My Dear General,

I have been reading your books for some years with deep interest - I want to write a two or three thousand word article for the "Frontier Times" Baudron, Texas on Gen. Rawl S. MacKenzie & on Gen. Robert Howe & will ask your help in as long a letter as you will give me, on the characteristics of each officer & their fights, campaigns & other points of interest.

I expect to be here a week or so & will look forward to seeing you at the Army & Navy Club or wherever is most convenient as soon as I get out.

I am not sick but going through the different tests as I do once or twice a year since retirement.

Sincerely

Martin L. Cimino

P.S. I am working on a short - 5000 word article on "The Eve of Secession" & have had access to the accounts of Major John J. Spearer & Capt. Edwin D. Phillips, 1st Inf. Col., Charles Anderson & Mrs. Darrow, who were there at that time.

My dear Captain

I sent you via Army & Navy Courier with my article on Fort Griffin. Please make such corrections as you wish & send it to the Editor of the Jacksboro Gazette. I do not have my notes with me & have forgotten his name. In General James Parker's "Old Army Memories 1872-1918" on page 360 he tells about carrying Mrs. Crimmins ashore at Pasacao, Southern Luzon in March 1901. The Filipino boat men had carried every one ashore, even Colonel Parker and I had gone on ahead to sign receipts for all the Govt. property - when

Mrs. Coimini's boat was approaching the shore "Big Tim Parker" struck out in the water & carried her ashore as he did not want a Filipino to carry her. We often laughed at the incident & I just saw it for the first time today in his book, at the N.Y. Public Library.

I hope you are not suffering from the heat as we are here.

Where is General Parker? I do not have a register or directory here. I am sending the extract from Capt. Philip St. George Cooke's
"Journal" about the Inverly incident to the N.M. Historical Review - It occurred June 30, 1843 while he was guarding a Caravan enroute to Santa Fe. Have you anything on it? Faithfully

— M. L. Coimini

My dear Captain

I miss my enjoyable visits to you & I know of no one so well informed on the military life in Texas in the early 70's. I wrote J. Marion Hunter "Frontier Times" about your "Old Sergeant's Story" & asked him to get permission from you to publish it.

Noah F. Morrison, "The Cork," Elizabeth, N.J. has a copy he will sell for $5 - and I will buy it for Hunter if you have given him permission to republish it.

He has been publishing "Five Years a Cavalryman" by H.H. McConnell of Fort Richardson, so your stories would be appropriate as showing the activity of our troops during the same period. ~~He also~~ ^{Morrison} has "Reminiscences of a Soldier's Wife" by Mrs. Bidle.

With kindest regards from both of us

Faithfully

M. L. Crimmins

P.S. I am having my article on Fort McKavett, typed & may send it to the West Texas Historical Association, if I get a favorable reply to my letter.

My dear Captain Carter

I hope you will have a very happy Newyear — In the 1933 West Texas Historical Association Year Book on page 14, No. 13, Bullion is quoted as the authority for the statement that the territory between the Buffalo Hunters or the negro soldiers at Fort Concho described in the killing of from three to five men every week, that the last two years that the buffalo hunters were in town — 1878-1879. — I do not have any records available & if you have will you please let me have the facts. If not available the Librarian at the Army Medical Library could get the information for you or Col John P. Wade AGA 1402 Mun. Bldg. Washington D.C. I am anxious to keep on correcting false statements made about our Army. — I have an article on Capt. John Lovers Exploration of the Rio Grande in 1850 now being printed by the West Texas Historical & Scientific Society at Alpine; I sent them a nice account of the French's expedition to California in 1850

