Dear John:

~~Let~~ I forget--as we were walking down the street in Jaares Sunday morning some spick said to your Daddy, "Come in Mr. Rockefeller, there's no cover charge" Oh boy, if we didn't carry him high. A woman had tried to take him in Saturday night so we started calling him money bags.

Gay and Gladys have just pulled out on their way to San Antonio. They came out again last night with Frank after they had eaten and stayed until midnight. Your pa and I are about out for sleep except they went off and left me in bed this morning so I caught up.

Your friend Bill Wilkerson didn't hurt ~~me~~ you any in my judgement. He just showed that his mind is in the gutter to begin with. There is nothing worse about a bed that one makes of it. I called the manager of one of the theatres here where the show is running and he says that while it is a French picture it is in no way obscene nor lewd. He just made the remark that the only difference between the French and the Americans is that the French aren't ashamed of their sex life and the Americans go around trying to hide their sex life. What one is behind closed doors reveals his true character any way. If Bill would go over to the library and look through some of the literature that is being currently studied in the literature classes his ears will turn purple and he will be all out for closing up the english literature department. It takes all sorts of people to make up a world and there have always been people like this character and there always will be. Sin and badness is where one makes it. I don't know of anything that one can't make something bad of if he tries hard enough. I don't know that I would make a printed reply but I surely wouldn't be embarrassed about the deal and I think Robinson's squib at the bottom was a buck passer if I ever saw one. I suppose you are the business office, aren't you? The Bible has some of the worst stories in it that I ever heard or read and they were about outstanding characters. I can scarcely remember an outstanding character in the Bible that didn't have an illicit love affair with some woman and more often some women. My admonition to you is try to do ~~x~~ right at all times and allplaces and then you will not have to feel apologetic about a thing such as this.

I would like so much to Hear Howard Butt this week. I really enjoy hearing him. I hope and pray that he is as genuine as he appears because I feel that he has a wonderful influence for the Lord.

It was good to hear your voice the other night. I hope the cold didn't get the best of you.

Your Daddy's plans are not set yet, but he is talking of going to Dallas Sunday and returning just as soon as the Director's meeting is over on Tuesday. It would be nice if you could join him without any burden on your school work. He will let you know what he is going to do so you can come over to Dallas if possible. He just said it might be better to drive down Monday afternoon and then come back Wednesday.

I must get a little work done on statements.

By the way, we fell heir to the cheese at a very reasonable price and have a gob of it left and all our money out of it. I think we will make a little money out of it and have all the cheese we can eat at the same time.

J. T. turned too much ammonia in the Frick and busted its head open. He thinks it is necessary to turn a valve ten turns in order to do any good.

Let us hear from you as often as you find time to write.

*Love
Mother*

Your friend Bill Wilkerson showed that his mind is in the gutter to begin with. There is nothing worse about a bed that one makes of it. I called the manager of one of the theatres here where the show is running and he says that while it is a French picture it is in no way obscene nor low. He just made the remark that the only difference between the French and the Americans is that the French aren't ashamed of their sex life and the Americans go around trying to hide their sex life. What one is behind closed doors reveals his true character any way.
