of years where he leaves a num ber of relatives and a large circle of warm friends to mourn his loss

Resolved that we join our voices with these friends and relatives in expressing our sympathy at his passing away from us and extend to the bereaved widow and his survi ving children our sincere condolence.

C. C. Cummings

Wm. Brown

J. H. Smith

Judge W P McLean , Commander:

It devolves on your committee to chronicle the sad news of the death of our comrade Capt Joseph M Adams which occurred in this city October 2nd 1909 ~~at~~ the 77th year of his age.

He was born in Scott county Kentucky Oct 12 1831 , was educated at Georgetown Kentucky and the law school at Louisville and soon after his matriculation moved to Madison county Miss where he was practicing his profession at the beginning of the war . In 1861 he enlisted in Co G 18th Miss infantry regiment and was in a short while promoted to the command of his company which he led gallantly in the various battles of that regiment as a component of Barksdales Miss brigade McLaws division Longstreets corps~~army~~ of Northern Virginia of the Confedefacy.

His record shows him to have been a participant of the many hard fought battles with that command beginnn with 1st Manassas and ending with Lee's surrender at Appomattox .

After the war he resumed his profession at Georgetown but removed to Mississippi where he enlisted as stated He has resided in this city for a number of years where he leaves a number of relatives and a large circle of warm friends to mourn his loss

Resolved that we join our voices with these friends and relatives in sympathy at his passing away from us and extend to the bereaved widow and his surviving children our ^{most} sincere ~~of~~ condolence .

C C Cummings

Wm B. B. B.

Jm Doyle Committee

Under W. P. Nelson, Commander:
It is the duty of your committee to ascertain the date of the death of our comrade Capt Joseph W. Adams who was killed in this city October 2nd 1862 in the 7th year of his age.
He was born in Scott county Kentucky Oct 12 1821, was educated at Georgetown Kentucky and the law school at Louisville and soon after his graduation moved to Madison county Miss where he was practicing the profession of the law. In 1861 he enlisted in Co. G 10th Miss Infantry Regiment and was in a short while promoted to the command of his company which he led gallantly in the various battles of that campaign as a component of Barstons Division. He was killed in the battle of Vicksburg Mississippi of the Confederates.
His record shows him to have been a participant of the many hard fought battles with that command and with the 1st Division and ending with the

After the war he resumed his profession of law's profession at Georgetown.
George W. Adams removed to Mississippi where he enlisted as stated He was killed in this city for a number of years he lived in a home near or adjacent to a large circle of water which he had Resided with his family and with these friends and relatives in Sydney at his residence away from us and returned to the deceased widow and his family with children only.

and committee
J. P. Nelson
J. P. Nelson