U. S. Registered Mails go to every post office in the world.

Letters and parcels may be registered at any post office or at any post-office station, and by rural carriers throughout their routes. Letters will be registered by letter carriers in the residential districts of cities.

For registered mail delivered through a U. S. post office, the sender receives, without request or extra charge, a return receipt signed by the addressee or his agent. For registered mail delivered in a foreign country the sender receives without extra charge a form of return receipt if the words "Return Receipt Demanded" appear on the envelope or wrapper.
