

LITTLE MAN

Oh, there was a little man, had a little can,
went to a Russian growler --
He went too soon on a Sunday afternoon, and you ought to heard the old man holler.

No booze today, No booze today, can't buy beer on Sunday. No booze today, No booze today, you'll have to come around next Monday.

Now the only girl I had, had a face like a horse and buggy. She was leaning up against the middle of the lake, Oh fireman save my child, but the child was bigger than the fireman, yes the child was bigger than the fireman.

Go easy with that monkey wrench, my father was a nut nut, nut nut, nut nut, nut nut, peekin through the knot hole in father's wooden leg. Who'll wind the cat while I am gone, vo de oh do do do, go get ^{AN} ax there's a fly on baby's head, and a boy's best friend is his mother, no other.

There's them of us that ain't et yet, they're hanging Danny Deaver in the morning. Who cut the sleeves out of grandma's BVDs? and they're moving sister's grave to build a silo.

Roses are red, violets are blue, Alpha Tau Omega,
God how my feet hurt. Nice fresh halibut fishes, Nice fresh halibut fishes. Lady come out with your ole fish pan, Lady come out with your ole fish pan. Nice fresh halibut fish.

Fresh from the pond last May. If you don't come out we will drive away, and there'll be no fish
today. I said no fish tooday.

Official Sweetheart Song

I wish I had a girl like you for ATO.
You are the sweetest girl in all this world I know.
I love you, adore you, and promise to be true. There's only one, beneath the sun, and that one,
dear is you, just you.
When days have past, you're mine at last, I'll understand. Each little thought, and thing that you might do. So, take my pin, and let's begin, a life devine.
Oh, Alpha Tau Omega, Girl be
be mine.

Dessert Song

Did you ever go a fishin on a bright and sunny day, down by the river where the little fishes play.
With your hands in your pockets,
and your pockets in your pants,
to watch the little fishes do the hoochie koochie dance.
Did you ever go a fishin for a little frat pin? When you started out, your chances were mighty slim.
When you got through you found on your breast, a little frat pin with an ATO crest.
Desserts on the table, lets eat.

Our Jewels

Old Alpha, how we love you thru and thru. And Tau, to you we promise to be true. Omega, all our praises are for you. For Alpha Tau Omega, mmmmm For dear old Gold and Blue.

Dear Alpha Tau Omega
our hearts are ever thine.
We set them as our jewels,
In our maltese Cross to shine.

To thee we pledge allegiance
Our service true and bold.
And ever we'll be loyal to the Azure and the Gold.

"Sheik"

I'll sing a song to you, A song of Gold and Blue. Each night it always seems, I see you in my dreams.

Some day I hope you'll know,
Just how I love you so.
But now, goodnight, sweetheart.
Sweetheart of A-T-O.

Dusk

Dusk, fades into darkness, Mem'ries into dreams. Recalling each moment of heav'nly bliss.
Thrilling again to your tender
kiss.

My heart murmurs, I love you.
Whispers "Hold me tight". I'll part from you never, we're sweethearts for ever,
My Alpha Tau dream girl,
Good-night.

In Florida

In Florida, the lemons grow, but there are none in ATO.
Away out West, where men are true,
The tiger growls for "OLE MIZZOU".

A Tau I am, A Tau I'll be, A Tau
through all Eternity.

End of a perfect day

When we come to the end of a perfect day, then out in the night
let us go.

To the home of a maid we will wend
our way.

To a sister in ATO.

Whose heart beats true, neath the Gold and Blue, and our cross is upon her breast.

Good-night, good-night Sweetheart
and true, may the angels guard
your rest.

ATO Girl

My ATO girl, how I love you.
You are the sweetest girl to wear
the Gold and Blue

Come now my sweetheart, now is the time.

Won't you wear my pin to show that you are mine?

REFLECTIONS ON A FIFTIETH REUNION

Reunions are competitive sport. At early reunions classmates compare (compete) with each other about jobs and income; at the 25th it is spouses and children and vacation homes while regarding with envy or glee classmates' waistlines, hairlines and wrinkles. As we approach our 50th, we enter into a new phase described by Woody Allen as life is 90 per cent just showing up.

It is said there are three ages of classmates--youth, middle age and "you haven't changed a bit." But change is the name of the game. Consider;

We were before television, penicillin, polio shots, antibiotics and the pill. Before radar, frisbees, nylon, dacron, Xerox, Kinsey. Before frozen food, fluorescent lights, credit cards and ball point pens. For us time-sharing meant togetherness, not computers. A chip meant a piece of wood; hardware meant hardware and software was not even a word. Bunnies were small rabbits and rabbits were not Volkswagens. We were before Grandma Moses and cup sizing for bras. We thought deep cleavage was something butchers did. We were before Rudolph the Rednose Reindeer, Snoopy, DDT and one-a-day vitamins. Before the white wine craze, disposable diapers, jeeps, frozen orange juice, instant coffee and McDonalds. We thought fast food was something you ate during Lent. Before FM radio, electric typewriters, word processors, Muzak, disco dancing (and that's not all bad).

Almost no one flew across the country and transocean flights were for Lindberg and Earhart and the Pan Am clippers. We were before India, Pakistan, Indonesia, the Phillipines and others were independent nations. Before nuclear fission, space travel and a man on the moon.

We were before pantyhose and drip-dry clothing and electric blankets. Before unmarried members of the opposite sex took trips together. Closets were for clothes, not for coming out of. Before men had long hair and before premarital sex (well, maybe). Anyway we got married first and then lived together. (How quaint can you be?)

In our day/cigarette smoking was fashionable, grass was mowed, coke drunk, and pot was something you cooked in. We were before day care centers, house-husbands, full-time baby sitters, gay rights, group therapy, consciousness-raising and sensitivity training. Aids were helpers in the principal's office. A meaningful relationship was getting along with our cousins. Made in Japan meant junk. Making-out referred to how well you did on an exam. We had dime stores where you could buy things for a dime or even a nickel. For a nickel you could ride the bus, make a phone call, buy a coke or buy enough stamps to mail a letter and two post cards. You could buy a Chevy for $659 (but who could afford one?). Gas was 11 cents a gallon. We were not before the difference in the sexes was discovered but before sex change--we just made do with what we had.

At Mizzou we had the Shack but no Blacks, nor were there any in the Major Leagues. And the football Tigers even won the Big Six and went to major bowls.

We have witnessed and/dealt with these and many other changes and events to include three wars.

As we gather here for this reunion in 1989, we can reassure ourselves that there are some things which never change--our ability to have a good time; our pride and love for Alpha Tau Omega and our brothers in ATO and our esteem for this great University.

 Anson, we're sure that you wanted 2 dinners. You can pay that night.

It has been suggested that we forgo the beer outside of the stadium. Many of you will want to have lunch at the ATO House and walk to the game from there. Purple Passion will not be available, but other spirits will.
