Dear Ruth:- Your letter came this morning also the cr. card Saturday - Don't study it hard you will be able to do it and study for another attack of the flu. I am perfectly well and am taking care of myself the best - I know but if I should get sick I would certainly let you know and send for you to come home if I was much sick, It is as bad if there now as it has ever been. Peter Pillsbury died Sunday. Fernie ~~is~~ ^{is} ^{with} ^{her} ^{mother} the wife of Mr. Stapp's ^{is} ^{known} ^{as} ^{Ma} ^{Heathers} ^{is} ^{that} ^{you} ^{do} ^{not} ^{know} ^{Mrs.} ^{Heathers} ^{is} ⁱⁿ ^a ^{very} ^{critical} ^{condition} ^{with} ^{only} ^{little} ^{hope} ^{she} ^{is} ⁱⁿ ^{the} ^{John} ^{Seely}, I was when at the house yesterday, Mr. Weathers had it last week but is about all right now. They are heartbroken over it - and the pastor is away will not be home before tomorrow some time.

It will not be long till you will be able to get your nap out at home. That was a little funny about Ruth not saying anything about her engagement did they either one say anything about how ~~Stilla~~ was getting along? I guess Mrs. Hartel's sister, ^{Katie} will be here by the time you get here.

Did I tell you Helen ~~Mar~~ didn't come home with her father she was sick I saw him Sunday and he said he didn't think she had the flu.

Sunday morning one of the men from the Y. M. C. A. but preached for us a Mr. Edmondson and at night - a Mr. Higgenbotham. They were both very good Mr. Tarrant sang a solo at night, it certainly was nice.

Mrs. Serfingour has the flu, they phoned me Saturday morning to find out about getting a nurse that Mrs. Mann had; I went out in the afternoon and found her pretty sick and her friend Mrs. Withrow also sick in bed. They are doing all right - so far.

I had dinner over at Josephines last Sunday she got up and was up all day Sunday and has been up ever since.

Mr. James said they were going to cut out all the holidays and run school over into July to make up what they had lost and have school on Saturday too - I think you have been very fortunate - to be able to go through the year as you have.