To Mrs Jack Shipman Marfa, Texas, the editor of the "Voice of the Mexican Border" for publication.
This journal tells of his 850 miles trip through Texas - It was first published in 1851 - They followed the route laid out by Col. Joseph E. Johnston in 1849 to El Paso & then south to Corralitos & west to Guadalupe Pass, where they struck Captain P. S. G. Cooke wagon trail. I sent Master Austin Hatchard, G.C.Y., 1871 Dept of Tex 2487/1858 in which Gen. David Emanuel Twiggs published the reprimand of John Floyd, Secy. of War - Twiggs having over ruled his authority or in his explanation - "that the Antidote may go with the poison" made, statements that caused him to be court-martialed - Col Robert E. Lee was a member of the Court & in his letter to his family referred to General Twiggs as General Scraggs. Was that his nick name in the Army or did Lee use the name "to play safe" as was often found the letters? Gen. S. J. French in his book "Two Wars" on p 58 wrote "I informed you that his ancestors may have worshipped in the temple of Perusalem or fought like the Macca Gars in the defence of their religion", I can not find any thing of importance about this in the New York Library - Could you tell me something about this. Cordially

my dear Captain

Thank you very much for the memorandum on Twiggs or the Major soldiers - I am very sorry to hear you have had a distressing experience & angled to know you are improving.

I have found five references to "Scruggs" in General Lee's letters - The first dated 5/17/58 to his son, relative to the trial of Twiggs. The findings were published in G.W.C. L.G.A. 5/11/58.
On 12/14/60 he wrote home that he was "detained by Scruggs yesterday" - That letter will be found in "The Life & Letters of Robert E. Lee" by J.W. Jones, Neil Parker, NY 1906 -

I have just finished an article on Fort McRaven one on General Twiggs in Texas.
Will you please write me of the incident that occurred at a banquet after Scott left Mexico

City, when "Prince John" Bankhead MacGruder Dropped a tostada "General Twiggs & Old Crizan with a heavy head & a strong bottom"

You told me that Captain Vincent who was killed at Howard Wells 4/20/72 was cared for in his last moments by the wife of an officer who was at the time enroute to join her husbands station - What was the lady's name?

I am going to write a story on Howard's wall & visited the old well a year ago last October - The local families know very little about its history.

I am writing up the "Colonel Jacobs Smiley Expedition" which was discontinued by Capt. Philip St George Cooke with a squadron of the 2nd Dragoons at Jackson's Grove a few miles south east of Fort Dodge on 6/30/1843. I notice your map gives Fort Dodge east of the 100° meridian while a map gives it just west. Do you know the exact location of Jackson's Grove? Emory shows it as Grove in his map of 1847 and Albert wrote to Santa Fe with Kearny in 1846, has the spot pointed out to him by Capt. John Love 2nd Dragoons who was present 6/30/43 when Smiley gave up the idea.

Fatherfully

My dear Captain

Your welcome & much appreciated letter of the 6th just received. Thank you very much for the information. I have now finished my paper on Twiggs, without the story you sent me however.

I got some good stories on him written by General Samuel French C.S.A. who served as a Lieutenant of Artillery under him. They appear in his book "Two Wars". I will bring you photocasts of Letters of Gen. W.T. Worth, Gen. Winfield Scott and Churchill, Inspector General, about the controversy between Worth & Twiggs over brevet ranks that nearly caused a bloody conflict, according to the Inspector Churchill.

I also saw the Memorial on the subject signed by 154 officers at Corpus Christi on Dec. 12, 1845 that Scott called notorious - I saw Taylors letter about Twiggs worth published by Bixby for private circulation.

I have just written a 2000 word paper on Capt. Nicholas Nolan & Company 10th Cavalry being lost on the Staked Plains in 1877.

when they went 80 hours without water, and drank the blood of 23 horses and 4 pack mules to keep alive & their own animals & some the remains of horses -

I got this account written by Major Lieutenant, Charles L. Smith, later Colonel 5th Cavalry & then a Brigadier General and by the Doctor, Captain J. H. S. King, who went to their rescue, written to the Medical Director Department of Texas, September 1877.

I suppose you know General Cooper & I will send my story to you & will appreciate any notes on Capt. Mulam, Lieut Cooper or Dr. King that you can give me.

I am here for a physical check up & a broken 5th metacarpal bone in left hand. I look forward to seeing you very soon - Mrs. John R. Shirley injured about same children stolen in 1876 near Frio Texas & Captain Boyd of the Cavalry from Fort Clark & Ranger Perry assisted in their pursuit. Do you remember it? I am sorry you had more sickness -

Faithfully
Matthew L. Crimmins
