

Monday Night - In bed -

Dear Ruth - I am so anxious to hear that you are all right - again, but remember, I want to know the truth, you must have worked too hard that week before you got sick. - Went to church to-night - and the Robertsons brought me home Miss Goldman was with them, Had a good sermon but - no response, Louise Randle got to misbehaving as usual with several soldiers hovering around, and Dr. Pace called them down twice in a very nice way but, in a way that meant he would not stand any foolishness and that was the last - How disgraceful - a daughter of the ^{teacher of the} Philathea class. Miss Sadi was so tickled she could hardly sit still. - This Sunday morning at the Aid Society to-day, friends, the Aid Society for no purpose - they disband to-day, and Friday the Guild is supposed to disband, then Dr. Pace is going to quit the pastor of the First Baptist church in the organize with one organ - John called the Rev. William to the B. M. B. This was the Pace's resignation - This is what we should have done ten years ago - Mrs. Dr. Hemmer has been quite sick but - is better now. Mrs.

Smith, the one whose son was killed in France is very well at the hospital. Emma told me to-night - they were at Grand the little garden they had at her house in the egg they took him to the hospital but - brought him back home, across and
