In the death of Hiram Doss passed away one of Bell county's pioneer citizens. His death occurred Sunday night at the family home near Sparta.

Many a family in this city has had a bright, cheerful fire on a winter's day from the wood hauled by Mr. Doss.

He has for the past several years been blind.

Mr. Doss was a native of Illinois, born May 12, 1844.

He was a Confederate soldier, serving in the Trans-Mississippi department, stationed during most of his service near Shreveport.
