

R

Brown family of Pr Wm Co -

Earliest ancestor - (def. sup.) - lived in Stafford Co. Va. - name William Brown Stafford dno.

Wm Brown, died for 2 1/2 3/4 acres of land on Powell's River, Stafford Co. (now Pr Wm)
from Lincolnton Booker on Apr 12, 1713 1726.

Will of Wm Brown Sr. dat Dec 29, 1732
devised the land where son Wm Brown Jr.
Wm Brown Jr wife buried in the family

Burying ground near Independent Hill
P.O. a few miles south of Narragansett.
wife's name not known - On July 24. 1744 their three orphan boys - Wm Brown (III), John Brown & George Brown were placed under the guardianship of Geo Brown & Cuthbert Starinard guards. will book O - p - 571. Pr Wm co.

Apr 17. 1746 John Brown was apprenticed to Richard Beeson Jr. - Frederick C. Willing

R

3.

This shows that John Brown was born March 25, 1730. all have

John lost - also of Geo. Brown to the author of the B. F. & P. W. Co. viz James E. Brown Attorney of Chicago, Ill.
who descends from the eldest son William Brown b. 1724-1729. He married Elizabeth Buckner a widow about 1753-57 who had 3 sons

Miss Susan Benson
Caldwell Ky.
Ky.

Art.

G. L. Miller
Thomas
W. Va.

U.S. POSTAGE
AUG 18
6 30 PM
KY

Brown
MISSISSIPPI

D2 J. L. Miller
Thomas
West Va

3/10/62

TRB.

The law firm of Brown & Martin
has fallen into worthy hands of the Junior partner - George Brown Martin - the son of my oldest sister Fannie -

Died June 20th 1909

Thomas Richard Brown was born at Pikeville, Ky. June 2, 1855, and was consequently at his death 54 years and nineteen days old. He was a son of the late Judge George N. Brown. With his parents at the age of 5 he removed to Catlettsburg where he has resided ever since. He obtained his early education in the schools of this city, afterward graduating with honor from the University of Virginia, and from a law school in Louisville, shortly afterward being admitted to the bar, and has since practiced his profession in all the courts of the state and the federal courts. He was the senior member of the law firm of Brown & Marton ranking among the leading lawyers of the state, and enjoyed a very extensive and lucrative practice. December 11, 1878, he married Miss Mary Lackey, daughter of the late Greenville Lackey, and to this union three children were born, all of whom together with Mrs. Brown, are living, as follows: Alexander Lackey Brown, Mrs. Quinn Poage, wife of Robert Poage, of Ashland, and Miss Florence Brown. Mr. Brown joined the Presbyterian church in 1872, since which time he has lived a consistent Christian life, and for a long time has been a veritable pillar in the First Presbyterian church of this city.

visit - I'm in earnest - sincerely order soon

Dear Dr. Miller - I feel time in my ignorance I've scribbled up these pages dreadfully - but I wanted so much to help you, I've really done my best - Above all I appreciate your interest in our branch of the Harnsford family - Some day should this come out in form I hope to be able to present it - So for this Sincerely of Kentucky and Kentuckyans - I referred to - written by ~~E. Polk Johnson~~ ^{or rather compiled} E. Polk Johnson -

Has been sent to me from my nephew's office. ^{He appreciates} ^{this is pretty} from which I gather so much for I do not know him who wrote it - but I know its the sincere feeling of the town in regard to my brother Thomas R. Brown - The name of Thomas

R. Brown is one which in battling short during his life-time as the synonym of sterling worth and strict integrity. So such after death it endures as a precious legacy to his family and is held in lasting esteem by the great body of his fellow citizens. It is the lesson of his life which entitles his name to a place in this work & makes the record honorable alike to him & the community in which he lived.

There's a long sketch - of course I know it's not pertinent, but I quote the other sentence - "In remembrance & honor of his services the handsome new High School Building has an inscription in granite bearing the words "Thomas B. Beron" (I would like to add - There was an endowment for this name, we did his family have ought to do with it -

Thomas B. Beron was born June 2nd
1854 - died June 20th 1909
Tell Pamela I claim a part of that