L. D. Bona Esq.

Eagle Pass

Dear Sir,

Texas.

Inasmuch as our lease for the store rent expires on January 1st, 1891, & not wishing to keep the store at the present rent. We write you at this date so as to enable you to re-rent the store should we disagree on terms.

Business is such that we are not able to pay more than twenty dollars a month during the coming year of 1891. Should this be satisfactory, you can draw up[®] contract & we will sign it.

If business picks up we of course will be willing to stand a raise in 1892. But as it is now we do not
