Dear John:

Mrs. Ewing called yesterday and said that Gordon had told you his responsibility was to look after the girls at Belton and that it was ~~his responsibility~~ yours to look after the girls in Waco and that you told him your Daddy had sent you to school to learn something and not to look after the girls. Ella got quite a kick out of it. I told her that I didn't think you would mind to bring the girls home if you were coming. I did intimate to her that I didn't think a split of the gasoline bill was very much, but it didn't seem to register so you just figure things out so that everybody is happy and you will be well repaid sometime, how or when or why, I don't know.

I think the other bunch is coming home this week-end and I think Carol Jean is a little homesick but Ella said she would much prefer that she wait until next week-end because she has some things that she wants to fit to her that she doesn't have finished. I told her I didn't want you to come this week-end because I wouldn't have time to visit with you.

Now, in as much as the Grants arent coming down this week-end, maybe Ann would like to come home also. Judge Stopping passed away yesterday

I have all your things together except nylon shirts and the x chamois (shammy) I can't find it, or do you have one?

We are moving out all the Del Monte mdse today to dry storage and what a job. Rosenberg's is to go out also. Then we got in a bunch of fish stix this a.m. I must close and do some more work on the books and try to get statements out

*Love,
Mother*
