CASWELL BROS.,

REAL ESTATE DEALERS

AND LOAN NEGOTIATORS,

COMMERCIAL CLUB BUILDING,

FORT WORTH, TEXAS.

We have for sale large bodies of land in North Texas and in the Pan-handle, containing from 10,000 to 100,000 acres, that are suitable for sub-dividing into farms. These lands are 80 per cent. tillable, and can be had at $2.00 to $4.00 per acre.

Also large tracts in Mexico, containing from 100,000 to 500,000 acres, at fifteen to forty cents per acre. These are excellent lands for cattle ranches; titles are PERFECT, and plenty of water.

On January 1st, 1876, Fort Worth had no railroads and only 1123 people. To-day she has eleven railroad outlets and 30,000 people.

We have a large list of City and Suburban property, and those wishing a good investment in a live city should write us at once, as values will rapidly advance.
