if they dont throw it away in the office when they open the box of cookies. addy

Dear Hohn:- Yesterday we drove up to Tulia, took your Uncle Tyson, Grandma, Fay Dean and your Aunt Eula along, had a very nice day. Your Mother sent a little box of cookies Saturday, one for you and one for Howard, just to let you know, or to let Howard know that she had not forgotten his birth day is tomorrow. She first planned to send a cake but the weather is so hot and the distance so great she decided it might not get there in good shape, so sent the cookies instead. She wrote you nearly a week ago inquiring about the matter, but you did not answer. ~~Get~~ you some postal cards and take time enough out to drop us a line once in a while. If they dont have air mail postal cards over in that country let me know and I will send you over a few. There is a newspaper in the top of the cookie box that you might like to read
