

← To the one who did the WALKING - - -

From the one who did the

SQUAWKING!

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

*lots of love
mama*

(over)

Dear folks,
It is Friday morning and I'm in Rome. At Chattanooga I wrote Janet. I gave her the Rome address and I mailed it air mail before I left Chattanooga.
Everyone here in Rome is fine. <sup>they say</sup> Aunt Mary's back got hurt she nearly fell from the new door neighbors porch. We just got the letter from John. But I've not read it. I took a bath and now I feel better. I'll get the duffel bag and steamer trunk when they get here and I'll send them to Everett.
If you hear from Janet send me the letter
right on through.
I guess I'd better go gather eggs with Aunt Mary before the hen
pecks up. -

Daddy & they all wanted and looked for you and were disappointed that you didn't bring me.
Send me the fannies I asked for and write me.

Loads of love and kisses
Mary