

Friday morning: Dear Ruth

Mrs. Hastel just-phoned me that she was going over to San Antonio to see Elmer tomorrow night - before he leaves for France she just got a letter this morning from him asking them to come. I don't know when he expects to go but sometime soon. I am making him a pair of socks have made one pair and have one made on the second pair I intended making three pairs but if he goes soon he will not get the third pair. She was in bed all day yesterday with headache. Yesterday we had a grand service in the Methodist church it was crowded. In the afternoon I went to see Mrs. Phillip's mother, don't think she is going to get over this. Haven't heard from Hilbert since he got back, didn't get any mail yesterday so expect one from you and him. Well, I am entertaining the fiancée ~~the~~^{to} save the expense of the Horton family. She will have supper and stay all night - and have breakfast, - I was asked to chaperon the Dr. and his lady over the hospital then take an automobile ride to-night and go to the opera house to the graduating exercises but - as I have no servant - I'll probably stay at home. you know this is to pay off the obligation of entertaining the lady - see - I'm so glad I have a real good excuse for not going Well, I'll write you one more letter and that will be all, I guess. am sending you a check. A niece of the Stubblefields is visiting them, Miss Julia Cowan. I know you'll be crazy about her, she is so sweet she looks like Dr. S.

Still not write any more as I'm in a big hurry to get to knitting.

Bye bye - best love -

Mother - you can cash this right there at the college
