My Dear Anna,

I presume the acknowledgment of such a gift as I have just received from you should be couched in the most classical terms and be composed of interminable words, but I'm going to do nothing of the kind and break my record by simply saying I thank you very much,

I have wanted to see you for several days, & expected to spend yesterday afternoon with you, but fate or something else decreed otherwise, and even when you called here I was compelled to "keep mum"

But "I'm better now" and I hope soon to be able to tell you personally how much I appreciate your thoughtfulness in remembering this occasion,

Believe me

Very truly yours
Warren Pridy.
